

PROGRAMME OF THE
M. H. S. GRADUATES' REUNION,
TUESDAY EVENING, JUNE 25, 1912.
CELEBRATION OF THE FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF THE FIRST GRADUATION.

BANQUET, 6.30 P. M., DEWEY HALL, TOWN HOUSE.

PROF. LEWIS J. JOHNSON, '83, TOAST-MASTER.

Mr. George E. Stacy will respond for the School Committee.

Dr. George H. Derry, for the Teachers.

Mr. Herbert W. Lull, "The Product."

Melvin A. Underwood, '62, "The Event We Celebrate."

Mrs. Frank L. Young, '75, "Declamation Day."

Mrs. Nellie Blunt Oliver, '80, "Friends and Friendships."

Frank A. Morrill, '83, "Fifty Years of Progress."

Annie C. Gates, '93, "The Spirit of the Age."

John E. Swift, '96, "Our Debt to Alma Mater."

Alfred B. Cenedella, '06, "The Italian Graduates."

Fred J. Goucher, '12, "The Graduating Class."

At 8.30 P. M., adjournment to Town Hall, when there will be: Social Hour; Announcements; Entertainment; Roll Call and Songs; Dancing. Refreshments will be served during the evening.

Marsh's Orchestra will furnish the music.

Present High School Building, Erected in 1901.

First High School Building ; Erected in 1850, Burned in 1900.

“CONCORDIA.”

❁ BRIEF STATISTICS ❁

OF THE

GRADUATES

OF THE

MILFORD HIGH SCHOOL.

1862-1912.

PRESS OF G. M. BILLINGS.

PREFACE.

AT the annual business meeting of the M. H. S. Graduates' Association in 1911, it was voted that a committee of fifty (one from each graduated class) be appointed by the President and the Executive Committee to assist in arrangements for celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of the graduation of the first class to receive M. H. S. diplomas, and it was also voted to publish this pamphlet coincident with the same event.

The Committee of Fifty has rendered invaluable assistance in collecting facts and soliciting contributions to make possible the printing of this list of about a thousand graduates.

We have endeavored to obtain a brief history of each, but in fifty years the graduates have become so widely scattered that we have been unable to obtain the addresses of all, and some, whom we have located, have not responded to our inquiries. A star after a graduate's name indicates that no further information has been received.

We wish to express our gratitude and appreciation for the generous financial support, which you, the graduates, have given us.

Signed,

The Executive Committee,

C. B. GODFREY, President,

AGNES L. MANN, 1st Vice-Pres.

GUENN COOKE, 2d Vice-Pres.,

FRED H. MORIARTY, 3d Vice-Pres.

ELIZABETH B. BARNES, Sec. and Treas.

❧ Graduates' Association. ❧

MILFORD HIGH SCHOOL.

CLASS OF '62.

CORA A. CHAPIN.—Attended Brattleboro, Vermont, seminary, and Dr. Gannett's school, Boston; taught school three years at Quincy; married Charles B. Godfrey, June 25, 1868; three children, Mabel Lee, Grace and Stuart C., all living; present residence, Milford.

KATE S. FREEMAN.—Taught for a time in our public schools, and also in the South; married R. P. Parker, a lawyer, of Indianapolis; one child, not living; Mr. Parker died, and at last accounts she was still living at 1656 Talbot Ave., Indianapolis.

MAY A. PARKHURST.—Attended Brattleboro, Vermont, seminary, and Boston High and Normal schools. Has been engaged in teaching in Pennsylvania, Illinois, Wisconsin, Washington, D. C., Chelsea and Milford, and was for 12 years assistant in the Milford High school, the longest record of service in the history of the school; married Henry E. Fales September 12, 1891; no children; Mr. Fales died January 24, 1897; present residence, Milford.

MARK D. SHEA.—Went to Chicago and was engaged in the wholesale boot and shoe business until his death in September, 1900; was not married.

MELVIN A. UNDERWOOD.—Graduated from Harvard college in 1866, and spent a year or two abroad; engaged in the manufacture of boots with his father and others; later in the insurance business in Boston; and for a time was deputy collector for the city of Boston; had some newspaper experience on the Boston Advertiser and as proprietor of the Spanish-American Exporter; for the past 26 years has held an important position in the Boston custom house; married Clara I. Babbitt, January 15, 1880; no children; wife died February 28, 1901; has had wide experience as organist and choirmaster in various churches, and is a member of several leading musical organizations; present residence, 6 Longwood Terrace, Boston, Mass.

CHARLES B. GODFREY.—Although not a graduate, was made a member of the Graduates' Association because of having completed the entire school course except the last term; married Cora A. Chapin (see record above); has been in various mercantile pursuits, and spent two years abroad in the interests of a Boston firm, introducing an electrical signal system; is at present located in Milford.

CLASS OF '63.

ETHA H. AINSWORTH.—Taught in public schools; married Rev. Watson M. Ayers, a Methodist clergyman, then of Natick, June 1, 1864; resided in various places; died March 9, 1909; two children, a son and a daughter, only the latter still living.

KATE E. BLOOD.—Taught in the local schools; married John C. Warren, a prominent Boston organist, June 1, 1868; three children, Mabel, Ernest and Clarence, all living; husband died November 3, 1894; died November 14, 1911.

ALICE B. CHAPIN.—Was for many years a valued teacher in the Milford public schools; died May 31, 1900.

CLARA A. HAYWARD.—Married Henry E. Fales, lawyer, Nov. 5, 1867; two children, Harold Everett and Clara Ethalyn, both living; died August 2, 1886.

CORA A. HERO.—Married John S. Mayhew December 20, 1864; two children, Aaron H. and Mabel L.; both living; resided in Milford until her death, Sept. 25, 1896.

WILLIAM J. MANN.—Was for a time associated with his father in the manufacture of boots and shoes; engaged in other mercantile pursuits in Boston later, married Carrie Berry in 1876; one son, Elbridge; died August 25, 1896.

S. GERTRUDE PARKHURST.—Taught school three years; married Charles E. Guild, pharmacist, December 13, 1869; resided in Milford and Boston until May 4, 1889, when she died, leaving no children.

WILLIAM B. WOOD.—Married Miss Amelia A. Pott of Pottsville, Pa., June 23, 1881; three children; for a number of years in the employ of a leather firm in Boston, and during part of the time at their tanneries in Pennsylvania; at present head bookkeeper in the Eliot national bank, Boston, with residence at Newton Highlands.

CLASS OF '64.

GEORGE H. BALL.—Graduated from Harvard college and law school; was assistant district attorney and represented Worcester in General Court; married Florence Gill of Worcester, Oct. 29, 1878; four children, Edith M., Marian G., George G. and Dorothy, all living; has held numerous positions of trust, and has been president of the Norwich & Worcester railroad; died 1904.

FRANK BATTLES.—Enlisted Aug. 9, 1864, in 19th unattached company, and was discharged Nov. 16, 1864, has been accountant, and is at present indexer of state records at Concord, N. H.; is assistant adjutant-general of New Hampshire department, Grand Army; has served several terms in the New Hampshire Legislature; married Ida Cloud at Concord, June, 1878; one son, Augustus, who is a member of the Symphony orchestra.

ADLA M. CHAPIN.—Married Henry A. Claflin Jan. 31, 1867; three children, Eva, Mary and Aaron, all living; died Dec., 1911.

AMANDA H. CHAPIN.—Married Russell Gates of New York, Nov. 23, 1871; removed to Colorado, where she died Dec. 18, 1875; two daughters, Annie and Bessie, both living.

RUTH CHENEY.—After graduation went to Kinsman, Ohio, where she married George Davis, farmer, of that place; went thence to Jamestown, Nebraska; no children. Nothing heard since 1902.

EMMA HOLBROOK.—Made a member of the Graduates'

Association by vote, having completed the entire course except the last term; taught school here for some time; lived at home until about 20 years ago, since when she has lived with her sister in Wayland, Mass., and in Boston.

ISORA M. LESEUR.—Was a teacher in our public schools married Myron Reynolds, and resided for a number of years in Worcester; was an invalid for a long time and died in the fall of 1900, about a year after the death of her husband; no children.

FRANK W. MEAD.—Although not a graduate, was made a member of the Graduates' Association because of having completed the entire school course except the last term; served about a year in the Civil War, 1864-'65; married Mary E. Barstow; three children, one living; trustee and real estate business; present residence, 1379 Commonwealth Ave., Boston.

CLASS OF '65.

NATHANIEL F. BLAKE.—Married Laura J. Burr Nov. 19, 1867; one daughter, Ethelwyn; occupation, bookkeeper; has been trustee of Town Library and librarian for upwards of 35 years; still a resident of Milford.

DIANA CARPENTER.—Taught school for a time after graduation and lived at home until her death, which occurred March 24, 1883.

JOANNA M. COUGHLAN.—Taught school here; married John W. Luby, Aug. 19, 1869; eleven children, William, Francis, Henry, Matthew, George, Alice, John, Albert, James, Fred, Joseph; three, Henry, Matthew and Joseph, deceased; has always lived in Milford.

MARIANNA CROCKER.—Married Cyrus P. Bushnell, machinist, at Providence, April 30, 1872: three children, George E., Kate E. and Leslie E., all living; has resided at Lisbon, Conn., East Douglas, Mass., Providence, R. I., Hanover, Conn., and Auburn, R. I.; husband died April 15, 1888; present residence, 28 Princeton Ave., Providence.

EMMA T. DAY.—Married Dr. Wm. M. Parker June 25,

1872; died August 22, 1882; Dr. Parker died March 1, 1883; a daughter, Lillian B., is Mrs. Walter R. Marsh, and lives at Elizabeth, N. J.

EMMA F. FISHER.—Taught in the local schools; married Edward B. Bullard of Sherborn, Mass., June 23, 1869; one son, Harold; resided in Maine and at Sherborn until Mr. Bullard's death, March 9, 1885; has since lived in Milford.

STEARNS GODFREY.—Possessed of rare musical talent, and studied two years under eminent teachers abroad; married Annie Donovan in 1872; one son, Carl; present residence, 46 St. James street, Boston.

ANNA L. HAYWARD.—Married Dr. H. C. Bullard of North Attleboro; one son, Newell. Taught in the local schools previous to marriage; died about 1908.

ALTA M. HOWARD.—Taught in our schools for some time; married Lawrence P. Goodspeed March 13, 1878; two children, Howard A. and B. Alta, both living; lived in Worcester and Providence; died 1910.

DAVID F. McGRATH.—Attended Holy Cross college and Montreal seminary, fitting for the Catholic clergy; was assistant pastor at North Adams and Chicopee; later appointed pastor at Indian Orchard, and was transferred to Leicester, Mass., and thence to Holyoke; appointed pastor of St. Mary's parish, Milford, 1904.

S. ELLA NASH.—Married Dr. Eugene Howard Dec. 25, 1865; four sons, Philip E., Frank W., Robert G., and Frederick H., Philip and Frederick now living; spent a year abroad with her sons studying; was engaged in translating and other literary work for various periodicals, and devoted some time to lecturing until failing health prevented; had various places of residence, and died August 13, 1894.

DAVID L. PARKHURST.—Went west many years ago, and was located at or near San Francisco; married Nellie Jackson, and has had two or more children; is reported to have died about 15 years ago.

MARIETTA N. THAYER.—Attended Wheaton seminary, Norton, Mass.; married Judge Charles A. Dewey, of the local district court, March 12, 1867; one daughter, Maria T., now Mrs. Charles H. Cole; Judge Dewey died March 22, 1908; has travelled extensively; present residence, Webster, Mass.

SUSAN E. THWING.—Married James I. Whitney Feb. 28, 1867; three children, Mabel G., Almon T., and Anna T., two living; Mr. Whitney died June 5, 1890; Mrs. Whitney has been an excellent contralto vocalist, teacher of music in the Hopedale and Milford public schools, and a member of the Lilhatansu ladies' quartet; has resided at Rutland, Vermont, Milford, and is at present living at Hopedale, Mass.

CLASS OF '66.

JOSEPHINE C. BATTLES.—Attended Lexington seminary; taught school here for some time; married Edward Franklin Woodbury of Boston in 1874; three children, all living; husband died May 15, 1899; present residence, Boston.

JULIA M. BATTLES.—Taught school here and at Harvard, and was engaged for a time at Chauncy Hall school, Boston; is at present living in Boston.

MARY A. BIGELOW.—Has lived at Albany and Buffalo, N. Y., with present residence at Detroit; married George W. Starkie, express messenger, a widower with three children; she has no children of her own; at her own request her name has been erased from the membership list of the Association.

SARAH F. CUMMINGS.*—Married Frank Dewing, book-keeper, Jan. 1, 1872; one son, Roy, residence since graduation, Milford, Hopedale, Boston and Lynn; owing to husband's health, removed some years ago to a farm in New Hampshire or Vermont.

ANNETTA L. DRAPER.*—Taught school for some time previous to marriage, Nov. 30, 1871, to Jonas H. Carter, farmer, of West Berlin, Mass.; three children, Lemuel D., Eva L., and Lucie H., all living; died several years ago.

ANNA E. GATES.—Taught for some time in our public schools; married Joseph Robb, merchant, at Newtonville, July 30, 1878; resided at Milford, Newton, Belfast (Ireland), and Boston; married Alonzo K. Jacobs of Richmond, Vermont,

Oct. 10, 1889; no children; husband died Nov. 9, 1900; died March, 1911.

ELLEN M. GLEASON.—Removed to Brooklyn, N. Y.; married Lamartine Miller, at one time confidential clerk to A. T. Stewart, and later and at the time of his death studying medicine; two sons, both living; resided later at Greenpoint, L. I.; died in 1910.

ANNA R. HAYWARD.—Graduated from Wheaton seminary, Norton, in 1869; taught in the public schools of Milford, Bellingham, Blackstone, Franklin, Hopkinton, and Pawtucket, R. I.; married April 24, 1876, to Henry E. Staples; one daughter, Alzie R.; resided at Mendon until husband's death, Nov. 17, 1883, going thence to South Milford; married George W. Jennison April 2, 1890; present residence, South Milford; husband died Sept., 1908.

LEANDER HOLBROOK.—Graduated at Harvard university and law school and was engaged in the practice of law in Milford until his death, May 4, 1904.

MARY A. HOLBROOK.—Taught in our public schools several years; died January 20, 1912.

ELLEN L. HOWE.—Resided at home, and after her mother's death was her father's housekeeper until his death; for several years was a companion at Lancaster, Mass, and later engaged in hospital work at various institutions; present address, Cambridge.

EMMA L. HUNT.—Married Oscar E. Draper, Oct. 12, 1869; died, Dec. 8, 1876; three children, Laura A., Hiram E., and Clarence P., all living.

CARRO S. LELAND.—Taught school in Milford, Gardner, and Washington; married James S. Piper, rattan worker, Oct. 4, 1885; no children; lived for a time in Natick, going thence to Chicago; died at Joliet, Ill., Oct., 1894, and was buried in Milford.

ALZINA M. NELSON.*—Taught school for a short time; married W. J. Adair at Milford, Nov. 27, 1867; one son, Frederick W., who died at the age of two years; resided at Chicago and Waupun, Wisconsin, where Mr. Adair died April 13, 1886; married James Adair, brother of first husband, in Chicago; last known residence, Hartford, Conn.

MARY E. NOYES.*—Taught school in Milford and later in Hopkinton and Rockbottom; married Dr. Robert B. Harris, dentist, March 18, 1869, and lived in Ashland until his death, Sept. 19, 1869; married Frank Bradford in April 1876, and after a brief residence in Boston, he died in July of the same year; was clerk in a local dry goods store until 1880, when she married Silas W. Hale, a former principal of the school; they have four children, three girls and a boy, and reside at Hudson, Mass.

EMMA C. O'BRIEN.—Resided here with her parents until her death, which occurred Nov. 13, 1868.

ANNIE J. RICKER.—Went from Milford to Augusta, Maine, where she still resides; married Col. George A. Philbrook, druggist, Jan. 1, 1872; one daughter, Mary G.; present residence, Augusta, Me.

CLARENCE A. SUMNER.—Was bookkeeper for Elbridge Mann till 1879; from 1879 to 1897 a manufacturer of boot and shoe machinery; for 30 years has done local newspaper work for various papers; is now in the insurance business and an expert accountant; was historian for Montgomery lodge in the publication of its centennial history in 1897-98; married Estelle S. Clafin Oct. 18, 1881; two children, Bertha L. and Lilla M., both living; always lived in Milford; public accountant.

JAMES N. SUPPLE.*—Graduated from Holy Cross college, Worcester, and St. Joseph's seminary, Troy, N. Y.; ordained as a Catholic clergyman, and was assistant pastor at South Boston, and later pastor at St. Francis de Sales church, Charlestown, his present residence.

ABBIE H. WALKER.*—Married Charles L. Carpenter, liveryman, of New Bedford, Oct. 16, 1872; two sons, both living; has resided at Boston, Holyoke, and New Bedford; last known residence, Fairhaven; husband was night watchman in New Bedford.

SARAH E. WHITTEMORE.—Taught school in Milford and Newton; married Rev. J. B. Robinson about 1877; resided at Fisherville, N. H., and West Springfield, Mass., where she died April 17, 1883; one son, George A.

CLASS OF '67.

JEANNETTE BASSETT.—Was a valued teacher in our public schools until illness compelled her retirement; she died Feb. 15, 1872.

SOPHIA B. GILLMAN.—Taught school here for a year or so; married Herbert G. Conner, shoe manufacturer, of Lynn, about 1870-71, where she has since lived; two children, a son and daughter; husband died about fifteen years ago.

ANNIE R. GODFREY.—Attended Gannett institute, Boston, a year and a half, Vassar college one year, and two years as librarian of Wellesley college 1875-7; married Melvil Dewey Oct. 19, 1878; one son, Godfrey; vice-president and director of Lake Placid club, of which she was, with Mr. Dewey, the founder in 1905; associate editor of "Journal of Home Economics"; founder, with Mrs. Ellen H. Richards, of Lake Placid Conference on Home Economics, of which she was secretary seven years.

SUSAN E. INMAN.—Was a teacher in our public schools for practically the entire period since graduation, until her death Dec. 24, 1910.

CLARA J. LOTHROP.—Attended Highland Institute, Peterham; married at South Boston Nov. 5, 1873, to James E. Walker, treasurer of Milford Savings bank; two children, Lelia A. and Percy L., both living; present residence, Milford.

MARTHA M. RING.—Attended Bridgewater Normal school, and later taught school in Milford and Newton; married at Boston May 23, 1874, to George R. Bakeman; no children; resided at Boston and Newton; at present travelling.

MARY W. WALKER.—Married June 10, 1869, to Joseph B. Phipps at Milford; three sons, William W., Frank G., and George V., all living except Frank; resided at Milford, Hopkinton and Auburndale; has been an excellent soprano vocalist and teacher of music; present residence, 72 Westland Ave., Boston.

EDGAR W. WASHBURN.—Practised law at South Framingham; married Helen M. Avery at Waltham Oct. 12, 1872; one son, Walter A.; practised his profession in Chicago; died during the winter of 1905-06.

ANNA M. WILKINSON.—Was for a time a teacher in our public schools; married Jan. 9, 1870, to George S. Whitney, contractor and builder, at Milford; two children, Florence E. and Hester M., both living; present residence, Milford.

LURA C. WOODS.—Taught in the local schools; married Warren Sears, traveling salesman, Feb. 16, 1874; died April 6, 1877; one son, not living.

CLASS OF '68.

J. OSCAR BAILEY.—Learned trade as jeweler and watchmaker, and has since been in that business in Boston and Marlboro; married M. Lizzie Bowers at Milford, Oct. 20, 1875; two children, Alvin H. and Abigail R.; former died at seven years of age, latter now living; present residence, 205 Church street, Marlboro.

M. LIZZIE BOWERS.—Attended Mt. Holyoke seminary; married J. Oscar Bailey Oct. 20, 1875; see record above.

SARAH C. BELCHER.—For several years a teacher in the Milford schools, and later in the Belcher grammar school at Randolph, Mass., where she resides.

MATTHEW P. CALLANAN.*—Was for many years in the grocery business in Milford; served the town as selectman and member of the School Board; later interested in the newspaper business at Fitchburg, and now represents a Boston piano firm, with residence in Dorchester; married Kate O'Connell at Lowell, July, 1878; three children, two living.

ELLA F. CARPENTER.*—Attended Framingham Normal school; taught in Milford, Grafton, Medway and Arlington; removed to Cambridge, where she resided until her mother's death; is now teaching in the State Home and School at Providence, R. I.

ELLEN M. CHAPIN.*—Married Emery D. Lothrop at Milford Oct. 13, 1869; one son, Frank C.; resided at Milford and Washington, D. C.; present residence, South Acton, Mass.

ELIZA J. DOTY. —Taught in the local schools seven years and one year at Thompson, Conn.; married Charles D. Chase June 28, 1877, and resided at Holden, Mass., for nine years and later at Killingly, Conn.; now located at Danielson, Conn.; five children living, Warren, Marion, Herbert, Alice and Orpah; three others have died.

FRANK J. DUTCHER.—Married Martha M. Grimwood of Pawtucket, R. I., June 27, 1877; three children, Warren W., Daisy G., and Ruth C., all living; has served on the School Boards of Milford and Hopedale; began work in Sept., 1878, as office boy for George Draper & Sons, Hopedale, and has been connected with the Hopedale companies in various capacities ever since; is now president of the Draper company; treasurer and director of the Milford Water Co., and holds important offices in many other business organizations; is a park commissioner of Hopedale, his residence since graduation.

MARY L. GILMAN.*—Married Frederick P. Ham, grocer, of Somerville, May 22, 1872; no children; still living at Somerville.

GEORGE A. GOLDSMITH.—Lived at home until his death, Feb. 7, 1869, only eight months after graduating.

RANDALL B. GREENE.—Manufacturer of heels and dealer in leather; resided since graduation in Milford; married Ella A. Robinson of Newton, Sept. 3, 1879; two children, Avis F. and Earle R., neither living.

SAMUEL W. HAYWARD.—Went West about 40 years ago, and resided at Cherokee, Iowa, married there and had one son; wife is dead; married again; no children; died about 1906.

ABBIE M. MANN.—Two years at Abbott Academy, Andover, Mass; taught for a time in our public schools; married Frank G. Newhall, cashier of the Brighton National bank, in December, 1883; one daughter, Blanche; present residence, Brighton.

ELLA J. NEWTON.—Taught school in Milford and Auburn, Mass., Maine, Minnesota, and Foochow (China), where she was engaged in mission school work for many years, and where she died Dec. 28, 1909.

CHARLES N. NICHOLS.*—Was for a time clerk in a dry goods store, and later bookkeeper in a local coal office, which position he resigned to go into business in Boston; married Ellen E. Davis of Milford, March 7, 1876; no children; is now employed in the office of the Draper company at Hopedale, and resides in Milford.

GEORGE E. PATRICK.—Graduated from Cornell university; was professor of chemistry at the Kansas university, Lawrence, Kansas; practical chemist in a mining and smelting project for four years; professor of agricultural chemistry at the state agricultural college and experiment station at Ames, Iowa; is now assistant chemist in the United States department of agriculture at Washington; married Hattie E. Lewis at Lawrence, Kansas, June 19, 1879; no children; his wife died in 1910.

CLASS OF '69.

ANNA L. ADAMS.—Has a record of 21 years' continuous service in the Milford schools, resigning in 1890; married Edward G. Bell, Nov. 25, 1879; no children; has sung in all the local churches, and was alto in the Lilhatansu ladies' quartet 10 years or more; is president of the local Woman's club and has been president of the Woman's Relief corps, and is active in the work of that organization, both state and national; still resides in Milford; Mr. Bell died Nov. 30, 1909.

GILBERT M. BILLINGS.—Was bookkeeper in local boot factories for 10 years; in 1882 commenced the publication of the Milford Gazette, of which he is still proprietor; has served as trustee of public library, and is at present a member of the School Board; married Edith L. Blake Nov. 26, 1874; one son, George W.; Mrs. Billings died Dec. 28, 1910.

JANE H. BLUNT.—Attended Framingham Normal school, and taught six years in our public schools; married Albert F. Sadler of Milford Aug. 14, 1878; one son, Roy A.; husband died Aug. 20, 1892; still living in Milford.

KATE CHAPIN —Has taught almost continuously in our public schools since graduating, and is still so engaged.

EVA W. COOK.—Was a teacher in our public schools until her removal from town, and is at present similarly engaged in Brookline, and resides in Boston.

LIZZIE M. GLEASON.—Taught for a time in the local schools; married Elias Whitney at Milford, Sept. 11, 1872; one daughter, Gladys; lived in Brooklyn, N. Y.; died Jan. 26, 1912.

HENRY W. LELAND.—Has continued to live in Milford; has been engaged as a carpenter and in farming; married Cora F. White of Upton, Jan. 1, 1876; seven children, Charles S., Evie M., Bertha A., Viola F., Etta M., Josie L., and Hazel M.; four now living.

EMMA F. PARKER.—Possessed of exceptional talent as a pianist, and spent some time abroad pursuing her musical studies; married Walter R. Nash at Milford Nov. 20, 1878; no children; died Aug. 3, 1897.

MARY W. PARKHURST.—Married George W. Hudson at Milford in 1878; resided here until just prior to her death, which occurred at Westboro, Dec 12, 1885; one child, now living.

HELEN C. RAND.*—Attended Illinois Normal university a year and a half; taught school at Elgin, Illinois; held a United States government clerkship at Washington two years; married William Tindall at Alton, Illinois, Oct. 31, 1876; four children, Philip, Kate, Arba Nelson, Lloyd, all living; present residence, Washington, D. C., where Mr. Tindall is secretary of the Board of Commissioners.

S. ELDORA SHELDON.—For 40 years or more one of Milford's corps of teachers, and still in the same occupation.

MARTHA A. SMITH.—Began teaching in 1869 at the "City school", Milford. Left that school to attend Boston Training school. Taught for a time in Dorchester and Salem High schools. Returned to Milford and was employed as teacher in North Purchase Grammar school. From there went to Newport, R. I., and taught in grammar schools until her marriage in 1888 to Achilles Stevens of Newport; two children, one, a daughter, died in her seventh year; another daughter graduates from Pembroke College, Brown University, in June; Mr. Stevens died in 1899.

DORA E. SUMNER.*—Taught in the local schools; married George E. Hastings Nov. 29, 1871; three children, Jennie Ruby, Alfred and Hazel, all living; has resided at Davenport, and Audubon, Iowa, Grand Island, Neb., and is now living at Arcadia, Neb., where Mr. Hastings has a general store.

CLASS OF '70.

ANNA M. BANCROFT.—Graduated from Oread Institute, Worcester; taught in high schools at Hopkinton, Fairhaven and Milford; has served on the School Board of Hopedale, and is now one of the trustees of The Bancroft Memorial library; resides at home at Hopedale.

EVA R. DRAPER.—Taught in the public schools of South Berlin, Mendon, North Brookfield and Milford; was also for a short time in a private school; died at Milford, April 18, 1884.

FRANK S. HAYWARD.*—Was clerk in a Lonsdale, R. I., store three years; was later engaged as a butcher at South Milford, going thence to Northbridge, his present residence; married Hannah Frink at Hopkinton, Nov. 15, 1874; six children living, one dead; his wife died Feb. 27, 1891; was trustee of Hopedale public library four years; married Mary L. Taft of Mendon, July 8, 1891; one son by second marriage died in 1897, at the age of four months.

ELEANOR W. JOHNSON.—Lived at home until her death, August 16, 1884.

WILLIAM H. LOTHROP.*—Was at Newton for a short time after graduation, going thence to South Boston, where he joined his father in the manufacture of a patent ferrule, in which business he is now engaged in Newark, N. J.,; married Lelia Sanborn of Lawrence in 1874; three children, Clara V, Helen S., and Henry O, all living; present residence, Dorchester.

ELLA U. B. NORMANDY.—Attended the convent school Mount St. Mary at Montreal two years; taught in grammar and high schools at Milford, Holbrook, Fall River, Fitchburg and Blackstone; married Benjamin F. Brown, teacher, at Fitchburg in July, 1880; no children; has since lived at Athol, Montpelier, Vermont, and since 1885, in or near Boston, teaching two years in the Malden high school, and in the girls' high school in Boston; died Oct. 11, 1907.

VELMA V. NOYES.—Taught for a time in the local schools; married W. F. Spaulding, commercial traveler, at Milford, November 26, 1873; two children, Lillienne V. and Irene V.; neither living; has resided at Boston, New York, Milford, and Hayden Row, where she died in October, 1908.

JOHN P. POWERS.—Was employed as bookkeeper at Boston and New York, and later at New Haven up to the time of his death, which occurred at his home here in August, 1875.

BENJAMIN F. SAVILLE.—Married Teresa A. Staggs of New York about 1878; one son, Fred W.; was engaged in music stores in Worcester several years, going thence to Springfield where he engaged in business with a partner, later taking full control of it; present residence, 234 Worthington street, Springfield.

FRANK L. YOUNG.*—Graduated from Brown University in 1874; married Minnie E. Jones at Milford, Dec. 16, 1878; six children, Arthur P., Harold W., Percy L., Marjorie, Rosamond and Sumner B., all living; is a manufacturer and wholesale dealer in oils at 111 Purchase street, Boston, and New Bedford. He has the honor of being the first graduate of the school to deliver the graduation address, which he did at the exercises of 1901.

CLASS OF '71.

EDITH L. BLAKE.—Married G. M. Billings Nov. 26, 1874; one son, George W.; residence since graduation, Milford, until her death, Dec. 28, 1910.

MILLIE A. BLUNT.—Taught school three years; married James Byron Leonard, merchant tailor, May 11, 1875; one son, James Angelo, not living; died Oct. 6, 1902.

A. AUGUSTA CAY.—Taught in the local schools; married Orlando F. Taft, farmer, of Upton, Nov. 9, 1883; four children, George O., Ernest R., Elmer F., and Lillian E.; died March, 1908.

ADDIE A. CHAPIN*.—Married Joseph F. Yeager, chair-maker, in 1872; one daughter, Eda N.; resided in Baldwinsville, Mass.; husband died April, 1912.

JULIA E. CONNOLLY.*—Taught in the local schools seven years; was a teacher of the piano, and later a private tutor in New York.

KATE L. GILLMAN.—Married J. Elwin Howard, Jan. 9, 1872; two children, Earle E. and Carl C., only the former living; died Nov. 14, 1874, and Mr. Howard Nov. 10, 1883.

HATTIE GOLDSMITH.—Married Frank E. Mathewson, baker, May 14, 1873; lived in Milford until her death, June 17, 1878; one child, died in 1879, aged 18 months.

DITA F. HARRIS.—Married Herbert L. Holmes, locomotive engineer, May 4, 1877; no children; has resided at Milford and Boston, with present residence at Milford.

GEORGE HERBERT.—Graduated from Amherst college in 1876; went to Chicago and became clerk in a railroad office; since 1881 he has been chief clerk in the offices of the Chicago, St. Paul & Omaha railroad at St. Paul, Minn.; is not married.

HERBERT L. HOLMES.—Married Dita F. Harris May 4, 1877; no children; is a locomotive engineer on the Boston & Albany railroad; present residence, Milford.

ELSIE A. JENKS.—Married Alonzo L. Jenks, bookkeeper, Oct. 21, 1874; resided at Pawtucket, R. I., Los Angeles, Cal., Idaho Springs, and Denver, Col., and Cheyenne, Wyoming Ter.; died of cancer at Milford, Sept. 25, 1886; one daughter, Edith M.

ADELAIDE M. KNIGHT.—Has lived, and is still, at home in Milford.

JAMES S. O'CALLAGHAN.—Graduated from Harvard college in 1875, and the law school in 1878; went to New York, where he practised his profession until his death, Dec, 2, 1899; was not married.

DANIEL J. M. O'CALLAGHAN.*—Graduated from Harvard college in 1877; was located for a time at Salem, going thence to New York, where he is now editor and publisher of the Political Liberty Herald; not married.

CHARLES F. O'REILLEY.*—Was employed in various shoe towns for several years; attended Dean Academy, and graduated from the New York Medical university; has taught school, and has practised medicine in Hoosic Falls, N. Y., and in New York, where at last accounts he was located.

CARRA V. SADLER.—Taught in the local schools for nearly the entire period from graduation until her death, Nov. 12, 1891.

LIZZIE S. SUMNER.—Married Lorenzo J. Perrigo Nov. 15, 1871; one daughter, Lena G.; resided in Milford several years, going thence to Cambridge, and later to Arlington; husband was employed for a time at the Lowell emergency hospital, and was later engaged in the real estate business in Arlington; died January 26, 1912, three months after the death of her husband.

NELLIE C. SPAULDING.—Was assistant teacher in the Marlboro high school; married W. L. Morse, merchant, at Troy, N. H., May 1, 1877, and has since resided at Marlboro; two children, Maria L. and Pauline H., only the latter now living.

CLASS OF '72.

LAURA M. BALL.—Graduated from Framingham Normal school; taught in Milford, Berthier and Montreal, Canada, and Arlington; married Theodore Lyman, attorney-at-law, of Hartford, Conn., Jan. 22, 1886; four children, all living; present residence, 22 Woodland street, Hartford, Conn.

HARRIS I. CARPENTER.—With the exception of a year or so in Washington, D. C., where he was engaged in the bicycle business, he resided in Milford until his death, Oct. 7, 1904.

ALICE J. CHAPIN.—Taught school previous to her marriage, April 5, 1876, to S. A. Eastman, Milford; one son, Gilbert C.; still resides at Milford.

JOHN J. COCHRAN.—Graduated at the College of Physicians and Surgeons, New York; was for a time house surgeon at Bellevue hospital, also with Cunard steamship company; entered the United States Army service in 1880, and promoted to grade of captain in 1885; was stationed in New Mexico, New York, Rhode Island, Colorado, and Texas; married a New York lady about 1880; no children; died in New York, Aug. 5, 1891.

FANNY A. COMSTOCK.—Graduated at Bridgewater Normal school; taught in Marlboro, and later for several years in the Normal school at Castine, Maine, going thence to Bridgewater Normal school, where she is now teaching.

LEON G. DAY.*—Learned the jeweler's trade in Milford; went to St. Augustine, Fla., and later to Fort Smith, Ark.; was in the jewelry business at Brennan, Texas, and later in Baltimore; present whereabouts unknown.

DELIA E. GLEASON.*—Taught for several years in the local schools, and later at Waltham; married John P. Welsh at Providence, Oct. 3, 1888; three children, only one living; has resided at Providence, Boston, and Central Falls, R. I., her present residence.

LYDIA B. GODFREY.—Attended Vassar college two years, Boston university two years; and Teachers' college, Columbia university, 1907-1909; spent two years in teaching, and was for a number of years librarian at Wellesley college; is now director Glen Tor Studio; present residence, Grand-View-on-Hudson, New York.

ALLISTER S. JONES.—Attended the Worcester Polytechnic institute; showed considerable natural talent as an artist, and had a studio in Boston 14 years; was also a designer in stained glass work; was not married; died at Milford, May 19, 1900.

MARY J. KELLY.—Was a teacher in the local schools nearly up to the time of her death, which occurred Oct. 23, 1887.

KATHERINE E. MARTIN.—Has been teaching in our public schools practically all the time since graduation, and for the past twenty-five years has been principal of the Park school; married Mortimer Edwards Aug. 26, 1886; no children.

JOHN D. MCGANN.—Attended Phillips-Exeter academy, and St. Mary's seminary, Montreal; fitted for the Catholic clergy; was assistant pastor at Blackstone and Millbury, and later became pastor at Jefferson, Mass, and is now in charge of the parish at Westboro.

MAGGIE L. MURPHY.—Taught school here until her death, May 18, 1880.

HENRY E. NELSON.—Married Addie M. Rogers of Upton; one child, not living; resided for a time in Milford; removed to South Boston, and later to Wollaston, where he was superintendent of a bolt and rivet factory; died some time ago.

FRANK M. NICHOLS.—Learned the trade of watchmaker and jeweler; has resided at Milford, Concord, N. H., and Taunton, where he is a jeweler and optician; married Abbie B. Mason of Taunton, Oct. 7, 1880; one daughter, Marion A.

HARRY C. SMITH.*—Went to Salem from Milford, and later to Boston, where he is engaged at re touching in a photographic studio; not married.

INEZ E. TUTTLE.—Taught for a time in the local schools; married S. M. Sargeant, manufacturer of flavoring extracts, of Oakham, Dec. 25, 1877; two children, Maud I. and Stephen M., both living; present residence, 107 June street, Worcester.

KATE A. WALLACE.—Taught in the local schools until her death, which occurred Oct. 15, 1882.

CLASS OF '73.

MARY G. BANCROFT.—Graduated from Oread institute, Worcester; married Walter P. Winsor, banker, of New Bedford, Oct. 4, 1876; four children, Walter P., jr., Anna B.,

Bancroft, and Allen; three living; residence, Fairhaven, Mass; husband died, 1911.

JOHN A. BOYD.—Is a salesman and has resided since graduation at Milford, Utica, N. Y., and Worcester, his present residence; married H. Maria Florence at Worcester, Jan. 4, 1883; six children, all living.

EDWIN J. CHEEVER.—Has resided at Shreveport, La., San Antonio and Austin, Texas, Richmond and Little Rock, Ark.; was in the shoe business for a time, kept books at Little Rock, and was clerk of courts of Little River county, Ark., married Dove Head of Richmond, Ark., Nov. 25, 1885; five children, four living; killed in street railway accident several years ago.

MARY E. COCHRAN*.—Graduated from Framingham Normal school, and was a teacher in the local schools until her marriage, Aug. 16, 1894, to Thomas Quirk; one son, Joseph; husband died Dec. 27, 1897; present residence, Milford.

ELWOOD H. COOK.—Lived at home until his death, Dec. 23, 1874.

ISADORE HARVEY.—Graduated from Framingham Normal school; taught in Bridgewater, Holbrook, Holliston and Milford; married Henry C. Bagot, machinist, at Milford, Sept. 20, 1882; one daughter, Vera I.; since 1893 has been living in California, present residence, Berkeley.

DELIA M. JOHNSON.—Lived at home after graduation; was engaged as housekeeper; died Nov. 7, 1910.

SARAH M. KEANE*.—Graduated from Framingham Normal school; taught at Medway; married Joseph B. Weaver at Medway, July 20, 1887; one daughter, Annie M., still living; has resided at St. Thomas, Ontario, Canada, and Woodstock, Conn.; husband killed in carriage accident Aug. 1, 1901.

THOMAS P. McDONOUGH.—Attended Holy Cross college and Harvard Medical school; married Annie E. McGowan at Milford, Sept. 1882; two children, John and Annie, now living; practised medicine at North Attleboro, until his death, Feb. 4, 1896; had served on the School Committee and Board of Health.

SAMUEL N. NELSON.—Attended Phillips-Exeter academy,

Harvard college and Medical school ; completed medical studies abroad ; married Clara Stewart at Boston, May 19, 1887 ; no children ; was surgeon at the Soldiers' Home at Chelsea ; was a member of leading medical societies, and delegate to several international medical congresses ; resided at Revere ; died Feb. 25, 1893.

ADA A. SKINNER.—Taught in the local schools ; married W. H. Adair, provision dealer, at Milford, Nov. 30, 1882 ; one son, Henry C. ; had resided at North Attleboro and New Bedford ; died Feb. 5, 1911.

ANNA M. TAFT.—Married Thomas P. Wilkinson, straw goods manufacturer, at Milford, Oct. 28, 1875 ; one daughter, Edith G. ; has resided at Westboro and Milford, her present residence.

IDA F. THOMPSON.—Married Jesse A. Taft, lawyer, at Brooklyn, N. Y., April 17, 1884 ; Mr. Taft died in October, 1905 ; one son, Royal C. ; resided for a time at Brooklyn, N. Y., and Milford ; died July 20, 1909.

MARY A. TOBEY.—Attended Framingham Normal school, and taught at Holbrook, Mass. ; married C. A. Belcher, leather dealer, Feb. 10, 1882 ; no children ; still resident at Holbrook.

SARAH I. WALES.—Married George F. Birch, provision dealer, at Milford, Dec. 25, 1873 ; three children, John H., Nellie F., and Gertrude H., only the two first named living ; still residing at Milford.

LUCY M. WILBER.—Attended Bridgewater Normal school ; taught for a time in the Milford high school, until failing health compelled her to give up teaching ; died July 31, 1904.

CLASS OF '74.

ELLA M. ALBEE.—Removed with her parents to North Dana, where she taught school two terms ; died Feb. 16, 1878.

JULIA M. BARRY.—Taught in the Milford schools 11 years, going thence to Abington, Middleboro and Brockton, where she has taught in the public schools for 17 years. She has also taught in the Y. M. C. A. evening school, and in the Y. M. C. A. summer school for five years; present residence, 171 Warren Ave., Brockton.

SARAH F. BURNS.—Attended Framingham Normal school and taught in the local schools; married Richard Grigg, granite cutter, at Milford, July 5, 1877; two children; resided at Augusta, Me., Milford, Concord, N. H., and Barre, Vt., her present residence.

FRANK O. CARPENTER.—Graduated from Phillips Exeter academy and Harvard college; taught at Killingly, Conn., was principal of the Lexington high school, and is now a master of the English high school, Boston; studied law and was admitted to the Suffolk county bar in 1887; does some office business in connection with his school work; is a member of the Appalachian club and an enthusiastic mountain climber and has written a guide-book to the Franconia Notch; also a French grammar and text books on commercial geography and common law; is the founder of the City Guard; married Flora E. Wiltse of Corunna, Mich., at Boston, April 2, 1889; one son, Arthur W.; present residence, 86 Gainsborough street, Boston.

A. OREANNA CHENEY.—Taught school at Milford, Boston, Ashton, Pittsfield, and Woonsocket; took a Chautauqua course; married John E. Beechey, mechanic, June 24, 1891; two sons, both living; present residence, Milford.

AGNES G. COSTELLO.—Lived at Milford two or three years after graduation, going thence to Boston, where she has since been engaged as saleswoman and bookkeeper in various mercantile establishments, and as governess and private teacher; present residence, 2 Hawthorne Ave., Roxbury.

MARY F. DEVINE.—Attended Framingham Normal school, and has since taught in the local schools, and is now principal of the Plains grammar school.

MARY E. FALES.—Lived at home after graduation, and for 11 years was clerk in a local dry goods store; married De Forrest C. Morrison, Nov. 3, 1892; no children; residence, South Main street, Milford.

MINNIE I. FOLGER.—Attended Boston Normal school; taught at Milford, Somerville and Boston; died Feb., 1906.

MARY E. HANCOCK.—Taught school for a short time; married Fred M. Walker at Milford, Aug. 14, 1875; four children, Will. F., Alice M., Carrie E., and Eva J., all living; took a Chautauqua course; has resided at Westboro and Boston, and is now living in Milford.

EDGAR H. JENKS.—Was clerk for a time in his father's hardware store; went West and spent several years in farming, hunting and trapping; lived at Lima, N. Y., Cheyenne and Fort McKinney, Wyo.; returned to Milford and was employed in a local straw factory; married Jennie Goodine, July 18, 1893; one daughter, Elsie; was engaged in farming at South Milford; is now employed as a machinist.

JAMES E. KEATING.—Attended Philips-Exeter academy and Harvard Medical school; located at Natick, where he practised until his death, July 4, 1911.

SARAH L. LIBBY.—Married J. Addison Tyler, machinist, May 21, 1878, and has since lived at Milford; one son, Adolphus L.

HERBERT H. LYONS.—Attended Holy Cross college, Boston college, and Harvard Medical school; married Sarah A. Corcoran at Clinton, Feb. 9, 1888; three children, Beatrice, Herbert and Margaret, all living; was United States pension examiner from 1885 to 1889, was city physician of Fitchburg, and a member of the medical staff of the Burbank hospital of that city; died in 1908.

MAGGIE F. MADDEN.—Taught in the Milford schools; married James B. Lee, hatter, at Milford, June 18, 1884, and resided at Danbury, Conn.; four children, Frederic, Abbie, Joseph and Nellie, all living; husband died Dec. 28, 1898; died July 22, 1910.

MINNA L. MANN.—Attended Bradford academy, and taught in the local schools; married George H. Whittemore, May 8, 1884; two children, Leslie C., and Mildred E., both living; has always resided at Milford.

DANIEL W. MORIARTY.—Attended Phillips-Exeter academy and Harvard college, Boston college, and Laval university at Quebec; ordained at Quebec June, 1882, and has been stationed at Landers, Wyo., where he established St. Stephens' mission; was pastor at Lyons, South Omaha, Jackson, and Benson, Neb., the last being his present charge; has built many churches and parochial residences.

ELLEN A. MORIARTY.—Attended Framingham Normal school one year; taught in the local schools; went to Nebraska and was principal of high schools at Lyons and Hubbard, Neb.; married James Hartnett, stock dealer, Nov. 8, 1888; three sons, James, Daniel J., and Carmel, only the last named living; resided at Hubbard, and is now living at 604 So. 31st street, Omaha, Neb.

WILLIAM F. O'CALLAGHAN.—Attended Harvard college; taught the high school at Hopkinton and later at New York; married a Miss McGinniss of New York, now deceased; one son, still living; is reported to have married again; died Jan., 1912.

WILLIAM F. SHEEHAN.—Attended Phillips-Exeter academy and Harvard college; married Nellie Noonan of Lynn; one son, William; wife died April, 1897; was a shoe manufacturer at Lynn, and is now traveling salesman for a leather house; present residence, 35 Endicott street, Lynn, Mass.

ANNA E. SHELDON.—Taught for several years in the local schools; took a course in art, after which she had classes in Milford and Wellesley; lived at home with her parents until her death, Jan. 15, 1899.

A. WILLIS TARBELL.—Was assistant superintendent of gas works at Waltham and East Boston, and manager of the Framingham Gas Co.; was in the office of the city treasurer of Waltham, and at the time of his death in Aug., 1907, was city treasurer; was not married.

CLARA M. THAYER.—Has resided in Milford, Medway, Franklin, Buffalo, N. Y., and Blackstone, her present residence; was overseer in a straw factory; married Albert Webster Dec. 11, 1893; one son, Louis A.; took a Chautauqua course.

ROBERT E. WALSH.—Lived at home until his death, which occurred April 14, 1875.

LIZZIE A. VEZEY.—Has resided at Milford and Lynn; married S. F. Libby, machine operator, and later insurance agent, at Lynn, May 13, 1880; no children; present residence, Milford.

CLASS OF '75.

EMMA D. BARKER.—Married Fred Swasey, architect, at Milford, Oct. 24, 1877; three children, Lillian P., Elizabeth A., and Louise R., all living; removed to Pasadena, Cal., where Mr. Swasey died Feb. 21, 1890; present residence, Milford.

ELLA D. BATTLES.—Removed to Joliet, Ill., where she married Charles A. Clafin, boot and shoe manufacturer, of Milford, Oct. 11, 1880; two children, Agnes D. and Harold H., both living; has lived at East Orange, N. J., and Milford, her present residence.

KATE E. BERGIN.—Married Thomas F. Davoren at Milford, Feb. 8, 1880; three children, only one living; resided at Marlboro, Boston and Bristol, R. I., where she died Jan. 12, 1901.

HUGH BRADLEY.—Attended Boston and Montreal colleges; has been engaged as reporter, clerk in the local post-office, and is now a railway mail clerk; married Mary J. Williams at South Boston, Nov. 15, 1893; one son, Edward W.; present residence, 84 Hamilton street, Dorchester.

HANNAH M. BRODERICK.—Graduated from Framingham Normal school, and has since been, and is at present, a teacher in the local schools.

SUSIE R. BRODERICK.—Graduated from Framingham Normal school, and has since been a teacher in the local schools up to the present time.

HARRY N. DAY.—Attended the Boston Dental school; married Henrietta E. Nelson at Milford, May 1, 1884; no children; practised dentistry at Milford, Morris, Ill., and Chicago; present residence, 5495 Madison Ave., Chicago.

NETTIE E. DAY.—Still living at home, and is a milliner in a local straw factory.

CLARA J. FISHER.—Attended Beale Shorthand school,

Boston ; has lived at Milford and West Upton ; has been engaged as a dry goods clerk, as overseer in a local straw factory, and stenographer in a local manufacturing establishment ; in 1895 was the first woman to serve as an expert on the State Board of Arbitration in settling a strike in a local factory ; 1900 United States census enumerator in Milford ; 1905 State census enumerator in Milford ; 1910 United States census enumerator in Hopedale ; married Sidney A. Marso, April 16, 1903 ; present residence, Hopedale.

EMILIE T. HART.—Attended Framingham Normal school, and taught in the local schools ; married Aaron C. Bragg at Waltham, Jan. 27, 1885 ; six children, Cecil C., C. Louise, Ralph S., Helen H., Alice R. and Paul M. ; five living ; has resided at Putnam, Conn., and present residence, Braggville.

FLORENCE E. HARVELL.—Has resided at Milford, Stoughton, Greenfield, Provincetown, and Winchendon, engaged in millinery and needle-work ; married Fred E. Ball, machinist, of Winchendon, Sept. 15, 1887 ; no children ; present residence, Hopedale.

MINNIE E. JONES.—Attended the Framingham Normal school ; taught in Milford, and in the Randolph high school ; married Frank L. Young, oil dealer, at Milford, Dec. 16, 1878 ; six children, Arthur P., Harold W., Percy L., Marjorie, Rosamond and Sumner B., all living ; has been president of various clubs, and is now president of School Voters' League of Boston, of South Bay Sorosis and chairman for Dorchester of the Boston Municipal League ; lectures on art, history, travel, law and temperance ; present residence, 294 Ashmont street, Boston.

JOSIE KELLEY.—Taught school three years ; married John A. Rice, builder, of Hopkinton, Nov. 17, 1879 ; two sons, John E. and Allan G., both living ; has resided at Hopkinton and 862 Main street, Worcester, her present residence.

MARY J. KELLEY.—Attended Framingham Normal school and has taught in the local schools where she is still engaged.

FAUSTINA M. KNIGHT.—Attended Framingham Normal school, and taught in the local schools ; married Frank E.

Withington, grocer, May 1, 1883; one son, Oscar S., not living; present residence, Milford.

ANNIE E. MCGOWAN.—Married Thomas P. McDonough, physician, at Milford, September, 1882; two children, John and Annie, both still living; husband died Feb. 4, 1896; present residence, North Attleboro, where she is engaged in the millinery business.

MARIA N. NORRIS.—Has resided at Springfield, Readville, Jamaica Plain, and Centre Harbor, N. H.; married J. N. Severance, machinist, at Springfield, Dec. 26, 1887; no children; president of a Woman's club; present residence, 1 Pearl St. Pl., Springfield.

S. EDWARD OLIVER.—Married Nina E. Spencer at Milford, Oct. 16, 1879; one daughter, Ethel R., not living; removed to Brockton, where he now resides, and is engaged as a heel machine operator.

SARAH C. TUTTLE.—Taught school at Stoughton, where she died in April, 1877.

CLASS OF '76.

EMMA B. BALL.—Removed to Stoughton; attended Boston university school of oratory, and won an excellent reputation as an elocutionist and dramatic reader; died at Stoughton, Nov. 14, 1882.

CLARENCE BANCROFT.—Attended Phillips-Exeter academy and Harvard college; spent two years in study at Polytechnic in Zurich, Switzerland; married Mary E. Johnson at Milford, Oct. 21, 1885; four children, Louise J., Ada W., Eleanor and Edith, all living; was chemist at the Manchester print works, Manchester, N. H., and is now at Lowell, Mass.

OTIS B. BARKER —Went to Denver, Col., and thence to Chicago, where he spent three years as salesman in a clothing house; resided in Worcester a year, six months in California, and is now a cutter with a Boston clothing firm; married Bertha E. Springer of Boston April 8, 1884; no children; present residence, Dorchester.

JOSEPHINE G. CHENEY.—Attended the New England Conservatory of Music and gave music lessons for several years; was also a compositor in the offices of the Milford Gazette and Journal; married William S Chapell at Milford, Oct. 18, 1884; no children; lived at Milford until her death, which occurred Feb. 28, 1891.

GEORGE T. COCHRAN.*—Has been for several years employed in a drug store in New York; was not married according to the last "Records."

SARAH H. CONNOLLY.—Resided for several years at her home here, and later at Brookline; graduated at Carney Hospital Training School for Nurses in 1888; did hospital work in St. Louis, Mo., four years, and has been nursing in Boston and Brookline since 1893; present residence, 36 Davis Ave., Brookline.

LILLA A. COOK.—Graduated at Framingham Normal school; taught school here; married Andrew D. Shrieve, carpenter of Pawtuxet, R. I., about 1881; one daughter, Lura, still living; present residence, 1266 Elmwood Ave., Auburn, R. I.

ANNIE T. GLEASON.—Taught several years in Milford, also in Spencer; resided for a time at Providence, R. I.; married John W. O'Brien, merchant, Oct. 29, 1891; three children, John G., Angela C., and Will, all living; present residence, 34 Florence street, Brockton.

MALLIE F. GLEASON.—Attended the Howard Home school at Springfield; taught five years in the local schools, since her resignation has lived at home in Milford.

ALZIE R. HAYWARD.—Taught four years in Bellingham, attended Bridgewater Normal school, and after graduating had charge of the School of Observation connected with the Normal school for a time; taught in Quincy and was assistant in the Milford high school five years; married William H. Baker Sept. 6, 1895; one son, Eben H.; present residence, Milford.

MARY E. HIGGINS.—Remained in Milford several years engaged with a local dressmaker; went to Attleboro, where she remained five years employed in a jewelry manufacturing establishment; returned to Milford, and is now a clerk in a local trimming and fancy goods store.

MARY E. JOHNSON.—Attended Framingham Normal school, and taught in Milford, Dudley and Mendon; married Clarence Bancroft Oct. 21, 1885; four children, Louise J., Ada W., Eleanor and Edith, all living; present residence, 381 Stevens street, Lowell, Mass.

NELLIE L. JOHNSON.—Lived at home and was employed in a local straw factory for several seasons; married Walter D. Kidder of Burlington, Vt., Nov. 17, 1887, and removed to Barre, Vt., her present home; four children, Laura J., Jessie A., Roy A. and Harlie N.; her husband died March 20, 1910.

ANNIE M. KEANE.*—Went West and taught at Chippewa Falls, Wis.; married James E. Glover, locomotive engineer, at Waukesha, Wis., about 1887; three children, two living; present residence, Waukesha, Wis.

BERNARD F. KELLEY.—Was traveling salesman for a Boston firm, and later clerk in a local grocery; engaged in newspaper work in various places, and was in the dry goods business in Milford; is not married; is at present a salesman.

HATTIE M. KNIGHTS.—Taught in Bellingham six years; married Charles M. Thayer, grocer, at South Milford, Oct. 9, 1882; two children, not living; died Dec. 10, 1905.

FLORA M. KNOWLTON.—Attended Framingham Normal school, and taught in the local schools; took a two years' course of training for a nurse at the McLean insane asylum; acted as supervisor nearly one year in the McLean insane asylum; for 10 years private nurse in chronic mental and nervous cases in Boston; retired from professional work at present; present residence, 120 West Newton street, Boston.

HANNAH C. LYNCH.—Always resided at home, and was employed as bookkeeper in her father's store until her death Jan. 31, 1889.

BRIDGET A. LYONS.—Resided at home until her death, which occurred April 24, 1887; was engaged at various times at dressmaking, as a saleswoman, and in the local straw factories.

CARRIE W. MEAD.—Married Charles O. Prentice, grain dealer, at Milford, Sept. 25, 1878; one daughter, Mary C.; still living at Milford.

JENNIE F. MCGANN.*—Has taught in Milford schools since graduation, and is still so engaged.

CALLIE L. NELSON.—Attended Boston training school and taught at Medway; married Herbert A. Hixon of Medway Dec. 6, 1881; no children; present residence, Hopedale.

SABRA P. ROCKWOOD.—Married Larkin H. Hayden at Milford April 29, 1892; present residence, 39 Jersey street, Marblehead.

JAMES F. SLATTERY.—Resided at Milford, Hopkinton, Woonsocket, R. I., Serena and Chicago, Ill.; engaged in farming, in a barbed wire factory, in gold and silver plating business, and is now a letter carrier in Chicago; married Nora Hannigan Feb. 9, 1882; nine children, six living; wife died June 15, 1899; present residence, 3308 Harrison street, Chicago.

GEORGE P. SMITH.—Removed to Boston, where he was engaged in a photographic studio; was in same business at Holderness, N. H.; is not married; is at present fish agent; present residence, Marlboro street, Newport, R. I.

EDITH J. STODDARD.—Taught five years in a private school in Milford; then at Medway; removed to Andover in July, 1883; went West and married John F. Corbett at Detroit City, Minn., July 1, 1888; four sons, Harold S., Eugene M., Malcolm C. and John M., all living except Malcolm, devoted some time to writing short stories and poems for children; died at Long Beach, Cal., Sept. 26, 1898.

ANNIE L. SUMNER.—Attended school in Davenport, Iowa, where her parents resided; taught at Gray and Audubon, Iowa; married Sylvester Ary of Audubon Nov. 28, 1883; two children, Clarence S. and Edith E., both living; died at Audubon, Jan. 18, 1888.

NELLIE F. THURBER.—Attended Framingham Normal school ; married Fred H. Jones, locomotive engineer, April 11, 1881 ; one daughter, Daisy M., still living ; has resided at South Boston and Dorchester, her present residence ; husband died Sept., 1911.

CLASS OF '77.

EFFIE E. ADAMS.—Taught school at Mendon, Bellingham, Upton and Medway ; married George W. Worthen at Bellingham May 23, 1885 ; four children, Ruth L., George E., Lillian G., and Charles E., all living ; husband has died ; present residence, Amesbury.

FANNIE E. BLUNT.—Attended Bridgewater Normal school ; was for a time manager of the local telephone exchange, also in the telephone service at Newtonville ; was a milliner ; learned re-touching, and was engaged in this work for a local photographer ; married Isaiah W. Emerson, traveling salesman, at Milford, Dec. 7, 1895 ; no children ; present residence, 14 Ashland Pl., Gloucester, Mass.

FLORA L. CHENEY.—Married Melvin N. Dow at Milford, Oct. 16, 1879 ; four children, Fannie B., Frank M., Arthur B., and Alva, two still living ; has resided at Milford, Hopkinton and South Framingham, her present residence ; husband died Feb. 16, 1895.

FRANK R. CLAFLIN.—Salesman for D. Appleton & Co., New York, one year ; in shoe factory and shoe store in Philadelphia, one year ; in clothing store in Woodbury, N. J., one year ; since then in neckwear factory and traveling salesman for men's neckwear ; present residence, Philadelphia.

JENNIE L. GOODRICH.—Taught school in Milford and South Framingham ; married J. E. Vollmer, fresco painter, at West Yarmouth, Dec. 1, 1887, and has resided at South Framingham ; no children ; Mr. Vollmer died Feb. 8, 1890 ; present residence, Milford, where she is engaged in teaching music.

CATHERINE M. McNAMARA.—Attended Framingham Normal school, and has since taught continuously in the local schools, where she is still engaged.

KATE M. RANAHAN.—Was clerk in a local dry goods store until her marriage to Lawrence E. Doherty at Milford, Sept. 15, 1887; one son, John, and daughter, Katharine, still living; resides at Milford.

JOHN J. TOOMEY.—Spent one year in Boston; was a grocery clerk four years, and was later clerk in local clothing stores; in 1893 went to Haverhill and took charge of men's haberdashery department in store of Simonds & Adams, later taking charge of all their advertising, which position he still holds; married Ella V. Cary at Milford, Sept. 2, 1896; five children, three living; present residence, 41 Green street, Haverhill.

LILLIAN E. WOODBURY.—Married Joseph H. Wood, lawyer, at Milford, Nov. 21, 1882; no children; husband died Dec. 6, 1891; was first soprano of the Lilhatansu ladies' quartet; is at present supervisor of music in public schools; still resides at Milford.

CLASS OF '78.

JOSEPH H. AMBROSE.*—Was for a time bookkeeper in a local shoe factory; later a hotel clerk, railway clerk, and bookkeeper and superintendent in a local straw factory; is at present a commercial traveler, with headquarters at New York; married Maude A. Gould of Portland, Maine, in July, 1887, who died in April, 1888; married Nellie L. Webb at Boston, Dec. 8, 1894; no children; present residence, New York.

MARY E. BERGIN.—Lived at home with her parents here until some twenty-two years ago, when the family removed to South Boston; present residence, 703 Walk Hill street, Mattapan.

WILLIAM P. COOKE.—Graduated from Harvard Dental school in 1881; has since practised dentistry in Boston; has been president of the Harvard Odontological society, and of the Harvard Dental Alumni association; from 1887 to 1890 was instructor in operative dentistry at the Harvard Dental school, and later clinical lecturer on the same subject; was assistant professor, and at present is professor of Prosthetic Dentistry at the Harvard Dental school; married Caroline L.

Wicks at Milford, Nov. 10, 1892; three children, John W., Richard C., and Barbara, all living; present residence, Newton Centre.

ANNIE P. CUSHING.*—Married John W. Bowker, optician, Oct. 11, 1882; two children, Addie L. and Gladys M., only the former living; still resides in Southbridge.

ANNIE R. DRAKE.—Taught school for a time at Upton; removed to Worcester, where she still resides, and is engaged in dressmaking; present residence, 1 Dayton street, Worcester.

LOWELL E. FALES.—Attended Boston University Law school, and was admitted to the bar in 1881; since 1883 practised law in Milford; served on the local school board; was associate justice of local district court; was not married; died May 26, 1911.

WILLIAM F. GLEASON.—Attended Phillips-Exeter academy and Harvard Medical school; practised medicine in Hopkinton a year and a half, going thence to Providence, R. I., where he is now located; has served as chairman of the Providence school committee; was vice-president of the Rhode Island Commission to the World's Fair at St. Louis; at present is medical superintendent and visiting physician at St. Joseph's hospital; consulting physician at the City hospital for contagious diseases; has in charge St. Vincent de Paul's Infant asylum; is chairman of visiting committee to the Rhode Island Home for Feeble Minded; is also superintendent of Killsgrove Annex to St. Joseph's hospital for treatment of tuberculosis; married Mary C. FitzGerald, June 12, 1893; three children, Gerald C., Roland W., and Constance, the last two now living.

PATRICK R. HOWLEY.*—Former record says: "Removed to Worcester, where he still resides; is not married." No further information received.

AGNES E. KIMBALL.*—Removed to Boston, where she has since resided; has a clerical position at the State House.

MARY A. LYONS.—Has lived with her parents here since graduation; for many years has been seriously out of health.

HENRY D. NELSON.—Attended Phillips-Exeter academy, Harvard college and Medical school; has since been engaged in hotel work, and has been located at the White Mountains, California, Florida, and elsewhere, with headquarters at Boston; was at Manchester-by-the Sea; not married; present residence, Boston.

EUGENE W. STODDARD.—Graduated from Amherst college in 1882; taught a year at Granby; graduated from Andover Theological seminary in 1886; married Lilla A. Mitchell of South Framingham, Sept. 15, 1886; two children, Walter E. and Ethel M., both living; ordained as a Congregational minister Oct. 22, 1886, and settled at Haverhill, N. H.; went West and located at Valley City, North Dakota; became pastor of a church in Martinez, Cal., resigned pastorship to become principal of high school there; then became principal of Vacaville Union high school in Vacaville, where he now is.

CHARLES S. WEEKS.*—Married Lettie C. Walker of Milford, Jan. 1, 1879; five children, Charles E., Evelyn L., Arthur E., Jesse F., and Lilla I., all living; is a draughtsman, and resides at Waterbury, Conn.

EVELYN M. WIRES.—Attended Lasell seminary, New England Conservatory and Cowles' art schools; had charge of drawing in the Milford schools one year; still resides at her home in Milford.

CLASS OF '79.

FRED I. BAILEY.—Was in the drug business here four years; in the woolen trade one year; then engaged in the manufacture of perfumes in Boston; was killed in a street car accident in Boston, Sept. 25, 1897. Was not married.

ARTHUR H. BALL.—Was a clerk at Hopedale several years; married Lillian V. Dockham at Townsend, Sept. 4, 1883; two children, Edith V. and Mabel; was for a time street railway conductor at Cottage City; died at Milford, Dec. 18, 1890.

JOHN A. CONNOLLY.*—Was draughtsman at the Sturtevant blower works at Jamaica Plain; married Marcia P. Ray of Maine in 1887; three children, Anna G., Austin, and Gregory, all living; has resided at Akron, Ohio, St. Louis, and Brooklyn, N. Y.

JENNIE E. DALE.—Taught in the local schools; married Charles F. Gleason of Brooklyn, N. Y., a glass manufacturer, March 2, 1885; one daughter, May L., still living; resides at Flushing, L. I.

ELLEN A. DEVINE.—Taught most of the time since graduating in the local schools.; died Feb. 18, 1902.

HENRY C. EGAN.*—Went to Boston and was employed as a shipping clerk in a canning establishment there; at time of last report was not married.

MARY A. GALLEN.—Lived at home until July 1885, when she entered the Sisters of Charity convent at Baltimore, Md., where she taught until her death, about 1897.

FLORENCE I. GOODSPEED.—Attended Framingham Normal school, and taught for a time; removed to Laconia, N. H.; married Wm. H. Osgood, insurance agent, July 18, 1887; three children, Susie L., Marjorie M., and F. George, all living; lived for a time at West Medford; present residence, 39 Garfield street, Laconia, N. H.

JOHN P. HOLMES.—Attended Phillips-Exeter academy, Harvard college and Medical school; practised several years in Milford; took a special course at the New York Eye and Ear Infirmary, followed by a year or more of study abroad; married Caroline C. Furbush at Philadelphia, April 25, 1889; one daughter, Eleanore; was a specialist for the eye and ear; died May, 1904.

THOMAS F. KELLEY.—Went to Waltham, where he was employed as a drug clerk; later went into the same business for himself there, and was so engaged until his death, Dec. 14, 1899.

CHARLES W. LOOMIS.—Was a stenographer and typewriter; engaged at Manchester, N. H., Little Falls, N. Y., Jamaica Plain, and Waterbury, Conn.; married Rosa A. Farrington at Upton, Sept. 25, 1886; died at Waterbury, March 23, 1900, and was buried in Milford; wife died two or three years previous.

WILLIAM H. MURRAY.—Resided in Milford until his removal to Woonsocket; married Kate Madden at Milford, Jan. 5, 1887; three children, May, John and Abbie., all living; present residence, 38 Vine street, Roxbury, Mass.

CHARLES H. POND.—Married Frances B. Aldrich of Webster, Aug. 2, 1880; four children, two living; has lived at Milford, Natick, Marlboro, and Tiverton, where he is employed as meat cutter and agent.

MARGARET QUINN.—Has always lived at home with relatives, and is employed in a local straw factory.

LILIAN SMITH.—Attended Framingham Normal school; taught in the local schools until her marriage Nov. 25, 1897, to Dr. W. J. Davis; no children; she has since died.

NELLIE A. TAYLOR.—Attended Framingham Normal school; taught in Milford and Medway; became an expert stenographer and typewriter, and had charge of this department in Fall River commercial college for two years; was employed at Marlboro, Brockton and Boston; died July 3, 1902.

GEORGE W. WALKER.—Went to Illinois directly after graduating; returning to Boston was clerk of Readers' and Writers' Economy Co.; was for a time bookkeeper at the Danvers insane asylum, and later a sleeping car conductor with residences at various places; was with Brown, Durrell & Co., wholesale dry goods, Boston, seven years; went back to railroading, with the N. Y., N. H. & H. R. R., running between Boston and New York; was conductor of special parties to the World's Fairs at Chicago and St. Louis and conductor of special train and 125 Knights Templars to conclave at San Francisco, 1904; made a trip across the continent and settled at Seattle, his present residence, where he is office manager of the West Seattle branch of the Seattle Gas Co., is married.

CLIFFORD A. WHITTEMORE.—For over thirty years associated with the Samuel Ward Co. of Boston, having been for many years assistant treasurer of the corporation and clerk of the board of directors ; married Edith A. Pierce of Cambridge, Sept. 17, 1888 ; no children ; wife died July, 1911 ; present residence, 44 Gloucester street, Boston.

ELLA A. WITHINGTON.—Attended French's Business college ; married Irving E. Dale at Milford, Feb. 18, 1881 ; one son, Frank A. ; present residence, 149 Worcester street, Boston.

CLASS OF '80.

LUVA A. CELLEY.—Has resided at Decatur, Ill., and Milford ; married William H. Sprague at Holliston, Dec. 20, 1881 ; six children, Harry B., Marjorie L., Salome F., Cecile, Alice M. and William K., all living except Cecile and Alice ; present residence, Milford.

REUBEN A. COOKE.—Was clerk in the office of George Draper & Sons at Hopedale ; married Kate E. Barker at Milford, Sept. 12, 1888 ; five children, three living ; is manager and treasurer of the Queen City cotton mills at Burlington, Vt., where he resides ; and also treasurer of the Burlington Building Loan Association.

NELLIE A. DALE.—Attended Framingham Normal school ; taught at Plainfield, N. J., Holliston, Wellesley Hills, and Haverhill ; returned to Framingham for study ; has taught in the practice schools of the Framingham Normal school since 1891 ; resides in Milford.

LAWRENCE E. DOHERTY.—Was employed in local shoe factories after graduation ; married Kate M. Ranahan, Sept. 15, 1887, and is now in the shipping department of the Draper Co. at Hopedale ; two children, John and Katharine, both living.

CAROLINE M. HART.—Was engaged as proof reader and bookkeeper in the office of the Milford Gazette ; married Elmer E. Holbrook, April 30, 1905 ; husband died May 17, 1906 ; present residence, Braggville.

CLARA M. INMAN.—Taught school in Milford ; removed to Providence and studied phonography, teaching the same later ; was stenographer for a Providence firm, married J. Wesley Binning ; one child ; present residence unknown.

ANNIE F. KEATING.—Attended Framingham Normal school and taught school at Spencer, Natick and Malden, and is now teaching in Boston.

MARTIN J. KELLEY.—Attended Boston University Law School; was admitted to the bar, and practised law at Milford until his death, April 10, 1897; was town librarian three years.

SARA V. LOWTHER.*—Graduated at the Girls' Latin school, Boston, and completed a five years' course at Wellesley college; taught singing in a young ladies' seminary at Faribault, Minn.; has since taught at Stamford, Conn.; has been abroad.

HATTIE D. MATHEWSON.—Lived at home until her marriage to Wellington Bragg, Sept. 2, 1885; two children, Alexis I. and Harold N.; lived at Putnam, Conn., Braggville and West Medway, her present residence.

AGNES S. McDERMOTT.—Attended Framingham Normal school; taught at Spencer for several years, and is now teaching in Milford.

HANNAH B. MCGARRY.—Lived at home here until her marriage to John F. Regan of Newport, R. I., Jan. 29, 1891; six children, Nellie, Bertha, Mallie, Sarah, George and Winifred; two still living; died March 3, 1904.

MARCUS J. PATTERSON.*—Attended Worcester Technical school; was civil engineering for a time on western railroads; was located later at Wilmington, Del., going thence to Denver, Col., where he is a contractor for steel bridges and buildings; married Mary E. Traversee at Denver, July 8, 1890; four children, Mark S., Clarence A., Stanley and Jennie E., all living; his wife died at Denver in 1906.

JAMES A. SLATTERY.—Was clerk in a dry goods store; attended the Massachusetts College of Pharmacy, and was for a time engaged in a drug store here, in Roxbury and in Pawtucket; was a member of the Pawtucket School board three years; was in the drug business in South Framingham and Providence; was not married; died Sept. 30, 1911.

MARY R. TINGLEY.—Taught school in Maine, Huntington, and Dudley; married Dr. John B. Laidley of Conway, Jan. 1, 1884; three children, Marion L., Malcolm E. and Alice W., all living; still resides at Conway.

NELLIE M. WALLACE.—Taught for a time in the local schools; died Jan 20, 1885.

HORACE E. WHITNEY.—Attended Boston Dental college; resided for a time at Fall River; married Cora L. Snell at Milford, May 22, 1890; two children, Jessie H. and Harold S., both living; served on School Board three years; is practicing dentistry at Milford.

A. TRASK WOODBURY.—Attended Harvard college; was a railway clerk at Milford, and later in the straw business at Franklin; married Jennie G. Hills of Franklin, Sept. 29, 1886; resided at Stamford, Conn., Westboro, Franklin and Boston; was traveling salesman for a Boston leather firm; died in August, 1907.

TWO YEARS' COURSE.

MARY A. BURKE.—Has always lived at home, and is engaged in a local straw factory.

ARTHUR E. KIRBY.—Was employed in a local shoe factory, and later as a clerk in a railroad office here; died Sept. 5, 1883.

WILLIAM KNOWLTON.*—Learned the machinist's trade at Hopedale; took a course of instruction at McLean insane asylum, and served as nurse in private families; returned to Hopedale and was later located at Providence, Woonsocket, Philadelphia and Jamaica Plain, where he is engaged at his trade of machinist; married Mrs. Anne Perry at Providence, Dec. 10, 1889; no children.

NELLIE A. McLAUGHLIN.—Was for a time clerk in a local periodical store, and later a compositor at the Gazette office; married Stephen W. Blunt, Sept. 27, 1892; no children; husband died July 1, 1895; was compositor in different newspaper offices; studied elocution with Miss Lottie Jones, now Mrs. Dennison; has done considerable platform work; has served Quinshipaug Woman's club as recording secretary and president; married Robert W. Oliver in August, 1907. Present address, 244 Bunker Hill street, Charlestown.

MAGGIE I. QUIRK.—Resided at home with her parents until her death, Jan. 22, 1889.

RUTHVEN S. WELLINGTON.*—Was employed in the shoe factories at Milford and Marlboro; went to Boston, where he is now in charge of the shoe department at A. Shuman & Co's; married Minnie Warren at Marlboro in 1887; one son, Charles, still living; wife died Nov. 1895; married Florence Leahy, July 17, 1900; residence, Stoneham.

CLASS OF '81.

LILLA J. BANCROFT.—Attended Prospect Hill school at Greenfield; taught in the Hopedale high school; married Howard W. Bracken, head draughtsman for the Draper Co., Oct. 28, 1896; no children; resides at Hopedale.

HERBERT S. ELDREDGE.—Is still residing at Milford, and is in the house painting business; married Grace J. Hayward October 7, 1896; no children.

CORA C. FITZGERALD.—Removed to Boston, where she was engaged as saleswoman and at dressmaking; married James Dooley in June 1889; one child, not living; present residence, Charlestown.

ANNA S. MARTIN.—Taught in the Spencer schools six years; married Thomas P. Donohoe at Milford, September, 1888; four children, Frank M., Charles F., Edward J. and Cecelia M; all but Cecelia living; present residence Brockton.

LILLIE M. O'DONNELL.—Lived at home until her death which occurred June 4, 1890.

ELMER E. SMITH.—Learned telegraphy, and has been engaged as railroad clerk and telegraph operator in local offices; is organist, pianist and teacher of the piano; present residence, 22 Dover street, Worcester.

WALLACE I. STIMPSON.—Spent three years at Los Angeles, Cal., returning to Hopedale where he is assistant agent of the Draper Co.; married Helen Maude Hapgood at Milford, Jan. 6, 1891; one daughter, Helen; resides in Hopedale.

EMMA O. TAYLOR.—Attended Framingham Normal school; taught in the local schools; is at present a stenographer in Boston.

EDWARD C. THAYER.—Attended Harvard college, and has since been in the wholesale boot and shoe business in New York with residence at 5 St. Paul's court, Flatbush, Brooklyn; married Alice Keresey at Brooklyn Jan. 19, 1897; four children, two boys and two girls.

ARTHUR F. WALKER.—Attended Worcester Technical school; is a civil engineer, and was in the employ of the Union Pacific railroad at Helena, Mont., and the Thompson-Houston Co. at Boston, was also located at Huntsville, Ala., and is now at Atlanta, Georgia; is married; no children.

TWO YEARS' COURSE.

ANNIE E. FAIRBANKS.—Married Willard D. Noyes, wood worker, of Marlboro, Nov. 25, 1885; husband has died; four children, all living; has lived at Athol, Hudson and Marlboro, her present residence, where she is engaged in dressmaking.

FRANK L. FAIRBANKS.—Has been a locomotive and stationary engineer, and is now chief engineer at Hotel Somerset, Boston; married Lumina LaViolette at Milford, Nov. 26, 1885; two children, Louis N., and Vivian E., both living.

NELLIE FISHER.*—Lived at home at Milford and was engaged in the local straw factories and real estate office; married John T. Dobbyn, April 18, 1900; no children; present residence, 5 Cottage street, South Boston.

JENNIE L. HUNT.*—Lived at home with her parents here until her marriage to W. H. Duncan, machinist, of Worcester, Nov. 24, 1887; two children, Mildred and Paul; resided at Worcester, going thence to Atlanta, Georgia, where Mr. Duncan had charge of the machine department of the Atlanta School of Technology; he was later superintendent of a mill at Worcester.

GEORGE H. LILLEY.—Learned the machinist's trade, and was for a time employed at Hopedale, and later at his father's needle manufactory here; studied at Massachusetts Institute of Technology ; has taught mechanical drawing and was mechanical engineer in a wire mill at Ansonia, Conn. ; married Alice Waldron at New York, August 10, 1896 ; one daughter, Marian H. ; has resided at Concord, N. H., Waterbury and Derby, Conn. ; six years ago bought a confectionery business in Milford and still resides here.

CLASS OF '82.

ALICE M. AYLWARD.—Attended Framingham Normal school ; taught school in Milford, Sherborn and Medway, and later learned newspaper composition, and has been employed in offices at Milford, South Framingham, and Westboro ; passed civil service examination for position as compositor in the government printing office in Washington, and began duties Jan., 1902 ; now operating a typesetting machine there.

SARAH P. CHAPIN.—Lived at home until her death, Sept. 25, 1885.

ELLA T. CHILSON.—Went West several years ago, and was for a time at Gibbon, Neb., and Los Angeles, Cal., where she married Curtis Wilbur, lawyer ; no children ; died Dec. 9, 1896.

THOMAS F. CONNIFF.—Was employed as collector for a publishing house in Boston, and later in the insurance business there ; was employed in a Boston hotel ; was not married ; has died.

TIMOTHY J. DEMPSEY.—Removed to Waltham, where he was employed in the watch works up to the time of his death, which occurred June 22, 1887.

MARY F. DESAUTELLE.—Married Frank H. Thomas, barber, at Milford, Sept. 26, 1883 ; three sons, Elmer E., Frank D., and Raymond V., all living ; has always lived in Milford.

JENNIE L. DEVINE.—Has taught most of the time since graduation in the local schools, and is still so engaged.

CHARLES H. FISHER.—Was engaged as a salesman in a local dry goods store until 1890, when he went to Washington, D. C., where he was engaged in the same occupation ; was enlisted June 17, 1898, for the Spanish war and served in Porto Rico until discharged Jan. 21, 1899; was clerk at Taunton and Boston; was engaged at the Pan-American exposition at Buffalo, N. Y.; was in charge of a Woolworth store in Attleboro for a time; present address, Taunton, Mass.

SUSAN G. GALLAGHER.—Lived at home here for some time after graduating; was tutoring for a time at Woonsocket; was an architect's assistant, and resided in Boston, Providence and Pawtucket, R. I.; married William Lennon, plumber, August 12, 1890; two sons, Emmett and William, both living; she has died.

RICHARD A. GILFOYLE.—Entered employ of J. Allen Rice, druggist, on leaving school; was a member of the school committee; married Amy L. Bolton at Newark, N. J., July 18, 1899; one child, Richard B.; succeeded to full ownership of business in 1911, conducting business under name of J. Allen Rice Co.

MARY A. HANNON.—Has always lived at Milford, and has been employed in local and vicinity straw factories.

LILLIAN J. HAVEN.—Has been employed in the local factories; at present is living at home.

ANNIE E. HEATH.—Lived at home with her parents in Milford until her death, March 3, 1896.

EFFIE A. HOLMES.—Was bookkeeper for a time in a local factory; married Albertus Hussey, architect, at Milford, March 20, 1884; two children, Clarence L. and Eunice D., both living; present residence, 1547 Smith street, Providence.

WILLIAM E. KNIGHTS.—Worked as painter, carpenter, machinist, shoe cutter and taxidermist; at present has large farm at South Milford and does some floral work; served eleven years in local militia; married Jennie L. Davis, at Hopedale, Jan. 29, 1893; two children, Esther and Henry, both living.

CHARLES H. MORRILL.—Graduated from Dartmouth college; has been principal of high school at Wilton, N. H., of Haverhill academy at Haverhill, N. H.; of Brigham academy, Bakersfield; Vt., of State Normal school, Randolph, Vt., and now of Brigham academy; served as instructor in summer session at University of Vermont; has been president of State Teachers' association once, and of State Schoolmaster's club, three times; married Cora V. Chase of Mansfield, Mass., Dec. 4, 1889; no children.

EDMUND F. MURPHY.*—Was for a time employed in a Medway boot and shoe factory, later a shipping clerk in a hardware house in Utica, N. Y.; is now farming at Medway; married Mary Kelly at Medway, July 5, 1892; no children.

JERRY T. MURPHY.*—Still lives at Milford, and has been employed in local and vicinity factories; married Mary E. Casey, June 30, 1897; two children, Marion and Harold, both living.

CATHERINE E. O'CALLAGHAN.—Lived at home here until her death, which occurred March 29, 1887.

FRANK C. PHILLIPS.—Was with a wholesale grocery firm at Providence two or three years; was then employed in a local straw factory, and later engaged in carpentering at Medway; died at South Milford, July 15, 1894.

PERCIVAL SHEA.*—Learned the printer's trade, and was employed at Milford, Franklin, Boston, and Colorado Springs, Colorado, and is now located at Tucson, Arizona; married Lizzie Baker of Manchester, Mass., March 9, 1891; one daughter, Catherine, still living.

MARY O. SUMNER.—Attended Bradford academy; has since lived at home here.

JOHN V. SWEENEY.—Went to Brooklyn, N. Y., where he was engaged in a printing establishment, and died Jan., 1889.

IRVING W. SWEET.—Took course in Comer's Commercial college, Boston; was bookkeeper at Hopedale and Milford; married Ida O. Lincoln at Hopkinton, Nov. 27, 1884; two children, Ethel L. and Walter H., only the latter living; was in the coal business at Newton Upper Falls; went to California on account of his health; is engaged in real estate business, loans and insurance in Pasadena, his present residence.

JENNETTE S. TUFTS.—Lived at home here after graduation; was engaged as a music teacher; married Henry F.

Searles of Hopedale, June 10, 1891; two children, Harry and John; present residence, Troy, N. Y.

NELLIE A. WARFIELD.—Taught school at Bellingham and Medway; married Edson H. Norton at Milford, June 19, 1887; one daughter, Cornelia G.; has lived at Palmer and Franklin, with present residence at Milford; is a milliner; Mr. Norton died May 11, 1891.

HARRY J. WOOD.—Attended Boston Latin school and Harvard college; is a manufacturer of wood mantels and custom furniture at Boston, with residence at Cambridge; married Eleanor M. Dorr of Cambridge, Jan. 8, 1890; two daughters, Marguerite D. and Muriel.

ANNA A. WOODBURY.—Attended Wheaton seminary, Norton; was for a time clerk in a law office here; married Dr. Walter Tuttle at Milford, Oct. 23, 1888; one son George W.; present residence, Exeter, N. H.

TWO YEARS' COURSE.

MICHAEL J. AHERN.—Attended Phillips-Exeter academy, Holy Cross college, and Grand seminary, Montreal; was ordained a Catholic clergyman in Dec., 1890; has been curate at the cathedral at Portland, Maine, Turner's Falls, West Springfield, and Worcester; is now located at Westfield, Mass.

WILLIAM H. AYLWARD.*—Was clerk in a dry goods store; was employed in Boston for a time; learned the machinist's trade, and later in the life insurance business at Pawtucket, R. I.; has resided at Lynn, Providence and Pawtucket, his present residence; is now salesman for a household goods concern; married Mabel Church in April, 1893; nine children, all but one living.

ERNEST L. COOK.—Learned the machinist's trade at Providence, and has since been engaged at his trade, or as engineer, at Hopedale, Brookfield, and New Haven; was a brick manufacturer at State Farm, Mass.; married Georgina M. Wrisley, three children, Silva, Alice and Ernest L., jr., all living; present residence, Bridgewater, Mass.

ABBIE L. FLAGG.—Lived at her home here with her parents, and was employed in the local factories ; married George R. Withington, and still resides in Milford ; no children ; her husband has died.

HARRY W. HAVEN.—Learned the jeweler's trade, and is now engaged at carpentering ; married Lena E. Bartlett ; two children, Earle and Mildred, Mildred only living ; present residence, Milford.

HARRY G. KRUM.—Learned the jeweler's trade ; for several years was a palace car conductor, located at Boston, St. Louis, and Albany, N. Y. ; married Susie T. Gerry at Upton, May 14, 1889 ; no children ; was employed in the office of the Worcester Consolidated street railway company ; present residence, Kalamazoo, Mich.

ARTHUR W. VANT.—Was clerk in a drug store for a time, and later employed in a local laundry ; was in the local office at Norcross quarries ; estimator and traveling salesman for the Woodbury Granite Co. at Hardwick, Vt., with headquarters at Chicago ; married Margaret E. McIntyre, Oct. 8, 1902 ; two children ; present residence, 834 Sherman Ave., Evanston, Ill.

CLASS OF '83.

ALICE M. AMES.—Attended Framingham Normal school ; taught at Spencer and Milford, and is still teaching here.

LURA B. BANCROFT.—Attended Prospect Hill school at Greenfield, also Cowles' Art school at Boston ; was teacher of drawing in the Hopedale schools ; married Charles M. Day, Sept. 11, 1897 ; husband not living ; no children ; still resides at Hopedale.

EDWARD WILLIAM BARRETT.*—Attended Amherst college, and has since taught at or near Springfield and Blackstone ; graduated from the Jefferson medical school ; is now practicing in Medford ; is not married.

ANNIE G. BURKE.—Lived at Milford, Medway, Whitman and North Abington, and for a time engaged in dress-making ; married Frank P. McDermott, shoemaker, at Milford, Sept. 13, 1893; two daughters, only one living; resided at North Abington until her death July 31, 1911.

MARY G. BURNS.—Lived at home after graduation, and was employed in the local shoe factories; died Sept. 25, 1911.

LETTIE M. BURRELL.—Lived at home and was employed in a local box factory; married William E. Cook, machinist, April 24, 1893; two children, both living; has lived at Dorchester and Waltham, her present residence.

ELIZABETH D. CLARK.—Was a newspaper compositor until her marriage, Sept. 17, 1884, to G. H. Libbey; two children, Evelyn C. and Lester B., both living; still resides at Milford.

HARRY A. COBURN.*—Was with a leather firm in Boston, and later with a wholesale boot and shoe house there; at last reports was living in Boston.

WILLIAM J. COCHRAN.*—Attended Harvard medical school, locating at Natick, where he is still practising medicine; married Ellen O'Callaghan at Bangor about 1892; three children, all living.

JOHN A. CONLIN.*—Lived at home and was engaged at the local granite quarries; was engaged in a straw factory in New York state, and at last reports was in the same line in Cleveland, Ohio; is married; no children.

ANNIE A. T. CONROY.—Taught in the local schools almost continuously after graduation until her marriage to Edward R. McManus, Nov. 30, 1899; resided at Taunton; husband is dead; at present is residing in Milford and is teaching in the local schools.

GEORGE C. DEAN.—Attended Amherst college and a Boston law school; examiner in U. S. Patent Office, Washington, 1890-1902; since then practicing law in New York city; married Anna May Smith; three children, two living.

MARY A. DONLON.—Has lived at home, and has been employed in the local straw factories.

AGNES L. EGAN.—Lived at home and was engaged in a local straw factory until her removal to Boston, where she now resides.

THOMAS R. EGAN.*—Worked in a local factory; at last reports was in New York in the employ of a social club.

MARTIN B. FOLEY.—Lived in Milford and was engaged in the meat business; is now manager in a wholesale beef house at New Bedford; married M. L. Sylvia; no children.

DENNIS P. FLYNN.*—Has lived in Milford, and has been employed in the shoe factories; is now a machinist; not married.

GEORGE N. GODDARD.*—Attended Amherst college; removed to Terryville, Conn., and was principal of the high school at Plymouth, Conn.; attended National university law school and practised law in Boston; was for a time examiner in the United States Patent Office at Washington; married Emily G. Northam at Portland, Conn., Nov. 15, 1893; one daughter, Martha R. N.

MARY A. J. GORMAN.—Was for a time employed in the local factories; married John F. Walpole at Milford, Oct. 14, 1886; three children, Eva M., John F., and William H., all living; still resides at Milford.

MAGGIE F. HANNON.—Has lived at home; has been employed in a local straw factory, and is now vanner in a shoe factory.

ANNIE L. HARRIS.—Is a compositor in the Gazette office, and has always lived at home since graduating.

LEWIS J. JOHNSON.—Attended Harvard college, Lawrence scientific school, and studied at educational institutions in Zurich and Paris; for two years was engineering in Chicago; was assistant professor of civil engineering at the Lawrence scientific school, connected with Harvard college; is now professor of civil engineering in Harvard university; writes and lectures on economic and political problems; married Grace A. Fitch at Evanston, Ill., June 27, 1893; two sons; resides at Cambridge.

MARY T. KIRBY.—Taught in the local schools until her marriage, Jan. 17, 1895, to Michael H. Sullivan; two children, Margaret and Raymond, both living, present residence, Milford.

JOHN T. McLOUGHLIN.*—Still a resident of Milford, and unmarried; was employed in a shoe factory, and later as a clerk in a clothing store; was town clerk for several years, and has served on the school board, and as representative to the General Court from this district.

MARY V. L. MORIARTY.—Went West and taught at Lyons, Neb., and in the public schools of Omaha for ten years; married John C. Duggan at South Omaha, June 15, 1898; four children, Mary, Helen, John and Frank; present residence, Goodwin, Neb.

FRANK A. MORRILL.—Was town librarian for a time; attended Eastman business college at Poughkeepsie, N. Y.; was employed in the Home National bank, Milford, and the North National bank, Boston, and later was receiving teller at the Bank of Redemption, Boston; was cashier of the Hopkinton National bank six years, also town clerk; is now in the real estate and insurance business, with offices at Boston and Norwood; has been president of the board of trade of Norwood, and chairman of the Committee of Fifteen, having charge of finances of the town; married Margaret Van Hovenberg at Eau Claire, Wis., July 8, 1891; no children; present residence, Norwood.

AARON C. THAYER.—Attended Harvard college and law school; went to New York, where he is now practising law; married Harriot M. Coburn, Jan. 4, 1910; no children; present residence, 1809 Beverley Road, Brooklyn.

ALICE N. Vant.—Graduated from Wellesley college; taught in a private school at Boston; married Prof. A. J. George of Brookline, July 11, 1888; husband died Dec. 27, 1907; one son, Robert H.; present residence, 170 Brookline Ave., Brookline.

TWO YEARS' COURSE.

GERTRUDE A. BALL.*—Lived at home until her marriage, May 23, 1888, to Orrin R. Fox of Natick; three children, all living; present residence, Boston.

JOHN F. COYNE.—Was employed at Hopedale for a short time; died Nov. 22, 1884.

JERRY F. FITZPATRICK.—Lived at South Milford and Milford; was employed at the Hopedale machine works; died Feb. 6, 1909.

JULIA FLYNN.*—Has always lived at home in Milford.

HELENA A. HAWKINS.—Lived at home until her marriage to J. Irving Harris, May 18, 1887; no children; husband died Dec. 2, 1891; lived for a time in New York; married Dr. Chester Baker at Hyannis, in the spring of 1900; no children; present residence, Hyannis.

JOHN W. KEELON.*—Was employed in the local shoe factories, and later a fruit and produce dealer; married Maria O'Brien at Milford, April 7, 1901; has one or more children; present residence, Brockton.

THOMAS F. MANNING.—Was a clerk in a local dry goods store; served as trustee of the town library and town auditor; is now proprietor of a shoe store.

PETER M. McBRIDE.—Took an additional two years' course, completing the full school course of four years, graduating with the class of '85, with which his record may be found.

MICHAEL F. MORAN.*—Resided for a time at Milford; was employed in the local shoe factories; was department foreman in a North Abington shoe factory; is not married.

DENNIS E. SHEA.*—Was employed in the local shoe factories, and as a clerk in a furniture house; now in business here under the firm name of Shea Bros.; married Martha M. Egan at Milford, June 29, 1899; no children.

DENNIS J. SULLIVAN.—Has been employed in the local shoe factories, and was baggage master at the Boston & Albany railroad station here; is town clerk; is not married.

CORA I. TAFT.—Lived at Milford and Upton, engaged in the straw factories; married Charles H. Trott at Milford, Sept. 6, 1893; three children, Lawrence, Helen and Lloyd; has since resided in Westford, Lowell, Dorchester, and Cohasset, her present residence.

WALTER A. VANT.*—Was for a time in the retail oil business, and later employed in a local laundry ; has also been engaged in electrical work in Boston, and is now employed in a local shoe factory ; married Mabel Taft, Nov. 26, 1890 ; no children.

CLASS OF '84.

DELIA E. BURKE.—Lived for a time in Milford ; went to Worcester and thence to Boston, where she was employed as saleswoman in a dry goods house ; married Thomas J. Collins, merchant, at Milford, Oct. 10, 1896 ; two children, Dorothy and Edmund, both living ; present residence, 8 Belmore terrace, Jamaica Plain.

GRACE G. CARPENTER.—Was clerk for a time in a local trimmings store ; married John A. Waterman, clothier, of Franklin, Oct. 4, 1886 ; two children, Grace C. and Charlotte J., both living ; has resided at Franklin, Allston, and Milford ; husband has died ; is now house-mistress at Metcalf Hall, Jackson college.

ALEXANDER L. COCHRAN.—Graduated from the New York College of Pharmacy, and was in the drug business in New York ; was not married ; died Nov. 5, 1901.

GRACE E. COOKE.*—Was a teacher of music for a time ; married Elmer E. Harris of Millbury, June 29, 1887 ; one daughter, Amy, still living ; has resided at Worcester and Buffalo.

ADALINE C. CLARK.—Was a compositor in a local newspaper office, and later bookkeeper for a box manufacturing firm here ; conducted a boarding house for several years, and was a compositor, with residence at South Framingham ; returned to Milford and was bookkeeper at Milford Co-operative Bank ; married William R. Howard, Jan. 29, 1908, at Hopedale ; present residence, Milford, N. H.

M. HENRY CONNORS.—Was employed in the shoe factories, and later as a clerk in a local clothing store ; is now a salesman in New York ; married Minnie E. Ring.

DANIEL T. DEVINE.—Was employed in a local shoe factory ; was a trustee of the town library ; attended Holy Cross college and Grand seminary, Montreal; also the Canadian College at Rome; ordained Catholic priest; stationed at Holyoke.

PATRICK J. DONOHUE.*—Was clerk in a local drug store, and later in the drug business for himself; married Margaretta J. McCoy of Westboro, June 3, 1891; three children, Helen M., James and Margaret A., all living; was New England manager for a chemical firm of Cincinnati, Ohio; resided at Westboro, and is now located in New York.

CHARLOTTE T. FIELD.—Lived at home with her parents after graduating until her marriage to Frederick A. Shepard, July 22, 1891; one son, Howell F.; resided at New York, Wrentham and Amherst; died March 5, 1911.

S. ERNEST FLETCHER.—Was employed in the local factories; graduated from Boston university medical school in June, 1891, and practised for a time in Milford; is now located at Chicopee; has been city physician, member and chairman of Board of Health, member and president of Board of Aldermen, member of school committee, and mayor of Chicopee; president of Western Mass. Homeopathic Medical society one year, and of Alumni association of Boston University School of Medicine; married Alice W. Sutcliffe at Monson, Jan. 26, 1892; three children, Carolyn, Kenneth and Margaret.

LUCY E. GILFOYLE.—Taught for a time at Spencer, and is now teaching in the local schools.

NELLIE F. GORMAN.—Taught for a time in the local schools, and lived at her home here until her death.

ALCISTA A. HOWARD.—Attended Abbot academy, Andover, and Boston university; was substitute teacher for a short time in the local schools; married Prof. John E. Bucher, now of Brown university, Sept. 9, 1896; no children; has resided at Kingston, R. I., Providence and Summit, her present residence.

WILLIAM A. HUSSEY.—Was clerk in the local banks, and in the Bank of Redemption, Boston; was with the Home National bank here; married Emeline Hancock, Oct. 3, 1893; three sons, Warren H., Roland D., and Luther W., all living; has lived at Palmer, Oregon, and is now living at 352 Upham street, Melrose, Mass.

MAUDE L. JOHNSON.*—Has resided here and in Boston, also at Hotel Margaret, N. Y.; spent a year or two in travel abroad.

MICHAEL J. KELLEY.*—Was employed in a local furniture house, and was proprietor of a fruit and confectionery store here; is not married.

OTIS W. KRUM.*—Attended Eastman business college, Poughkeepsie, N. Y.; was a draughtsman, and was employed in the office of a local quarrying firm; married Carrie B. Pedrick, Sept. 17, 1889; two children, Robert P. and Zelma E., both living; has lived at Worcester and New York; wife died several years ago, and he has since married again; has been superintendent of quarries in several places in the west.

EDWARD J. LARKIN.*—Has been employed in the shoe factories at Milford, Brockton, and Hopkinton; married Mary Turner, Sept. 12, 1896; two sons, George and Francis, both living; resides at Milford where he is a conductor on the Milford & Uxbridge street railway.

ELIZABETH A. MADDEN.—Taught in the local schools until her marriage, June 27, 1900, to John F. Jackson, machinist; one daughter; present residence, Milford.

MARY C. McCORMICK.*—Has lived at home here and at East Weymouth; has been employed in a shoe factory.

LOUIS K. PHILLIPS.*—Was employed in a local straw factory, and was a mail clerk on the Boston & Albany railroad, with residence at Natick; married Annie Gurney; one child.

WILLIAM E. STAPLES.—Was a clerk in a local hardware store, and is now engaged in that business for himself here; married Mabelle A. Tarbell; one child.

ANNIE C. SUMNER.—Attended Bradford academy, and has since lived at home here.

JOHN F. TOBIN.—Resided here after graduation and was one of the proprietors of Hotel Willian; was not married; died March 7, 1909.

LIZZIE F. TOOMEY.—Taught in the local schools until her death, Sept. 28, 1886.

WALTER L. TOUGAS.—Was employed at his father's die factory, attended Bryant & Stratton Commercial School at Boston, and was later a bookkeeper; is now an insurance solicitor with residence at Dorchester; secretary "Major Simon Willard Descendants' Association"; married S. Ellie Reed at East Hartford, Conn., Aug. 17, 1893; four children, Charlotte J., Sarah K., Helen L., and Willard R., all living.

MARY E. TRAVERSE.—Attended Wellesley college; was a substitute teacher in the local schools; removed to Denver, Col., and taught there for a time; married Marcus J. Patterson at Denver, July 8, 1890; four children, Mark S., Clarence A., Stanley, and Jennie E., all living; died in Denver in 1906.

ELLEN M. WATERS.—Has taught and is still teaching in the local schools.

WILLIAM J. WELCH.—Was employed in the local shoe factories, and for a time in a newspaper office here; graduated from the Boston dental college, and practised dentistry in Milford; was a member of the School Committee; was not married; died March 10, 1908.

MAUDE L. WILKINSON.—Married Albert S. Bassett, drug clerk, at Milford, Oct. 3, 1887; no children; her first husband died and she has married David R. Shaw; was bookkeeper in a local straw factory; has resided at Natick, Marlboro and Hull, her present residence.

TWO YEARS' COURSE.

IDA M. BRADLEY.—Was clerk in the office of a local shoe factory; married Fred Waterman, machinist, at Hopedale, Feb. 12, 1890; no children; lived at Worcester until her death.

JOHN N. CAHILL.*—Was clerk in a local dry goods store, and is now a brick manufacturer at Montague City, Mass.; married Mary Carroll; three children, Bessie, Frank and Fred, all living.

CAROLINE L. CARR.*—Attended Framingham Normal school and taught at Dedham; married John Lawson, engineer, Nov. 18, 1887; two children, Owen and Andrew, both living; still resides at Milford.

ROBERT E. I. ELLSBREE.—Commenced to learn the printers' trade, but was compelled to give it up on account of failing health; died April 29, 1885.

S. LEORA FAIRBANKS.*—Married Amasa L. Smith at Milford Oct. 12, 1886; one son, Mark S.; has lived at Providence, R. I., and Hopedale.

FANNIE D. RICHARDSON.—Was employed in a local straw factory until her death, April 1, 1896.

WALTER A. SEVERANCE.*—Was clerk in a local grocery store; has lived at Auburn, R. I., Milford, Springfield, Dover, N. H., and Orange, Mass.; married Emma Staples in Milford, March 21, 1893, one daughter, Bessie M., still living; enlisted in Co. F, 12th New York regiment, for the Spanish war, and was discharged for disability.

WILLIAM F. SHERBORNE.—Was railroad station agent and telegraph operator at Boston; married Lizzie Rich of Dorchester, Nov. 12, 1888; one daughter, Marion H.; first wife died; married Mary A. Hazen; one child; was employed in a grocery store in Dorchester, and later in his father's express business here; is now mail carrier in the local postal service.

MABEL E. TAFT.—Was employed in a local needle factory; married Walter A. Vant at Milford, Nov. 26, 1890, and still resides in Milford; no children.

MARY E. TAFT.—Was employed in local straw factories; married William H. Trevett, Dec. 24, 1887; four children, three living; present residence, Milford.

JOHN B. TRACEY.—Went to Taunton, and later to Europe; was employed at the railroad station at Taunton; travelled extensively throughout the country and West Indian islands; graduated from Boston University law school, and is now practising law at Taunton; has been city solicitor and mayor of the city of Taunton; married Florence A. Baker at Raynham, June 11, 1899 ; five children, Florence, Marguerite, John, Constance and Edward.

CLASS OF '85.

HORACE A. BROWN.—Was employed in a local shoe factory and in a fancy goods store ; married Edith M. Stowe at Caryville, his present residence, Sept. 8, 1897 ; no children ; was town auditor of Milford and was a member of the Bellingham School Board ; since 1906 has been cashier of the Home National Bank.

AGNES M. BURKE.—Attended the Institute of Phonography at Providence, R. I. ; was for a time employed in a local newspaper office, and later was a clerk in the post-office here ; afterwards was a bookkeeper in Woonsocket and Charlestown ; since married James E. Horan ; residence, 91 Pacific street, Rockland.

ALICE I. BURRELL.*—Lived at home until her marriage, July 20, 1886, to William H. Dunton of Milford ; three children, Bertha and Beatrice, twins, and Ruth Irene, all living ; present residence, Worcester.

NELLIE M. CONELY.—Attended Framingham Normal school, and has since taught and is still teaching in the local schools.

MARY F. CONNOLLY.—Was employed in the local shoe factories ; has resided at Brockton, Quincy and Haverhill, and is now at home in Milford.

HARRY P. CROSBY.—Attended Worcester Polytechnic Institute ; married Nettie Cummings at Lynn in 1893 ; four children, all living ; wife has died ; mechanical engineer ; is Commissioner of Public Works for Mt. Vernon, where he now lives.

FRANK L. FALES.—Attended Harvard college, completing the four years' course in three years ; also a polytechnic school in Zurich, Switzerland, and the Lawrence Scientific school of Harvard university ; was civil engineer for five years at the experiment station of the State Board of Health at Lawrence; four years with the Metropolitan water works; never married; died in Denver, Colorado.

CAROLINE M. FIELD.—Attended Wellesley college and Art school; was assistant teacher in the Milford high school; married Robert Duncan McIntosh; present residence, No. 84 Avenue Road, Toronto, Ontario.

JOHN A. FINNIGAN.—Has been employed in a local shoe factory; now employed at Whitman; residence, 26 Elm Place.

INEZ L. GAY.—Attended Framingham Normal school and taught for a year in the local schools; took a special course at Wellesley college, and for fourteen years was first assistant in the high school at Enfield, Conn.; now teaching Latin in Milford high school.

WINONA L. HALE.—Lived at home here until her marriage to Clarence E. Jones of Quincy, Jan. 15, 1891; seven children, five living; present residence, Milford.

ROBERT C. HUSSEY.—Was engaged in the manufacture of builders' finish, and is now a pattern maker; married Laura B. Mader, June 24, 1891; two children, Marion L. and Francis W., both living; present residence, Whitinsville.

JOHN F. IGOE.—Resided in Milford and was employed at his father's bottling works; died Feb. 25, 1894.

PETER M. McBRIDE.—Was employed in a local straw factory and in a Providence rubber factory; married Mary A. Wixtead, Oct. 22, 1907; now resides in Providence, R. I.; is a salesman.

THERESA A. McCARTEN.—Was a clerk in a local dry goods store; possessed of considerable dramatic talent, she spent several years on the stage with marked success; married Patrick H. Buckley, grocer, at Natick, Sept. 27, 1899; three children; present residence, Natick.

MAGGIE L. MINON.—Attended Framingham Normal school, and taught in the local schools until her marriage in 1891 to John Kennedy; five children, Margaret, Raymond, Francis, Donald and Eva, all but Margaret living; present residence, Hopkinton.

CLARENCE H. MORGAN.—Kept books for his father until his death Jan. 25, 1893.

JOHN J. O'SULLIVAN.—Went to Harvard college, but was unable to complete the course on account of physical disability; was for a time in the brokerage business in Boston, and is now farming at South Milford; is not married.

ISABELLA H. ROSS.—Lived at Hopedale, where she was employed in the temple shop of the Draper Co. for many years; married Fred A. Manchester Oct., 1906.

HARRIET A. SMITH.—Attended Framingham Normal school, and taught two years in the local schools; was traveling saleswoman for a New York publishing house, with residence at Nevada, Missouri; attended New England hospital training school and went to Porto Rico as a hospital nurse; is a member of the visiting staff of children's department in social work, Boston; residence, 52 Westland Ave.

ESSIE C. THAYER.—Attended Wellesley college, and is still living at her home in Milford.

WILLIAM O. THAYER.—Learned the printer's trade at the Gazette office, of which he has been foreman for the past fifteen years or more; lives at 102 East Main street.

KATHARINE F. TULLY.—Has resided in Milford and has taught in the local schools for the past twenty years or more.

ANNA M. WALKER.—Attended Framingham Normal school, and taught in the Hopedale schools; has been employed in the office of Mt. Auburn cemetery, Cambridge; is now in Boston post-office; address, General Delivery Central P. O.

MABEL WATERMAN.—Lived at home with her parents here until their removal to Franklin, where she now resides, and is employed in a laundry as bookkeeper.

MINNIE WATERMAN.—Was clerk in a local store, and later employed in a box factory here; removed to Franklin, her present residence, where she is forelady in a laundry.

MARIA P. WESTCOTT.—Attended Mt. Holyoke seminary,

South Hadley, and is now living at 76 Bernard street, Dorchester,

TWO YEARS' COURSE.

M. HARRIS AVERY.—Learned the printing business in local offices ; was employed for a time in Boston, and afterward running an office of his own here ; married Nellie L. Williams, June 5, 1894 ; one son, Chester O. ; is now in employ of Denison Co., South Framingham.

WILLIAM F. BURKE.—Learned the printer's trade, and was employed for some time in a local office ; was later employed in Providence, Boston and Milford ; died Oct., 1910.

JOHN H. CONNIFF.—Was engaged at boot and shoe making for a time, afterward a grocer and provision dealer here ; now in real estate business, and overseer of poor.

WILLIAM GAFFNEY.*—Was engaged as a grocery clerk at Hopedale, and later employed in the screw shop there.

CLARA A. JOHNSON.—Lived at home until her death, Jan. 27, 1889.

ELBRIDGE P. JONES.—Was employed at Hopedale for a time ; went to Boston and was engaged with a jobbing hat house, was a commercial traveler with a wholesale clothing firm in that city ; married Lillian M. Dowse at Boston, April 16, 1895 ; children ; last residence, Newton Highlands ; died July 22, 1908.

AARON H. MAYHEW.—Is a clerk in a local bank ; married Grace P. Field, Nov. 6, 1890 ; no children ; has always lived in Milford.

EDWARD J. O'CONNOR. Was employed in one of the local shoe factories ; later a street railway conductor ; now engaged in farm gardening, and resides in Milford.

BERTHA M. PRATT.*—Was employed for a time in a local box factory ; removed to Worcester, where at last account she still resides ; married Lockwood Demings, cabinet worker, in 1895 ; one son, Lindsey.

IDA L. REYNOLDS —Was engaged as a clerk in a music store, and later in a local straw factory ; married George H.

Fuller, Oct. 8, 1889; two daughters, Irene M. and Esther M., both living; resides in Milford.

CHARLES R. SAUNDERS.—Went to Worcester and learned the plumber's trade; fell from a building upon which he was at work there, receiving injuries from which he died Dec. 25, 1888.

EMILY I. SPINDEL.—Was a clerk in the local stores, and employed in the straw works at Medfield; removed to Boston; married Arthur R. C. Drake at Taunton, Dec. 25, 1890; four children, three living; has resided in Boston and vicinity; present residence, Mt. Vernon, N. Y.

LEORA M. TAFT.—Resided at her home and at West Upton, where she was employed in the straw works for some time; later book-keeper for Neponset Coal Co.; residence, 32 Melville avenue, Dorchester.

CLASS OF '86.

CHARLES P. BARNARD.—Has been employed since graduating in a local clothing store.

J. SAMUEL BLUNT.—Attended Harvard college; was for a time engaged on the Boston Traveler; was connected with a Boston engraving firm at the time of his death, Nov. 6, 1892.

MARY B. BRADBURY.—Attended Bridgewater Normal school; taught for a time at Brookfield, and was employed at the Framingham straw works; later superintendent of a temporary asylum at Dedham; now living at 277 Harvard street, Cambridge.

FLORENCE V. CLARK.—Was employed in a local straw factory; married Edwin F. Lilley Jan. 15, 1895; four children, all living; present residence, Milford.

WILLIAM G. CLIFFORD.—Was employed for a time in a local shoe factory; developed his natural musical talent, and is an excellent performer on various instruments; is now organist and director of the choir of St. Patrick's church, Brockton, and is a teacher of the piano and voice; married Elizabeth A. Parkinson at Milford, June 30, 1897; one child.

WILLIAM J. COOK.*—Went west and was employed for a time in a brass foundry in Chicago and St. Louis; went to Alexandria, Dakota, where he was engaged at farming; has since been engaged as a brass worker in Boston and Brookline.

MARY P. COX.—Was a clerk in the office of a local shoe factory, married Charles E. Longfellow at Milford, Oct. 25, 1892; no children; has resided in Milford, Hopedale, Boston and Los Angeles, her present residence.

EFFIE J. CRAIGE.—Attended Framingham Normal school; was engaged as clerk and bookkeeper for some time; her present occupation, "Religious worker"; residence, Newport, N. H.

JOSEPH D. CRONAN.—Was employed in a shoe store here, and is now in the real estate business in New York; married Emma G. Shaughnessy June 26, 1899; two children, both living; present address 542 W. 112th street, New York.

LILLA H. DENNETT.—Lived at home at Hopedale; married Fred A. Whitmore at Hopedale, Jan. 1, 1889; no children; now living at 800 No. Broad street, Philadelphia, Pa.

MAUDE DICKINSON.—Attended a preparatory school previous to entering Wellesley college, where ill health prevented the completion of the four years' course; lived at Milford until the death of her father; married E. Snow, jr.; one daughter, Maude D.; present residence, Cohasset.

FRANK P. DILLON.—Is still living in Milford, and is a contractor and builder, in company with his brother; they have built the present high school building, the Milford hospital and many other prominent buildings in this and vicinity towns; married Margaret T. Moran at Marlboro, Oct. 25, 1891; four children, three living.

MARTHA M. EGAN.—Was engaged as a clerk in a dry goods store; married Dennis E. Shea, June 29, 1899; no children; resides at Milford.

IRVING H. FAIRBANKS.*—Was in the provision business at Orange, and later in Hopedale and East Everett; has also lived at Marlboro, and at Cliftondale, where he married Eva B. Macey, June 16, 1896.

WILLARD L. FALES.—Attended Harvard college one year, then spent two years at Pasadena, Cal., engaged in civil engineering; was in Europe some time, and later at Denver, Col.; married Linda I. Lapham of Sedalia, Col., June 17, 1891; four children, three living; now engaged in agriculture at Sedalia, Col.

GRACE P. FIELD.—Lived at home with her parents here until her marriage, Nov. 6, 1890, to Aaron H. Mayhew; no children; still resides in Milford.

JOSEPH M. GILFOYLE.—Attended the Boston Art school; also an art school in Paris; has resided at several points south and west; is now manager Lothrop-Davis Co. Inc., treasurer Nevada Tel. & Tel. Co.; resides Tonopah, Nevada.

MABEL L. GODFREY.—Attended Wellesley college, and taught in a high school at Washington, D. C.; member of the Washington-Wellesley Club Assn. of Collegiate Alumnae, the College Women's Club, the Twentieth Century Club, and for several years an Officer General of the D. A. R.; married Dr. Lyman B. Swormstedt, Oct. 4, 1893; one daughter, Helen L.; resides at 2 Thomas Circle, Washington D. C.

JESSIE E. GROW.—Was for a time a teacher of dancing, and also a bookkeeper for her father; married Harry L. Welch, superintendent of iron foundry, March 12, 1895; one son, William Grow; still resides at Milford.

LILLA F. HAYWARD.—Taught for a time in local schools; married Edgar Smith of Cambridgeport, Dec. 24, 1888; attended Monroe College of Oratory; resided at Boston and Cambridge, where she died Nov. 4, 1891, three weeks after the death of her husband.

ABBIE E. HOLMES.—Taught temporarily in a local school; married I. W. Ward, machinist, at Milford, July 8, 1890; two children, Herbert Ellwood and Ralph Holmes, both living; still living at Milford.

LOTTIE A. JONES.—Attended Emerson College of Oratory, Boston; was teacher of elocution at Lawrence academy, Groton, and Brewster academy, Wolfboro, N. H., Oneonta, N. Y., Bloomsburg, Pa., and Millbrook, N. Y.; married J. Fred Denison, Aug. 20, 1911; resides at Greene, N. Y.

FLORENCE E. LEONARD.—Attended Wellesley college; taught in an academy at Dover, Maine, and afterward at Wilimantic, Conn., and now at Taunton.

WILLIAM R. LUBY.—Was a clerk in a local dry goods store; later a cloak buyer with a Taunton dry goods firm until 1905, when he went in business for himself; married Florence L. McCourt, 1906; is in dry goods business at Taunton.

ABBIE I. MADDEN.—Attended Framingham Normal school; was bookkeeper in a local grocery store; married William J. Shea, grocer, June 27, 1894; four children, three living; resided at Milford until her death.

ERNEST F. NORCROSS.—Was employed for a time in the Hopedale machine works; graduated from the Boston University medical school; is now practising medicine at Dorchester; married Lotta M. Wilson, about 1895; one daughter, Eleanor.

JEREMIAH J. O'NEIL.—Attended Holy Cross college; has since been a clerk in a grocery store here, and later was in the same business for himself for a time; is now chief of police and recently appointed deputy sheriff.

S. ELLEN REED.—Resided at Milford with relatives until her marriage, Aug. 17, 1893, to Walter L. Tougas; four children, all living; present residence, Dorchester.

CORA L. SNELL.—Taught in the local schools a short time, and later kept books in her father's market; married Horace E. Whitney, May 22, 1890; two children, Jessie H. and Harold S., both living; still living in Milford.

HARRY C. TILDEN.—Attended Eastman Business college, Poughkeepsie, N. Y.; was for a time engaged in a local newspaper office, and later has been engaged as express agent and bookkeeper; was assessor for one year; married Grace L. Blood, June 2, 1892; one adopted daughter; still living at Milford.

CARRIE L. TOBIN.—Has always lived at her home here with her parents.

NAPOLEON E. TOUGAS.—Was employed at the machine works at Hopedale; married Nellie Nichols, March 27, 1889; three children, Louis N., Winifred and Olive G., all living; removed to Worcester, and later to Dorchester, his present residence; is now engaged as an insurance solicitor.

FRANK T. WESTCOTT.—Graduated from Brown university and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology at Boston; is a civil engineer, and has resided at Central Falls, R. I., and North Attleboro, his present residence, where he is superintendent of streets and town treasurer; member of American Society of Civil Engineers; married Elizabeth Tourtelotte of Central Falls, May 31, 1894; two children, both living.

CLASS OF '87.

FRED J. AYLWARD.—Was a clerk in the office of the West End Street Railway Co., Boston; was with Pacific States T. & T. Co. in San Francisco and San Jose, Cal.; has done general clerical work; present residence, Milford.

ELIZABETH B. BARNES.—Attended Friends' school at Providence and Vassar college; taught in Philadelphia for a year and has had private pupils at home; present residence, Milford.

GRACE J. CLAFLIN.—Has lived at home with her parents here, with the exception of a brief period in which the family resided at Brooklyn, N. Y.; present residence, Milford.

ELIZABETH F. DONNELLY.*—Has lived at Milford and is a bookkeeper in a local shoe factory.

GRACE W. EASTMAN.—Was bookkeeper two years; married Dr. Frank D. White, in 1906; present residence, Milford.

EMILY L. ELDRIDGE.—Graduated from Wellesley college in 1891; taught school for a time, and is now living at home in Milford.

LYDIA F. GOULD.—Attended Framingham Normal school; taught in Milford, Maynard and Unionville; died June 30, 1895.

SARAH M. GORMAN.—Taught in the local schools until her marriage to John J. Logan; one son; died Jan. 31, 1912.

EMELINE HANCOCK.—Was a compositor in a local newspaper office; married William A. Hussey at Waltham, Oct. 3, 1893; three children, Warren H., Roland D., and Luther W., all living; present residence, 352 Upham street, Melrose, Mass.

AMELIA C. HARRIS.—Attended Lasell seminary, Auburndale, and is now at home with her parents here.

LILIAN F. HILL.—Kept books in a local factory; went to Boston, and was a stenographer for an electrical firm; resided at South Framingham and Dorchester; married Lyman C. Wheelock; present residence, Shrewsbury, Mass.

MARY A. HOWE.—Has lived at Milford, Westboro and Troy, N. Y., employed in the straw works; took a course at the Massachusetts homeopathic hospital, and was later engaged as a nurse; married Charles Hutchins, granite cutter, Sept. 5, 1900; her husband died in 1906; resides in Milford.

FRANCIS J. MORIARTY.—Was clerk in a clothing store; went west and taught school, and was a bank cashier at South Omaha, Neb.; married Margaret J. Rush at Omaha, Sept. 23, 1893; no children; died in the summer of 1910.

WALTER PARKHURST.—Lived at Milford, Worcester, and Boston; was engaged as an architect at the latter place; married Sarah F. Crossman, April 28, 1897; no children; died March 28, 1908.

WILLIAM W. PHIPPS.*—Removed to Auburndale, and later to Newtonville; was employed in a Boston carpet house, and later as traveling salesman for a New York firm; married Marie R. Fein, Feb. 22, 1897; no children; last known residence, 74 Westland avenue, Boston.

EDWARD F. ROGERS.*—Was clerk in a local drug store, and later with a wholesale drug house in Boston; married; no children.

MARY E. WHITNEY.—Taught in the local schools until her marriage, June 15, 1897, to Thomas F. Bowker of Newark, N. J.; no children; present residence, 20 Hartwell street, Fitchburg, Mass.

CLASS OF '88.

MINNIE F. BICKNELL.—Lived at South Milford after graduating; married George E. Thayer, Feb. 12, 1890; six children, all living; still living at South Milford.

GRACE L. BLOOD.—Was employed as clerk in a dry goods store, and in a local straw factory; married Harry C. Tilden, bookkeeper, June 2, 1892; one daughter, adopted; still resides in Milford.

NELLIE BROWN.—Attended Smith college, Northampton, one year, and Woman's medical college at Philadelphia; married Harry S. Clark, painter, Sept. 23, 1895; two children, Herbert S., and Mabel L., both living; died several years ago.

OLIE L. BROWN.—Was bookkeeper in a local store for a time, studied short-hand and type-writing, and is now secretary to general manager of General Electric Co., Boston; resides at 42 Oliver street, Linden, Mass.

HARRIOT M. COBURN.—Attended Wellesley college one year; lived here with her father until her marriage to Aaron C. Thayer; present residence, Brooklyn.

GRACE J. CROSBY.—Lived at home with her parents, at Milford and Malden; married George A. Sargent, machinist, June 6, 1894; two sons, Howard C., and Joseph W., both living; present residence, 49 Oliver street, Malden.

HAROLD E. FALES.*—Was for a short time a pupil at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and later a clerk in a local shoe factory; graduated from Boston University law school, and is now practising law in Boston; married Charlotte A. Raitt, Nov. 17, 1897; no children; present residence, Norwood.

ETTA M. GREEN.—Lived at home until her marriage to Fred A. Bishop, Dec. 12, 1888; two daughters, Cora E., and Olive E., both living; husband died April 13, 1893; for past five years agent for a New York dry goods house; present residence, Milford.

FLORENCE E. HALE.—Resided at home here with her parents until her marriage, Sept. 21, 1893, to Edward N. Tarbell clerk in bicycle works at Hartford; two children, Lucius H. and Margaret E., both living; resides at 185 Benton street, Hartford, Conn.

PATRICK J. KEELON.—Was employed for a time in the Hopedale machine works; also as clerk in a shoe store; died Oct. 8, 1891.

PATRICK J. LAWLESS.—Was for a time employed in the Hopedale machine works; later clerk in a local drug store, in which he now has an interest; married Elizabeth M. Canning in 1910.

SUSIE T. MILLER.—Attended Framingham Normal school; two seasons of summer school at Mass. Agricultural college, Amherst; has taught school at Somerset and elsewhere; present residence, 103 Green street, Brockton.

LYDIA A. ROBERTS.*—Lived at home with her parents here and in Roxbury; studied piano and organ at New England Conservatory of Music, and took vocal instruction for three years; married George W. Brainard, real estate agent, Sept. 14, 1896; one son, Robert F.; present residence, Dorchester.

JOSEPHINE THAYER.—Attended Wellesley college and has since lived at home here.

LILLIAN E. THOMPSON.*—Resided with her parents in Milford until her marriage to John S. M. Holley, traveling salesman, March 12, 1895; one daughter, Ruth; present residence, South Framingham.

PHILIP L. TIRRELL.—Was employed in the office of the Boston & Maine railroad at Boston, and is now in the banking business, with residence at 14 Ellsworth street, Somerville.

MARY E. TOOHEY.—Resides at Milford; was a clerk in a local dry goods store, and is now a teacher in the public schools; married Charles H. Edwards, Sept. 9, 1903; one child.

CLASS OF '89.

ETHELWYN BLAKE.—Was for some time amanuensis for a local clergyman; is assistant librarian at the town library, and lives at home with her parents here.

LILLIAN A. BRADFORD.—Resided at home with her mother here until her marriage Oct. 11, 1894, to Paul Doane, real estate agent; two children; resides at Milford.

JOHN E. BURKE.—Has been an agent; has lived in New York, and is a straw worker, living in Milford.

JOHN J. CASEY.—Attended the Massachusetts College of Pharmacy, and was clerk in a local drug store; died Sept. 27, 1894.

H. THEODORA CLARK.—Lived at her home here with her parents until her marriage Dec. 28, 1892, to Horace R. Church, draughtsman; three children, Dorothy H., Raymond C., and Henry R.; Dorothy not living; present residence, Hallowell, Maine.

CLARA F. CCNELLY.—Lives at her home here and is employed in a local straw factory.

AGNES T. CONNOLLY.—Was employed as milliner in a local straw factory; married Bernard F. Callahan April, 1912; residence, Franklin.

JAMES E. FITZGERALD.—Was a clerk in a local drug store; died Aug. 14, 1890.

ELIZA A. FLAHERTY.—Was substitute teacher for a year in the local schools, and attended Framingham Normal school; has resided at Hawley, and Spearfish, South Dakota; married M. Marcus Moran, June 21, 1900; three children, all living; present residence, Milford.

NELLIE A. GOLDSMITH.—Learned stenography, and has been employed in that occupation in Boston; resides at Milford in summer and Boston winters.

FREDERICK A. GOULD.—Is a member of the hardware firm of Staples & Gould; married Cora Belle Hall at Quincy, Oct. 18, 1900; two children.

LULU E. HASKINS.—Was for a time engaged as a clerk in the office of a local shoe factory; married Irving E. Jones, cabinet worker, Oct. 11, 1899; one son, Paul E., still living; husband died Nov., 1901; resides in Milford.

RICHARD P. HOEY.—Is an electric car conductor; married

Olive Agnes Ryan, June 19, 1901; one son; residence, 6 Otis street, Milford.

PATRICK J. MARTIN.—Was employed as a clerk in a local dry goods store, and was a stenographer; attended Holy Cross college, and St. Mary's university, Baltimore, fitting for the priesthood; was connected with St. Joseph's hospital at Providence; ordained Dec., 1900; present residence, Pittsfield.

MABEL L. MAYHEW.—Resided at home with her parents here until her marriage Nov. 8, 1893, to Fred A. Wood, treasurer of Hopkinton Savings bank; two children; husband died; has recently purchased and will soon occupy a residence in Hopedale.

J. LESTER MORGAN.—Lives at home; attended Massachusetts College of Pharmacy, and is now engaged in the drug store here of the H. E. Morgan estate.

THOMAS J. MURPHY.—Attended Holy Cross college; taught for a time in the local schools; assistant teacher for some years in the high school; died 1907.

HARTWELL B. SPAULDING.—Took a special course at Harvard college; was in the straw business with his father here, later at Upton; was a salesman, and resided at Winter Hill; afterward assistant superintendent of a straw factory at Amherst, Mass.; married Anna T. Whitney, Dec. 4, 1894; one son, Almon W.; is salesman with the Collins & Fairbanks Co., Boston; residence, 38 Lindsey street, Dorchester.

MABELLE A. TARBELL.—Was employed in the offices of local shoe and straw factories; later was a clerk in the local post-office; married William E. Staples; one daughter; residence, Milford.

SADIE F. TOOMEY.—Graduated from Comer's Commercial college, Boston; was a stenographer, and later clerk in her father's shoe store; married Henry D. Carbary, Nov. 26, 1903, and is now living in Denver, Colorado.

LOTTIE M. WATERMAN.—Attended Dean academy at Franklin one year; was for a time clerk in a local dry goods store; removed with her parents to Franklin, and is engaged in a laundry there.

A. LOUISE WHITNEY.—Was a clerk in the office of the town treasurer, and bookkeeper with a local furniture house ; married George Holman Staples, Nov, 1904 ; residence, Franklin.

FLORENCE E. WHITNEY.—Lived at home with her parents here ; married George E. Austin, barber, Oct. 10, 1892 ; three daughters, Ruth E., Bertha and Hazel M., all living ; has lived at Rutland, Vt., and Glens Falls, N. Y., and now resides in Hadley, N. Y.

CLASS OF '90.

JOHN J. BARRY.—Was employed in one of the local shoe factories, and is now similarly engaged at Brockton ; married Mary Sullivan ; three children ; present address, 12 Winter street, Montello.

LENA E. BARTLETT.—Lived at her home at Braggville until her marriage March 28, 1894, to Harry W. Haven, carpenter ; two children, Earle and Mildred, Mildred only, living ; resides at Milford.

LIDA R. BATES.—Was employed in a local millinery store ; married Herbert W. Moore, Nov. 15, 1899 ; two children ; still resides in Milford.

JOHN A. BURKE.—Was a clerk in a local drug store, and is now employed in a drug store in South Framingham.

SADIE S. COLLINS.—Was engaged in a millinery store in town ; married Philip S. Kimball, machinist, April 27, 1893 ; two children, Phyllis and J. Read, both living ; still resides at Milford.

CHARLES E. CONGDON.—Attended Chauncy Hall school, Boston ; is now a physician at Nashua, N. H.

CHARLES F. EGAN.—Attended Boston School of Pharmacy ; and was in the drug business in Boston ; married Emma G. Sullivan in 1899 ; two children, Frederick and Ruth, only the latter living ; his wife died ; he died Dec. 23, 1909.

JOHN T. GIBBONS.—Was clerk in a local drug store, and is now a machinist, working in Hopedale; married Grace I. Hewitt and has one daughter; resides in Milford.

FRANK D. HOLBROOK.—Was employed in the fabric mill at Hopedale, and is now railway mail clerk; has lived at Southbridge, Hanover, N. H., and present residence, Milford; married Ida Wilkinson, June, 1907; one child.

WILLIAM CORMICK LANG.—Was employed in one of the shoe factories in town, was a shipping clerk at North Adams, and is now a foreman in a shoe shop in St. Louis, Mo.; married Rosa A. Trembley Feb. 26, 1900; two children, both living.

RENA A. MATHEWSON.—Was clerk in her father's bakery; one year in Boston School of Social Workers; is a social worker in Boston, with residence at 27 Western Avenue, Cliftondale, Mass.

KATE G. McDERMOTT.—Attended Framingham Normal school and has been a teacher in the local schools since 1892.

EMMA L. NICKERSON.—Removed to Somerville with her parents, and was employed in a newspaper office there; went to Dorchester, and thence to New York; is a private secretary; present residence, 602 W. 180th street, New York city.

SUSAN F. O'SULLIVAN.—Attended Framingham Normal school, and has taught in the public schools of Bridgewater and Milford.

EDITH F. ROSS.*—Reported to have gone to Maine after graduation where she resided with her parents; married a man named Clish and was living in Lynn, Mass., at last accounts.

BERTHA F. SHEA.—Was head clerk and bookkeeper at Boston Store, Milford; now owns the store in company with Benjamin J. Clancey.

WILLIAM M. SMITH.—Attended Holy Cross college and entered the Jesuit novitiate at Woodstock, Me., where he died May 2, 1895.

ESSIE G. WILBER.—Lived at home here and gave instruction on the piano; married George E. Fisher, traveling salesman, now lumber dealer, June 11, 1895 ; no children ; present residence, 6 Maybrook street, Dorchester.

CLASS OF '91.

BESSIE F. BAILEY.—Married C. Fred Butterworth, bookkeeper, June 13, 1894 ; two children, Jeane and Helen, both living ; resides at Hopedale.

LUELLA H. BALLOU.—Was a stenographer for seven years ; was secretary to the New York manager of the Library Bureau ; married Robert L. Studley, of Goodhue, Studley & Emery, wool merchants of Boston ; one child, Eleanor ; present residence, Pine street, Wellesley Hills, Mass.

DANIEL W. BURNS.—*Was a cigar maker and resided in Milford.

MATTHEW J. CARBARY.—Is a provision dealer ; has been chairman of the Board of Selectmen ; is now representative to General Court of Massachusetts ; resides in Milford.

JOHN J. CONELY.—Was employed in a local shoe factory ; is now a traveling salesman with residence in Boston ; is married.

FRANK J. COONEY.—Was a printer employed in a local newspaper office ; is now a linotype operator in the office of the Boston Post ; married Elizabeth F. Flanagan, Sept. 7, 1898 ; two boys, both living ; present residence, Milford.

JOHN F. CRONAN.—Was a clerk in a local shoe store ; is married and his present residence is 367 Fulton street, Brooklyn.

FRED J. EGAN.—Was a clerk in a local clothing store, and later one of the firm of Egan & Larkin ; married Ellen L. Linehan, Aug. 10, 1904 ; one child, Helen ; died May, 1910.

MAURICE J. FOLEY.—Attended Burdett Business college, Boston ; has been a bookkeeper at Milford, Providence and Boston, where he is now so employed ; resides in Milford.

GEORGE E. GILMORE.—Was a bookkeeper ; died April 30, 1902.

GRACE GODFREY.—Graduated from Wellesley college ; took a diploma in domestic science at Pratt institute, Brooklyn, N. Y., and taught that branch in the Holyoke high school; was instructor in home economics at Simmons college, Boston; was table director of Lake Placid club in the Adirondacks; married Arthur Freemont Rider, Oct. 21, 1908; present residence, Grand View on Hudson, N. Y.

MARY W. HASKINS.—Was a compositor in local newspaper offices; married Charles N. Harlow, Oct. 14, 1902; one step-daughter, Corinne; present residence, Orange, Mass.

PATRICK J. B. HINES.—Worked in Hopedale machine shop and in a straw factory at Wrentham; graduated from Comer's Commercial college, Boston; chief clerk of Eastern Division, Boston and Maine Railroad, and later of the Portland Division; studied architecture, securing diploma; went abroad in 1909; present residence, Beacon Chambers, Boston.

DANIEL J. HOGAN.—Is a stone cutter; married Margaret E. Ross, April 28, 1897, four children, all living; still resides in Milford.

BESSIE H. JOHNSON.—Graduated from Wellesley college in 1896; employed in Home National Bank two years; present residence, Milford.

JOSEPH P. KEHOE.*—Learned the printing business and was employed in a printing office in Worcester.

JOHN C. LYNCH.—Took the degree of A. B. and A. M. at Holy Cross college, and LL. B. at Boston University Law school; has practised law in Milford for past twelve years; has been a member of the school board for same period; is town solicitor, is a commissioner to qualify civil officers, and is also Associate Justice of Third District Court of Southern Worcester; married Dora I. Barry, Sept. 18, 1901; two children, Paul E. and John C., jr.

ADA B. MACUEN.—Is bookkeeper and manager of her father's ice business; resides at Milford.

NELLIE F. McDONOUGH.—Is a milliner, and is now engaged in North Attleboro.

CLIFFORD D. MONTAGUE.—Is a clerk in a local jewelry store; married Daisy Kimball, Feb. 5, 1906; one child, Clifford D. jr.

FRANK C. MORGAN.—Attended Boston College of Pharmacy, and is interested in the Music Hall drug store and theatre.

GUY L. NOYES.—Attended University of Vermont and University of Michigan Medical schools; was assistant physician of the North Michigan asylum, and demonstrator of Ophthalmic and Aural surgery at University of Michigan; professor of diseases of the eye and ear at University of Missouri from 1902 to present time; 1st Lieut. Medical Reserve Corps, U. S. Army; married Lucia M. Wiegand, Aug. 25, 1901; present residence, Columbia, Missouri.

ARTHUR E. SHEEDY.—Attended Holy Cross college and St. Mary's seminary, Baltimore, where he was ordained to the priesthood in 1899; has since been located in Jersey City, Kingston, Ontario, and Chicopee, Mass., his present residence.

E. OTIS THAYER.—Graduated from Boston University Law school, and practised law in Boston; died Feb. 2, 1903.

LILLIAN N. WHITE.—Lived at home until her death, May 8, 1894.

EDITH C. WIRES.—Studied music in Boston; married Harry Taft Hayward, Jan. 11, 1905; two children, Mary Elizabeth and Hannah Taft; resides in Franklin.

CLASS OF '92.

JESSE B. BARNS.—Attended Haverford and Williams colleges and Boston university; is a civil engineer and was employed at Hopedale; was a draftsman in office of Northern Pacific R. R. in St. Paul, Minn.; is now agent for the Santa Maria Development Co., rubber growers.

IDA S. BRITTON.*—Conducts a stenography and typewriting business at Providence, R. I.

CHARLES F. CAHILL.—Was a dry goods clerk; now works for the Milford Printing Co., and resides here.

HENRY D. CARBARY.—Learned printer's trade; is editor of the Denver Daily News; married Sadie Toomey; resides in in Denver.

ROBERT ALLEN COOK.—Studied architecture here and abroad; has designed numerous prominent buildings, among them the present high school building; married Florence K. Moore, Oct. 10, 1898; two children; wife died in winter of 1908; married Eva E. Phipps, June 7, 1911; resides in Milford.

GRACE A. FAIRBANKS.—Lived at home until her death, June 20, 1893.

MARY F. GALLAGHER.—Taught in the local public schools; married Frederick T. Cahill, Sept., 1904; two children.

PATRICK J. GILMORE.—Was a salesman and has resided at Bridgeport, Conn., and New York; is in the life insurance business; married Katherine L. Wharton; one child; present residence, 10 Henry Ave., Newburgh, N. Y.

KATHERINE B. HANLEY.—Was a stenographer for a mercantile firm at Waltham; married John Shinner; present residence, Sydney street, Dorchester, Mass.

IRVING C. HILL.—Is a carpenter and lives in Milford; married Carlotta Kelly, April 13, 1895; one son.

FRED P. LARKIN.—Was a clerk in a local grocery and later in a hardware store; is now in the bakery business; married Rose E. Cullen May 15, 1897; four children; resides in Milford.

PATRICK A. MANION.—Graduated from Holy Cross college and Grand seminary, Montreal; was ordained to the priesthood in 1899; was in charge of a parish at Sheffield, Ill.; is now in Worcester.

MARY H. McDERMOTT.*—Is a teacher in the local public schools.

CHARLES J. O'BRIEN.—Was a local tea merchant; traveled abroad for his health; died Nov. 15, 1899.

HARRY H. O'CONNOR.—Was a bookkeeper and was employed in Boston; died in 1903.

WILLIAM G. POND.—Has been a post-office clerk, reporter and stenographer ; graduated from Boston University law school, and is now practising law in Milford, where he is clerk of the district court and probation officer ; was a member of Gov. Draper's staff, and is captain of Co. M, M. V. M. ; married Gertrude Burns ; two children.

STEPHEN H. REYNOLDS.—Associated with his brother in the management of Reynolds' music store ; married Adelaide H. Scott ; one son ; resides in Milford.

JOHN J. ROGERS.—Graduated from St. Anselm's college and Laval university ; received M. A. degree from St. Anselm's college, 1897 ; worked among striking miners in Pennsylvania and striking mill workers in Fall River ; has been located in various places in Massachusetts, making a specialty of work among the French ; is now in Great Barrington, Mass.

FRANCIS H. SWIFT.—Attended St. Anselm's college, and Grand seminary, Montreal ; graduated from St. Mary's seminary, Baltimore ; ordained to priesthood and is now stationed in Worcester.

GERTRUDE M. TAFT.—Was a seamstress ; married George Arthur Hall, Oct. 14, 1908 ; resides in Milford.

DANIEL M. TULLY.—Was a clerk in the local post-office ; attended St. Mary's college and Laval university, Montreal ; American College Propoganda university, Rome, Italy ; now a priest ; present residence, Beaven Kelly House, Holyoke, Mass.

CLASS OF '93.

MAY B. CHENEY.—Lived for a time in Milford, and was employed in the office of a shoe factory in Brockton ; is now bookkeeper for J. S. Bailey Co., Worcester ; present residence, 146 Main street, Worcester.

AGNES T. CONLIN.—Was a proof reader ; married John F. Lennon, compositor, Jan. 11, 1898 ; three children, James H., Warren and Rita ; resides at 329 West Ave., Pawtucket, R. I.

ANNIE C. GATES.—Graduated from Wellesley college, and took special courses in Harvard university, Columbia university, Brookline training school, Normal Art school, Boston, and University of Chicago; taught languages in a boarding school in San Antonio, Texas, and literature and history in private schools in New York; has conducted a Girls' camp and traveled in Europe, and is at present teaching in the Graham school, with residence at 143 W. 86th street, New York City.

M. BESSIE GATES.—Attended Wellesley college and Pratt institute, Brooklyn; taught school for a time, and has resided at Denver, Colo., and Duluth, Minn.; married Frank E. Congdon, electrician in telephone service, Sept. 10, 1899; three children; present residence, 320 Highland Ave., Upper Montclair, N. J.

KATHERINE G. GILMORE.—Attended Bridgewater Normal school, and taught in the local public schools; was married; has died.

MARY T. HASKELL.—Was a bookkeeper in local business houses; married Harry E. Thomas, machinist, May 22, 1901; one son, Francis H.; is clerk of Pine street Baptist church; resides at Milford.

ALICE P. HAVNER.—Attended Burdett Business college; was bookkeeper and stengrapher in Boston and Milford, and is now similarly employed with the Milford Iron Foundry; resides at Milford.

ELLA M. JEWELL.—Married C. Herbert Morse, plumber, June 10, 1896; two sons, Lyle J., and Roy C., both living; has resided at St. Johnsbury, Vt., Boston, Newburyport and Haverhill, her present residence.

CLARENCE A. JONES.—Worked in Boston music store and studied music; taught music and was organist in several places; took special course at Harvard and travelled abroad; now has studio in Steinert Hall, Boston.

ANNA M. J. KEHOE.—Attended Worcester Normal school, and taught in Worcester; married John J. Power, Oct., 1905; two children; resides at 1 Granite street, Worcester.

MARTIN E. KELLEY.—Attended the Massachusetts College of Pharmacy ; is married ; two children ; is now proprietor of the drug store in Waltham, where he has been since graduation.

ALICE G. LANIGAN.—Has resided at Springfield ; has been employed by a kindergarten supply house ; present residence, 69 Turner street, Brockton.

EDITH L. C. MORIARTY.—Lived at home after graduation until her marriage to Joseph Kynoch ; one child ; resided at South Framingham ; died March, 1910.

HATTIE M. PARKHURST.—Graduated from Wellesley college and taught in the public schools ; died March 30, 1900.

FRANK A. THAYER.—Was employed in a local newspaper office, and later in a leather house in Boston ; died at Milford Aug. 25, 1895.

GRACE THOMAS.—Lived at home here until her removal with her parents to Taunton ; was a pupil of Professor Baerman and studied languages at Berlitz school, Boston ; has been engaged as a music teacher ; married Charles H. Flood, June 5, 1902 ; two children, one living ; present residence, 51 Salisbury Road, Brookline.

JEANETTE TROWBRIDGE.—Attended Wellesley college a year ; has lived at home, with present residence at 22 Beech street, South Framingham.

CORA M. WHITNEY.—Is an accomplished violinist and a teacher of that instrument ; married Richard W. Davis, June 1903 ; two children, one living ; present residence, 41 Richmond avenue, Worcester.

PAUL WILLIAMS.—Is a typewriter and insurance broker, with office at home here.

CLARENCE H. WOODBURY.—Died Aug. 2, 1893.

CLASS OF '94.

MAY G. BRODERICK.—Learned dressmaking, and is so engaged, living at home here.

BLANCHE M. BURBANK.*—Lived at home for a time ; was later employed in Boston and Worcester; married Edward W. Dodge, clerk, July 10, 1901; resides at Worcester.

EDWARD J. BURKE.—Is a moulder, and is employed at Hopedale; married Annie Quigley, Feb. 19, 1901; resides at Milford.

ROSANNA G. CASEY.—Has been employed in a local shoe factory; is now waitress at Hotel Willian.

JENNIE M. DANIELS.—Married Albert C. Rhodes, machinist, June 22, 1897; died Nov. 2, 1898.

MARGARET DAVOREN.—Graduated from Framingham Normal school, and is now teaching in the local schools.

ANNIE I. FLETCHER.—Was employed in a local straw factory; married Albion H. French, teamster, Nov. 29, 1898; resides at Hopedale.

EDITH M. FLETCHER.—Was engaged as a stenographer; married Arthur Lamson, druggist, June 7, 1900; one son; resides at Upton.

JOHN A. GORMAN.*—Attended Boston University law school; was a clothing salesman, and later was in the advertising department of the National Magazine; is now an advertising specialist in Boston; said to have married a Miss Lovejoy; residence at Dorchester.

HELEN S. HARRIS.—Graduated from Smith college; married Chester F. Williams in 1906; residence, Milford.

SADIE G. KELLEY.—Was a stenographer; married John F. Hannelley, who died in Feb., 1909, in Waltham.

JOHN A. McNAMARA.*—Attended Holy Cross college, and Notre Dame university, Indiana; was ordained to the priesthood at Dunwoodie seminary, Yonkers, N. Y., in June, 1901, and was temporarily assigned to a curacy at Flagstaff, Arizona; has since been located at Dobbs Ferry, N. Y.; home address, Milford.

MARY E. MIDDLETON.—Graduated from Framingham Normal school, and is now teaching in the South Framingham schools.

ANNIE M. QUINN.—Was a bookkeeper and resided at Worcester; died July, 1902.

ALBERT C. RHODES.—Is a machinist; married Jennie M. Daniels, June 22, 1897; she died Nov. 2, 1898; married Florence E. Snow of Mendon, June 27, 1900; present residence, Hopedale

FRANK A. SHEA.*—Attended Dartmouth college for a time; was later employed at Hopedale, and resides at Milford.

FREDERICK T. SMITH.—Was foreman in the Hopedale works, and clerk in a local railroad office; is an excellent tenor vocalist, and has sung in several local church choirs; is now at 14 Jacques street, Somerville.

JOHN C. SWEENEY.—Graduated from Boston college, and was a student at St. Mary's seminary, Baltimore, preparing for the priesthood at the time of his death, Nov. 1, 1900.

MABEL WHITNEY.—Attended Smith college, but health conditions prevented the completion of the course; has since lived at home with her parents here and at Waltham, her present residence; received diploma for three-year course at Museum of Fine Arts, Boston.

CHESTER F. WILLIAMS.—Graduated from Dartmouth college; taught school at Providence; received degree of LL. B. from Harvard University Law school; married Helen S. Harris in 1906 and returned to Milford, his present residence, where he is practising law and is associate justice of the district court.

CLASS OF '95.

ELMER W. ADAMS.*—Has been employed as a bookkeeper in a local box factory since graduation, and is still so engaged.

THOMAS E. BARNS.—Has been and is still in the Milford National bank; appointed cashier in 1909; married Florence M. Whitney of Marlboro, N. H., April 24, 1907.

FANNIE E. BRADBURY.—Graduated from Tufts college in 1899; taught in the Amherst high school, Shelton, Conn., and Athol, Mass.; married Willis E. Goodhue July 29, 1908; husband died Feb., 1909; is teaching in Shelton, Conn.

BESSIE I. COOK.—Married Arthur R. Lent, March 1, 1898; two children, one living; resides at 1021 Dorchester Ave., Dorchester.

HANNAH G. CURLEY.—Was a milliner; has lived in Boston, Providence, and Milford; married Dr. De Coursey Driscoll; residence at East Weymouth.

BRIDGET A. DOHERTY.—Has lived at home here since graduation.

KATHERINE B. EGAN.—Cashier and bookkeeper at Walcott's dry goods store.

JOHN V. GALLAGHER.—Graduated from Boston college, and Tufts college medical school in 1902; one year interne at Long Island hospital; is a member of the school board and one of the school physicians; now practising in Milford.

CORNELIUS J. LYNCH.—Graduated from Holy Cross college and the Harvard medical school; is now a physician at Quincy, Mass.

JOHN FRANCIS MADDEN.—Shipping clerk in Hopedale; married Catherine Hayden Sept., 1899; four children, only one living; wife is dead.

MARY J. MCQUAID.*—Was a clerk and has resided here and at Pawtucket, R. I., her present residence.

MARY E. MULLANE.—Attended Worcester Normal school, and has taught continually in Milford schools.

EFFIE A. NELSON.—Bookkeeper and clerk in the office of Judge Clifford A. Cook.

JOANNA C. THAYER.—Married William B. Earl, Oct. 12, 1904; two children; resides in Leominster.

ARTHUR B. WHITNEY.*—Graduated from Tufts college in 1899, and Harvard divinity school; ordained to the Unitarian ministry, and has held pastorates at Passaic, N. J., Saco, Maine, and Plymouth, Mass., his present residence; married Alice Low at Ridgewood, N. J., in 1907; two children.

EDITH G. WILKINSON.—Married Alton H. Metcalf, Feb. 9, 1898 ; three children, two living.

ETHEL WILLIAMS.—Graduated from Mt. Holyoke college ; studied music and taught in high schools ; married Sumner C. Reynolds in 1908 ; one daughter.

CLASS OF '96.

BERTRAM A. ALBRO.—Graduated from Boston university in 1900 ; taught in the Hopedale high school ; in Philippines two years ; since in high schools in Rutland, Princeton, Southbridge and Fitchburg ; now in the De Lancey school, Philadelphia ; married Miss Ffa Ward, 1911.

GEORGE W. BILLINGS.—Graduated from Harvard university in 1900, and has since been engaged in his father's newspaper office ; married Adeline C. Teele, Aug. 17, 1907 ; one son, Robert T.

JOHN H. BIRCH.—Was railroad station agent at Grafton, and afterward at Brighton in the same business ; took course in Bryant & Stratton's Commercial school ; time-keeper and draughtsman in local quarries ; bookkeeper at Hopedale ; now with Norcross Bros., Stony Creek, Conn. ; married Laila Staples at Holbrook, Mass., May 5, 1906 ; one child.

BERTHA A. CLARK.—Has been engaged as bookkeeper and collector, and resides with her parents ; now in Clark Ellis & Sons' store here.

WALTER L. COLLINS.—Is an architect ; married Lillian E. Fales, Dec. 25, 1901 ; four children.

MARTIN J. COCNEY.*—Was a clerk in a local bakery ; attended Tufts college medical school one year, and graduated from the Baltimore medical school ; home address, Milford ; practising temporarily in New York City.

ANNE G. DAVOREN.—Is a milliner, and resides in Milford.

ELLA M. EATON.—Attended Boston university one year ; taught three years in the public schools of Harvard ; married Edgar P. Cleaves, July 8, 1900 ; three children ; resides in Harvard.

MARY C. HARRIS.—Graduated from Smith college in 1900, and has since lived at home here.

ADELAIDE F. LARKIN.—Is a stenographer, and resides at home.

LILLIE E. LOWELL.—Graduated from Framingham Normal school; taught in institutions for the blind at Boston and New York; married Oliver P. Tyler, Jan. 3, 1901; three children; resides at 5 Franconia street, Worcester.

LOTTIE A. MACUEN.—Married Bernard N. Rogers, shoe cutter, July 16, 1896; six children; lives at Hopedale.

KATHRYN E. MORIARTY.—Was a stenographer; graduated from Comer's Commercial college, Boston; married John P. Remick, Jan., 1909.

M. GERTRUDE MOWRY.—Has taught school in Attleboro and Providence; is now a graduate nurse; residence, Milford.

WILLIAM D. NUGENT.—Was a salesman for a publishing house; graduated from Boston college, and is now advertising manager for the Philadelphia Record; married Julia J. Sullivan of Newton; three children.

THOMAS J. NUGENT.—Graduated from Tufts college dental school in 1900, and is now practising dentistry in Milford; married Grace Coyne.

HELENA F. SWIFT.—Attended normal schools at Worcester and South Framingham, and is now teaching in the local schools.

JOHN E. SWIFT.—Graduated from Boston college in 1899, and the Boston university law school in 1902; is now a lawyer, member of Milford school committee, and is town treasurer.

MAUD E. TAFT.—Lived at home for a year, and graduated from Boston university in 1901; married Orlo J. Fiske, June 17, 1903; present address, Temple, N. H.

ANNIE M. THAYER.—Attended Burnham school, Northampton, one year; married Ernest Perry, June 20, 1910; present residence, Milford.

ARTHUR WRIGHT.—Took three years of the high school course with the class of '91, and the fourth with the class of '96; graduated from Boston university in 1901, and the Theological school; has held pastorates at West Medway, Atlantic, Charlemont, North Dana, Prescott, Warren and Worcester; is now at Needham Heights; married Miss Winifred Wright, June, 1903; one son.

CLASS OF '97.

WILLIAM F. CLANCY.—Has been a clerk in local stores, and still resides in Milford; is in the real estate and insurance business and is a member of the board of assessors.

KATHERINE B. CONELY.—Attended Worcester Normal school, and is now teaching in the local schools.

MABEL F. CONNER.—Was married Jan. 11, 1898, to Forrest W. Nichols, clerk; one son, George E.; resides at 4 Dutcher street, Hopedale.

WILLIAM H. COY.—Did not graduate but was made a member of the Graduates' Association by vote in 1901; was a clerk in a local drug store; is now a drug clerk in Northboro, Mass.

STANLEY DONAHOE.—Was first sergeant in Co. M, 6th Mass. regiment, which served in Porto Rico in the Spanish-American war; was a machinist in the employ of a local street railway company; is now a grain salesman; present residence, Hopedale.

ETHEL J. EMERY.—Attended New England Conservatory of Music; bookkeeper and music teacher; present residence, Arlington.

ANNA M. FISHER.—Was a clerk in a local dry goods store; has bought the millinery business of the late Mrs. R. T. Gardiner.

ANNIE I. GILMORE.—Attended Framingham Normal school; is now a bookkeeper for the Milford Daily News Co., and resides at 141 West street.

WILLIAM GORMAN.—Was foreman at the Dennison Mfg.

Co. at South Framingham; married Florence Cook, who died in 1911; one child; resides in Los Angeles, Cal.

JOSEPH T. HIGGINS.—Was for a time with wholesale carpet houses in Boston; was also employed in the office of local quarries; present residence, Somerville, where he is employed by a stone concern.

JESSIE E. HOWE.—Was for a time a milliner; has resided at Milford, Garden City, N. Y., Newark, N. J., and Kearney, her present residence; married Robert Smith in March, 1909; two children.

FREDERICK E. LIBBY.—Attended Boston university; was in the hotel business in Winthrop in 1902-03; teacher and superintendent of schools in Porto Rico, 1904-1908; general superintendent of schools for the Island 1908 and 1909; Assistant Commissioner of Education for Porto Rico; married Maria Cistero y Guardiola; five children.

ALICE L. LUBY.—Attended Worcester Normal school; has resided at Warren and is now living at home and teaching in the local schools.

GRACE T. OSBORNE.—Graduated from Smith college; married E. C. Hayes in April, 1903; two children; resides in Acton.

GERTRUDE T. PRATT.—Married Frank Thompson, now deceased; married Arthur Booth Nov. 11, 1911; present residence, Buffalo, N. Y.

ARTHUR W. ROBERTS.—Was a traveling salesman for a firm making computation scales; now with his father here in the tobacco business.

MAY E. ROCKWOOD.—Took private instruction in music and was a music teacher; married Fred K. Brown and resides in Mendon; one daughter.

SUSIE A. RYAN.—Graduated at Framingham Normal school and taught in the local schools; married John Sweeney; present residence, So. Lawrence, Mass.

ADELAIDE H. SCOTT.—Married Stephen H. Reynolds in May, 1907; one son, Clinton H.

ANNIE L. SHEEHAN.—Graduated from Framingham Normal school and taught in Milford; married John F. Sunderland; one child; resides in Fordham, N. Y.

ELLEN M. SULLIVAN.—Graduated from Framingham Normal school and taught in Milford; married William G. O'Donnell; one child; resides in Milford.

JOHN F. SUNDERLAND.—Was employed in a local cigar store; married Annie L. Sheehan; one child; is a salesman at Fordham, N. Y.

LILLA M. SUMNER.—Attended Howard seminary, Bridgewater; married Clarence A. Cushman, manager of packing concern, Sept. 5, 1900, and has resided in five different cities since marriage; four children; present residence, Toronto, Canada.

CHARLES B. WOOD.—Enlisted as musician with Co. M, 6th Mass regiment, and served in the Spanish-American war in Porto Rico; now a shipping clerk at Hopedale; resides in Milford.

CLASS OF '98.

ETHEL M. BARTLETT.—Married Ernest A. Bragg, draughtsman, Oct. 25, 1900, three children; residence, 17 South Main street, Milford.

NELLIE F. BIRCH.—Married George W. Ellis, hardware dealer, Sept. 25, 1900; two children, one son, George W. jr., living; lives at Milford.

BESSIE J. BLOOD.*—Was employed as a stenographer in Boston; married Warren D. Stimpson, Aug. 18, 1904; one adopted child; residence, Worcester.

PATRICK J. BURKE.—Is clerk in a local clothing store.

SARAH G. BURNS.—Married Charles F. Neal, Oct. 21, 1903; has children; lives in Milford.

PEARLE P. BUXTON.—Attended Emerson College of Oratory; married Fred W. Morlock, at Rockland, Feb. 3, 1899; two children; is a dramatic reader and teacher of elocution; has resided at Boston, Cambridge and Cleveland, Ohio, her present residence.

BLANCHE M. GARDNER.—Attended a kindergarten training school in Boston, and taught for a time in Hopedale; married Arthur B. Edmands; died August, 1906.

GEORGE W. GILLON.—Was employed in the office of a hat factory in Danbury, Conn.; died Sept. 20, 1906.

BLANCHE A. GOLDSMITH.—Was assistant bookkeeper; married J. Allen Wallace, June 19, 1907; one son.

NINA E. JOHNSTON.—Was bookkeeper in her father's office; married Charles S. Mullane, June 11, 1912; residence, Milford.

BELVA K. KIBBY.—Lived at home and was employed in a local straw factory; married Munsell H. Gage at West Dennis, March 31, 1900; four children; has traveled extensively with her husband in the United States; present residence, 5 Orchard street, East Hartford, Conn.

MARY E. LIBBY.—Graduated from Boston university; taught for three years; worked in an office; married David P. Fletcher, Nov. 24, 1909; one child; present residence, 731 Broadway, Somerville, Mass.

J. FRED McDONOUGH.*—Attended Boston college; ordained as a Catholic priest and located for several years past at Denver; home address, Milford.

MARY F. McNARY. Is a bookkeeper and resides with her parents here.

MARY C. PRENTICE.—Took vocal instruction and for a time sang in a local church choir; married Rev. Arthur W. Moulton, July 4, 1906; one son, John; is living in Lawrence.

MICHAEL F. REYNOLDS.—Was a clerk in a local news and periodical store; graduated from Chicago-Kent College of Law June, 1911; married Margaret E. Hickey Sept. 5, 1911; present residence, 2520 Lexington street, Chicago.

LLOYD F. ROBERTS.—Was clerk in a local shoe store; attended Burdett Business college, Boston; was employed as bookkeeper, and is now manager of stock department and general office manager of the A. F. Smith Co., Lynn, Mass.

LILLIAN M. SHERMAN.—Married Winfred Temple, Nov. 5 1900; four children; is taking a course in dressmaking from a correspondence school; present residence, Hopkinton.

GEORGIANNA J. SPAULDING.*—Has been employed in Boston and New York, and was in the office department of R. H. White & Co., Boston.

ALZIE R. STAPLES.—Works for the Avery & Woodbury Co., and lives at home in South Milford.

LILLIAN P. SWASEY.—Was a stenographer in a local law office; is now clerk in the local post-office; has resided at Burlington, Vt., and at home here.

GENEVIEVE M. TOOHEY.—Graduated from Normal Art school in Boston and is now supervisor of drawing in the Milford schools.

LEROY TUCKER.—Graduated from Boston university; married Alice A. Jones of Fitchburg, Jan. 27, 1910; one child; is a bedding manufacturer; present residence, 87 Rolfe street, Auburn, R. I.

MARY A. TUCKER.—Graduated from Burdett Business college; bookkeeper for Boston Sign Co.; present address, 34 Cornhill, Boston.

LELIA A. WALKER.—Graduated from Lasell seminary, Auburndale, in June, 1901; married Frederic A. Saunders, April 12, 1904; one son; present residence, Deep River, Conn.

CHARLES E. WHITNEY, JR.—Was employed for a time in local factories, and in the office of the Draper Co. at Hopedale; took a course in dentistry, and is now practising in Milford.

CLASS OF '99.

WILLIAM H. BARRY.—Has been employed at Hopedale; is a clerk, and resides at home here.

GEORGE W. BENT.*—Was a machinist at Hopedale; resides in Worcester, where he is a member of the Worcester Board of Trade Glee club.

MILDRED F. BLISS.—Removed to Coldbrook Springs, Mass., where she kept her father's books; married Dr. J. E. Pickering; present residence, Barre Plains, Mass.

LOUISE O. CARBARY.—Was a clerk in a local real estate office; is now a saleslady in Hopedale, and lives at home here.

INEZ E. CLARK.*—Was employed for a time in the straw factory; assisted in her mother's boarding-house here; married James Furse; one child; present address, 91 Front street, Weymouth, Mass.

NETTIE S. DEARING.—Had a position as stenographer and typewriter with a Portland, Maine, law firm; married Carl Carter of Lynn, in 1906; present residence, 17 Scott street, Woburn, Mass.

GILBERT C. EASTMAN.—Graduated from Norwich university, Northfield, Vt., as civil engineer, and is now in the employ of Draper Co. in that capacity; married Maude N. Downing, June 15, 1904; one child; resides at 139 Congress street.

LILLIAN E. FALES.—Was employed as stenographer in a local architect's office; married Walter L. Collins, Dec. 25, 1901; four children; is living in Milford.

EVA L. GASKILL.—Attended Burdett Business college, Boston; worked as stenographer; married George E. Joslin, June 26, 1907; one child; lives in Caryville, Mass.

MARY T. GILMORE.—Graduated from Framingham Normal school in June, 1901; is a teacher and lives in Milford.

ETHELYN E. HARDING.—Married Clarence E. Arnold, June 23, 1908; present residence, Hopedale.

WILLIAM H. HARVEY.*—Removed to Medway and later to Upton, where he was engaged in farming; now employed by Draper Co.; married Lillian Holbrook; one child, adopted.

ADELAIDE M. HAYES.*—Removed to South Framingham, her present residence.

BERTHA A. LELAND.—Graduated from Framingham Normal school in June, 1901; taught until her marriage to John E. Woodbury, Aug. 18, 1903; three children; present residence, Derby Farm, Dublin, N. H.

FRANCIS J. McNARY.*—Was clerk in a local grocery store, and is now driver for a local laundry; married Nellie Fitzsimmons; one son.

HELEN I. POND.—Bookkeeper and stenographer in the office of the local street railway company; married Darcy A. Young, January 1, 1905; one son.

FLORENCE S. PRATT.—Graduated from the Massachusetts Normal Art school in Boston; teaches drawing in Medway, Holliston and Hopkinton schools, and resides with her parents here.

ROY A. SADLER.—Graduated from Phillips-Exeter academy, from Harvard university, and from Harvard Medical school, in 1907; house physician at Mass. General hospital, sixteen months; Children's hospital in Boston, six months; is now practising medicine in Boston, with residence at 416 Marlboro street.

MARY A. SHEEHAN.—Is a cashier and lives in Milford.

MARY E. SMITH.—Lives at home with her parents here.

JOHN A. WALLACE.—Was bookkeeper in a local coal and wood office; is now in the Home National Bank; married Blanche A. Goldsmith, June 19, 1907; one son; lives in Milford.

CLASS OF 1900.

LIDA M. ADAMS.—Is a bookkeeper and lives at home.

MARGUERITE A. BURKE.*—Was a clerk in the office of the town clerk; is now clerk in one of the departments of R. H. White & Co., Boston; home address, Milford.

EILEEN A. CAHILL.—Is a milliner and lives at home here.

JAMES J. CASEY.*—Attended a commercial school at Boston and lives at home here.

DEBORAH B. CLANCY.*—Was a stenographer in a local shoe factory ; is attending Dr. Sargent's School of Physical Culture and lives in Milford.

ROSE G. COPPINGER.—Is a stenographer and bookkeeper and is employed in Boston ; home address, Milford.

HELEN E. COX.—Was a bookkeeper ; is now living at her home here.

WILLIAM A. COYNE.*—Was employed in a local clothing store, and in a local shoe store ; married Grace Cronan in 1907 ; one child ; residence, Milford.

ANNIE JEANETTA DONAHOE.—Was employed for a time as clerk ; married Enoch Steere in December, 1902 ; three children ; present residence, North Scituate, R. I.

WILLIAM F. GLENNON.—Was employed in the Hopedale works ; also worked in Lawrence, Worcester and Boston ; is now chief electrician in chief engineer's department at B. F. Keith's Theatre, Boston.

JAMES S. GRAVEN.—Has been engaged at bookkeeping in Boston and Milford ; married Mary MacNeil, May 24, 1909 , present residence, Everett, Mass.

GRACE HILTON.—Married Millard Macuen ; four children, three living ; resides in Milford.

FRANK ROY HIXON.—Graduated from Dean Academy and Mass. College of Pharmacy ; is bacteriologist for A. Brigham Co., milk contractors, Cambridge ; married Elizabeth A. Swasey, June 4, 1905 ; lives in Milford.

ERNEST H. JACKMAN.*—Learned the printing trade in a local newspaper office and was later employed in Worcester.

MARIAN LENT.—Lived at home with her parents until her death, March 13, 1902.

CLARA L. LIBBY.—Is keeping house for her immediate family and is living at 731 Broadway, Somerville, Mass.

ALBERT W. LUBY.—Was clerk in a local store and later employed in a machine shop ; is living at home here and is now in the moving picture business with his brothers.

MARY MCNAMARA.*—Attended Boston university ; home address, Milford.

ANNIE R. McNARY.*—Is a clerk in a local dry goods store, and lives at home here.

EDWARD A. MEAD.—Graduated at Phillips-Exeter academy in June, 1901, entered Massachusetts Institute of Technology later; is now engineer for New England Telephone & Telegraph Co. in Worcester; is married.

FRED H. MORIARTY.—Was freight clerk in a local railroad office and is now clerk in a variety store on Main street; married Anna L. Casey of Worcester, Aug. 16, 1909.

MINNIE J. MORIARTY.—Living at home here.

ANDREW D. MORSE.—Was employed at Hopedale; is a private secretary in the office of the Dennison Co. at South-Framingham; married Charlotte Perkins in October, 1903; resides at South Framingham.

EDWARD D. MURRAY.*—Is clerk in a local clothing store, and lives at home.

JENNIE F. PARKINSON.*—Was employed in a local straw factory for a time and is now in a convent in the South.

JULIA A. RANAHAN.—Assisting in the home duties and engaged in hatmaking.

WILLIAM T. ROCHE.*—Was a core-maker and an agent; was also for a time a substitute mail carrier at the local post-office.

DAISY F. ROCKWOOD.*—Attended a shorthand school in Boston and was private secretary in the office of the general manager of the Boston Elevated Co.; married William Small, and resides in Boston.

MARY SCHIBAL.—Was clerk in a local dry goods store and is now employed as cashier; married William H. Simonds; has sung in church choirs in Milford and vicinity; resides in Milford.

ANNIE I. SHIPPEE.*—Is a stenographer and was employed in a local law office; home address Holliston.

ELIZABETH A. SWASEY.—Was graduated from a kindergarten training school in Boston; married Frank Roy Hixon June 4, 1905; resides in Milford.

MARION L. TOMPKINS.—Was employed in her father's variety store; married J. Melzar Bray; lived the past year in California; now in Milford.

GEORGE WARDELL.*—Was a private in the United States marines and stationed at Charlestown, Washington, D. C., and Portsmouth, N. H.; was discharged for disability and is now at home in Milford.

HARRY L. WILLARD.—Is a clerk and stenographer; married Alice F. Bowen; one son.

CLASS OF '01.

ETHEL H. ALDRICH.—Married Harry D. Whitney; Oct. 8, 1907; one daughter; is an accomplished violinist; residence, Milford.

BEATRICE M. BOURNE.—Graduated from Emerson College of Oratory, Boston; married F. H. Lally, M. D.; one son; present residence, Milford.

CLARA L. BRAYNE.—Married George M. Ray, Sept., 1908; one child; residence, Milford.

CHARLES E. BURBANK.—Married Alice Moulton; wife died, Dec. 25, 1907; was in California at last accounts.

GEORGE C. CADMAN.—Engaged in farming, with residence at Milford.

EDWARD J. CUDDIHY.*

MARCIA S. DENNISON.*

KATHARINE L. GILLON.*—Taught for several years in the local schools, and is at present at home in Milford.

HELEN J. GILMORE.—Graduated from Bay Path institute; taught in high school at Littleton, N. H., one year; received a diploma from Rochester Business institute; has been commercial teacher in the local high school the past six years.

CHARLES S. HILTON.—Is cashier for the Pawtucket Gas and Electric Co.; married Annie L. Crofts; one child.

BERTHA F. JOHNSON.—Was graduated from a New York medical college, and had extended hospital experience in that city; practised successfully in New Jersey and New York; lived for a time in France, and later at Wellesley ; is now at 137 W. 177th street, New York.

JAMES E. KAVANAUGH.—Is a clerk and resides at 11 Fruit street, Milford.

VIOLA F. LELAND.—Graduated from Framingham Normal school ; taught in Westerly, R. I., and Attleboro, Mass. ; now teaching in Dedham ; home address, Highland street, Milford.

MARIA G. MARTIN.*

HERBERT MCKENNA.*

WILLIAM S. MORAN.*—Living in Milford.

EDWARD J. MURPHY.—Is clerk in a local grocery store.

LEON PARTRIDGE.—Resides at Cornish, Maine.

EVA E. PHIPPS.—Bookkeeper and stenographer for a time ; married Robert Allen Cook, June, 1911 ; resides at Milford.

LILLIAN L. SHEDD.—Is a bookkeeper and lives at home.

ETHEL M. SMITH.—Married William L. Peck ; resides at Franklin, Mass.

MAUDE SNARE.—Was recording clerk in Probate court, Portland, Maine ; married Herbert K. Washburn of Portland, her present residence.

CARRIE E. WALKER.—Married Frank L. Flanders, June, 1904 ; one daughter ; residence, Hopedale.

ETHEL C. WHITE.—Was graduated from Burdett college ; employed by A. Winslow & Co., Boston, for nine years ; married Ralph Mosher ; one child ; lives in Milford.

S. ALINE WILLIS.—Married George T. Butterworth ; three children ; resides at Braintree, Mass.

CLASS OF '02.

MOLLIE A. ADAMS.—Married Perley E. Jeffrey ; two children ; present residence, Milford.

ROBERT M. BISBEE.—Graduated from Wesleyan university ; engaged in the automobile tire business ; married M. L.

Higgins, Dec., 1905; two children; present residence, 81 Willow street, Providence, R. I.

GRACE FRANCES BROWN.*—Married Frank L. Nelson; lives at 39 Pierce street, New Bedford, Mass.

EVA CADMAN.—Graduated from Woonsocket Commercial school, 1903; was employed by Greene Bros.; married Fred L. Mead; resides in Milford.

ATTILIO H. CENEDELLA.—Attended Phillips-Exeter academy; was graduated from Massachusetts Institute of Technology, as civil engineer; now superintendent of construction for Cenedella & Co.; address, Milford.

BENJAMIN J. CLANCEY.—Took a course at Bryant & Stratton's Commercial college; was in the real estate and insurance business, and is now a partner in a dry goods business in Milford.

WINNIFRED M. BROUGHEY.—Working in Boston and living at home here.

JAMES A. CLANCY.*—Graduated from University of Cincinnati; is a civil engineer; is in Chicago.

DANIEL H. CLANCY.—Undertaker and lives in Weymouth.

WILLIAM S. CLARKE.—Graduated from Norwich university, Vt.; pay master's clerk in government service in the Philippines.

O. CHRISTINE CRICKETT.—Took a course of shorthand in private school in Portland; taught school; graduated from Pratt institute, taking course in domestic science; teacher of domestic science in Second Ward schools in Alleghany, Pa.; married Paul E. Hundertmark, in the fall of 1910; one child, not living; present residence, East Brady, Pa.

GEORGE D. CURTIN.—Registered pharmacist; lives in Milford.

MARY E. DELASKEY.—Graduate nurse; is at the City hospital, Providence, R. I.

JAMES E. DEMPSEY.—Graduated from Holy Cross college and Harvard medical school; is at St. Vincent's hospital, Worcester.

NORA G. DOLAN.—Is teaching; present residence, 155 Van Buren street, Passaic, N. J.

FRANCES V. GORMAN.—Graduated from Framingham Normal school, 1904; taught in Milford public schools until her marriage, June 17, 1908, to J. Edmund Sullivan; living in Milford.

FLORENCE V. GORMAN.—Graduated from Framingham Normal school, 1904; taught in Milford public schools until her marriage, June 23, 1909, to Charles H. Dowdell; one child.

MARIETTA L. KIRBY.—Graduated from Boston University; school teacher; is in Roxbury.

ELIZABETH M. MCNAMARA.—Graduated from Framingham Normal school; taught in Milford public schools until 1912; at present supervisor of music in Milford schools.

ALICE N. MOULTON.—Married Charles Burbank; one child; went to California for her health and died there Dec. 25, 1907.

ANNA H. POND.—Is a dressmaker; future occupation, home-keeper; present residence, Mendon, Mass.

SUSAN E. RANAHAN.—Graduated from Framingham Normal school; is a school teacher and lives in Milford.

BEATRICE A. REYNOLDS.—Was a milliner; married Arthur R. Robinson, June 14, 1911; present residence, 10 Hawthorne street, Bradford, Mass.

BERTHA I. SNARE.—Stenographer in a law office and lives in Milford.

LOUISE R. SWASEY.—Bookkeeper and stenographer; has been engaged at Worcester and Chicago, and is now in the office of the Grafton & Upton railroad at Milford.

KATHERINE A. SWEENEY.—Lives at home here.

ELIZABETH I. WATKINS.—Employed as compositor in the office of the Milford Gazette until her marriage to Edwin F. Clarridge, Oct. 19, 1909; lives in Hopedale.

HARRY D. WHITNEY.—Post-office clerk; married Ethel H. Aldrich, Oct. 8, 1907; one daughter; lives in Milford.

ANNA R. WHITE.—Bookkeeper and stenographer ; lives in Milford.

CLASS OF '03.

ELLEN J. BROSNAHAN.—Attended Boston Normal school; is a teacher ; present residence, 100 I street, South Boston.

LILLIAN M. CALLANAN.—Studied music at Dean academy and Boston ; taught music for five years ; married John L. McTiernan, Oct. 12, 1908 ; living in Milford.

JENNIE L. CLARK.—Present residence, 17 Morey street, Attleboro, Mass.

JENNIE V. HARTWELL.—Is a clerk and lives in Milford.

ELIZABETH V. HAYES.—Is a clerk and lives in Milford.

FLORENCE HOWE.—Was a compositor in Milford Daily Journal office ; married Charles J. Harmon, June 7, 1909 ; lives in Milford.

CLARENCE L. HUSSEY.—Graduated from Mass. Institute of Technology ; is a mechanical engineer ; lives at 1549 Smith street, Providence.

MARY C. IDE.—Attended Framingham Business college ; is a stenographer ; has been employed in Worcester, Spokane, Wash., and Boston ; now resides in Milford.

MARY D. JACKSON.—Is living with her parents, at 136 Austin street, Worcester.

UNA K. KEANEY.—Is a bookkeeper and lives in Milford.

E. FLETCHER LYFORD.—Graduated from Dean Academy, Massachusetts Institute of Technology ; assistant chemist, Cinclare Central Factory, Cinclare, La., and Cudahy Packing Co., Omaha, Neb. ; later chemist for same company in Kansas City, Kansas ; now chief chemist for B. T. Babbitt, Inc. ; present residence, 211 Passaic street, Hackensack, N. J.

GERTRUDE L. MANN.—Graduated from Wellesley college ; married Grandville R. Jones, Nov. 24, 1910 ; one son ; present residence, Washington, D. C.

ELLEN G. MCKENNA.—Is a bookkeeper and lives in Milford.

JOHN J. McMAHON.—Graduated from Boston college ; is now studying for the priesthood in St. John's seminary at Brighton ; present address, 24 Crescent Place, Brockton, Mass.

MARTHA G. MOORE.—Is a bookkeeper and lives in Milford.

BEATRICE SMITH.*—Lives in Edgartown, Mass.

ELMER E. THOMAS.—Studied violin for three years ; graduated from Tufts Medical school ; was house officer at Carney Hospital, South Boston ; has just completed a term of service as house officer at New York Lying-in Hospital ; present address, 61 Congress street, Milford.

PERCY L. WALKER.—Attended Worcester academy ; employed in Milford Savings Bank and lives at home here ; is treasurer of the Milford Hospital.

LESLIE C. WHITTEMORE.—Graduated from Massachusetts Institute of Technology as sanitary engineer ; draftsman with American Brass Co., Waterbury, Conn ; in engineering department of the Massachusetts State Board of Health, Boston ; chemist and bacteriologist at filtration plant in Washington, D. C. ; assistant engineer for Board of Water Supply of New York City at Cornwall and Poughkeepsie, in charge of tunnel work, and now in charge of main office of Northern Aqueduct Department ; present address Y. M. C. A., Poughkeepsie, New York.

CLASS OF '04.

FLORENCE N. ALDRICH.—Graduated from Framingham Normal school ; is teaching school in Milford and living at home.

WILLIAM F. BRADY.—Graduated from Tufts Medical school ; was in House of Providence hospital, Holyoke ; Relief hospital in Boston ; now in the City hospital, Boston.

SUSAN A. CASEY.—Married John H. Gardella, September, 23, 1908 ; lives in Milford.

ALLAN J. COOKE.—Was newspaper reporter and substitute letter carrier ; attended Dartmouth college ; now clerk in Milford post-office; married Evelyn C. Libbey, May 30, 1908; lives in Milford.

ALLEN E. DUDLEY.—Attended Framingham Business college and Boston Telegraph Institute; has been employed by Marine Transmission Co., Draper Co., and is now assistant cashier for the Stone & Webster Managing Cor.; present residence, North Abington.

WALTER V. EWING.—Graduated from Tufts Dental school; present address, 83 Main street, Webster, Mass.

IRENE K. GALLAGHER.—Graduated from Framingham Normal school; is a teacher in the local schools, and lives in Milford.

JOHN E. HANSBURY.*

ELIZABETH I. HASKELL.—Married Leonard A. Asquith, Oct. 12, 1909; present residence, 12 Burke street, Pawtucket, R. I.

FRED W. HOLLAND.*—Is employed in a local shoe factory and lives in Milford.

EVELYN C. LIBBEY.—Employed as a compositor; then in a local jewelry store until her marriage to Allan J. Cooke, May 30, 1908.

JAMES E. LUBY.—Graduated from Boston college and from Boston University Law school, J. B.; admitted to the bar in 1912; recently opened a law office in Manson Building, South Framingham; lives in Milford.

ANNA G. MARTIN.*

HELEN MEAD.—Married E. Stanley Wires, June 22, 1909; one daughter; lives in Milford.

CHARLES A. MORIARTY.—Graduated from Jefferson Medical college; interne at St. Agnes hospital, Philadelphia; appointed chief of Surgical Dispensary, St. Agnes hospital; married Mary B. Minnick, Jan. 9, 1912; present residence, 1641 Fairmount Ave., Philadelphia.

JOHN J. O'CONNOR.*

MARY F. RANAHAN.—Graduated from Framingham Normal school; is a teacher in the local schools, and lives in Milford.

C. ETTA M. RICHARDSON.*

WILLARD F. SWAN.—Learned trade of tool-maker with the Draper Co; now employed in that capacity by the Stevens-Duryea Auto. Co., Chicopee Falls, Mass.

MARION VAUGHAN.*—Removed with her parents to Middleton, Mass.

CLASS OF '05.

HANNAH E. CALLAHAN.—Graduated from Boston university, and from Boston Normal school; teaches in Boston schools; present residence, 656 Massachusetts avenue, Boston.

MARIA E. CENEDELLA.—Married Frank B. Locatelli; present residence, 45 Ibbetson street, Somerville, Mass.

HERMAN L. DILLINGHAM.—Graduated from Dartmouth college, and is now secretary of Retail Trade Board, Boston; present address, 22 Mt. Vernon street, Boston.

GRACE V. DOHERTY.—Is a bookkeeper and stenographer and lives in Milford.

M. RAY DWYER.—Graduated from the Massachusetts Normal Art school, Boston, taking the architectural and machine draughting courses; held position as architectural designer and draughter in E. B. Stratton's office, until marriage with Dr. F. A. MacKinnon, of Haverhill, Mass, in Aug., 1909; one child; present residence, 119 Elm street, Bradford, Mass.

FRANK E. GILMORE.*—Married Carrie E. Daniels, Aug. 18, 1910; is assistant superintendent of an insurance company at Marlboro.

GRACE HIGGISTON.—Graduated from Framingham Normal school; is teaching and lives in Milford.

EUNICE D. HUSSEY.—Graduated from Rhode Island School of Design; taught at Lincoln School for Girls, Providence; now engaged on magazine illustration; present residence, 1547 Smith street, Providence, R. I.

J. ROY KERR.—Attended Boston university law school; clerk in Milford post office; admitted to Massachusetts bar, Aug., 1910; married Gertrude A. Welch, Sept., 1910; lives in Milford.

EUGENIE S. KIRBY.—Died Dec. 25, 1909.

MARGARET H. McCONNACHIE.*—Is teaching school in Milford.

ISABEL L. McKENNA.—Is a telephone operator and lives in Milford.

MARY G. O'CONNOR.—Graduated from Framingham Normal school, and is teaching school in Milford.

MABEL G. QUIRK.—Is a straw operator and lives in Milford.

EDNA G. SHEA.*

CLAUDE R. SIMPSON.*

IRENE TRASK.—Is a telephone operator and lives in Milford.

HESTER M. WHITNEY.—Attended Emerson College of Oratory; is living at home in Milford.

CLASS OF '06.

HELEN S. BALLOU.—Is a supervisor at Milford telephone exchange and lives at home.

CAROLINE L. BRAGG.—Graduated from Bridgewater State Normal school; taught one year in Lincoln, R. I.; entered training school for nurses at the state sanatorium at Rutland, Mass., and is still employed there.

WALTER G. BULLARD.—Graduated from Dean academy, Franklin, and is now at the Worcester Polytechnic institute.

BERTHA A. CARR.—Graduated from Mount Ida School for Girls and Boston university; is a secretary; present residence, 160 Huntington avenue, Boston.

ALFRED B. CENEDELLA.—Graduated from Boston university law school; admitted to Massachusetts Bar association in 1910; has practised in Milford since that time.

AGNES CLANCY.—Graduated from Bay Path institute, Springfield; has since been teaching commercial branches in the Clinton high school; present address, 181 Chestnut street, Clinton.

WILLIAM J. CLANCY.*—Graduated from Holy Cross college, and is now at Harvard dental school.

GUENN COOKE.—Graduated from Wellesley college, 1910, and from Simmons college, 1911; now a private secretary; lives in Milford.

MURIEL CORNELIUS.—Was a stenographer and typewriter in the office of the Milford iron foundry; married Henry A. Moore, Sept. 16, 1908; one child; lives in Milford.

EVELYN C. CURRAN.—Graduated from the Framingham Normal school, and is now teaching in Milford public schools.

JOHN E. DOHERTY.—Graduated from Boston college, 1910; now studying in American college, Louvain, Belgium.

VIOLA ETTINGER.—Is a bookkeeper and lives in Milford.

MYRTLE R. GRANT.—Does office work and lives at 541 Central street, Franklin, Mass.

EVELINA JACKMAN.—Married Lester B. Bowen, July 1, 1911; lives at 90 Church street, Marlboro, Mass.

MARY C. KELLEY.—Graduated from Bridgewater Normal school; is teaching; lives at 46 Field street, Montello, Mass.

CHARLES F. LAVIOLETTE.—Is an architectural draughtsman and lives in Milford.

CLAIRE E. MAININI.—Graduated from Framingham Normal school, and is now at Massachusetts General hospital training school for nurses.

AGNES L. MANN.—Graduated from Wellesley college, 1910, and is living at home in Milford.

IDA V. MARTIN.—Graduated from Framingham Normal school, and is teaching in Milford public schools.

JAMES M. MCCARTHY.—Graduated from Framingham Business college and Boston Shoe and Leather school; is a leather salesman and lives in Milford.

HENRIETTA R. McKENNA.—Is a stenographer and lives in Milford.

R. ESTHER NOLAN.—Attended Bradford academy; lives in Milford.

VERONICA C. A. O'CONNOR.—Was employed as pianist with orchestra in Concord, N. H., three years; is now with an orchestra in Waltham, Mass.; present residence, 81 Bartlett street, Winter Hill, Mass.

MARY K. RANAHAN.—Is a bookkeeper and lives in Milford.

M. LILLIAN RYAN.—Is a stenographer and lives in Milford.

FLORENTIA H. SENNOTT.—Attended Framingham Normal school, one year; now employed in office work in Milford.

MARY G. SENNOTT.—Was a bookkeeper; married Mark F. O'Brien; one child; lives in Hopkinton.

IRENE SWEET.*—Attended Mount Ida School for Girls and Whitney School of Music, Boston; spent the past winter in California; lives in Milford.

GRACE C. WATERMAN.—Graduated from Tufts college, 1910; is now teaching at Fayetteville, N. Y.

VERNA WILCOX.*—Was employed for a time at the local telephone exchange and was at last reports stenographer for a Boston firm; resides in Milford.

CLASS OF '07.

EMELINE BELLAND.—Graduated from Burdett college, Boston; now employed by Corporation Security Co., Boston; lives in Milford.

ALICE L. BOYCE.*—Attended Bryant and Stratton Commercial school, Boston; worked as bookkeeper; married Albert Cashin in 1911; lives in Dorchester.

LEWIS A. BRIGHAM.—Attending Boston university; lives in Milford.

KATHRYN C. BURKE.—Graduated from Framingham Normal school ; now teaching in Milford public schools.

WILLIAM E. CURTIN.*—Is a student at Baltimore Medical college.

MAURICE J. FOLEY.*—Attended Tufts Medical school and University of Vermont ; is now a clerk in a Boston drug store.

WILLIAM J. GILMORE.—Linotype operator in the office of the Boston Post ; lives in Boston.

MARION I. GILMOUR.—Has attended Massachusetts Normal Art school five years ; expects to graduate this June ; lives in Milford.

K. MARGUERITE GLENNON.—Graduated from Framingham Normal school ; is teaching in Milford public schools.

MARY M. GLENNON.—Attended Framingham Business college ; is a stenographer and lives in Milford.

LAURA C. JOHNSTON.—Attended Burdett Business college, Boston, one year ; has just graduated from Simmons college, Boston ; lives in Milford.

HAZEL M. LELAND.—Is a bookkeeper and stenographer for W. P. Roberts ; lives in Milford.

AUSTIN E. LIVINGSTONE.—Graduated from Boston University Law school ; is an attorney-at-law, and lives at Gardner, Mass.

CATHERINE C. MCCARTHY.—Graduated from the Milford Hospital Training School for Nurses ; lives in Milford.

WILLIAM A. MURRAY.—Graduated from Boston University Law school, taking the degree LL. B., cum laude ; is a practising attorney in Boston ; lives in Milford.

AGNES NEALON.—Employed in her father's bakery, and lives in Milford.

JAMES F. O'DONNELL.*—Is a clerk in a clothing store in Milford.

MARION A. RYAN.—Graduated from Boston university ; spent a short time abroad ; is an assistant teacher in the Milford high school.

GUY E. STEELE.*—Took a course at Burdett Business college, and has since been employed as stenographer in the Boston Chamber of Commerce. Last known address, 520 Columbus Ave., Boston.

GEORGE L. TULLY.—Graduated from Harvard university and lives in Milford.

EMMA C. TREMBLEY.—Is a stenographer and lives in Milford.

EVA M. WALPOLE.—Is a bookkeeper for a Milford firm.

MILDRED E. WHITE. Graduated from Framingham Normal school; is now teaching in Whitinsville, Mass.; home address, 19 Church street, Milford.

CLASS OF '08.

GERTRUDE L. ALLEN.—Is a comptometer operator in Worcester; address, 15 William street.

FRANK CALDICOTT.*

MILDRED COOKE.—Stenographer for Archer Rubber Co.; lives in Milford.

MICHAEL F. CROCE.—Attended Worcester Polytechnic institute; is a student in University of Illinois; present address, 1012 Oregon street, Urbana, Ill.

LILLIAN I. DAVIS.—Is a stenographer; present residence, 15 William street, Worcester, Mass.

FLORENCIA A. DRONEY.—Is a commercial teacher; present address, 60 Main street, Lancaster, N. H.

ARTHUR W. EWING.—Monotype operator; present address, 72 Irving street, South Framingham, Mass.

JAMES W. M. FOLEY.*—Attended Notre Dame university one year; has been a newspaper reporter and is now coach for the high school baseball team; lives in Milford.

AMANDA G. FOSTER.—Died March 25, 1910.

MILDRED GOULDING.—Is a bookkeeper and lives in Milford.

HAROLD G. JACKMAN.—Is attending Boston university ; lives in Milford.

EDITH K. JOHNSTON.*—Has attended Boston university, graduating this year.

ELEANOR R. McCART.—Is a bookkeeper for Regal Shoe Co., Boston ; lives in Milford.

LILLIAN F. MORIARTY.*—Is a bookkeeper in the office of the Regal Shoe Co. in Boston.

ANNIE MOORE.*—Graduated from Milford Hospital Training School for Nurses, and resides in Milford.

MARGARET A. PIANCA.—Is studying in Paris ; home address is Milford.

ALTHERA A. ROBERTS.*—Soon after graduation removed with her parents to Wilmington, Mass., and was engaged as bookkeeper and stenographer in her father's office in Boston until her marriage in 1911 to Harry Fletcher ; resides in Wilmington.

LILLIAN M. SCHOONER.—Was employed in Boston ; died April 5, 1912.

EVA M. SMITH.—Graduated from Dean Academy ; attended Smith college one year ; lives in Milford.

ELEANORA M. SONNE.*—Graduated from Milford Hospital Training School for Nurses ; married Hilding Holmberg, Oct. 14, 1911 ; resides in Elgin, Ill.

ROYAL C. TAFT.—Attended Phillips-Exeter academy and Massachusetts Institute of Technology one year ; is a wholesale grain dealer ; married Marguerite D. Wood, June 1, 1911 ; present residence, 36 Calumet Road, Winchester, Mass.

BATISTA VITALINI.*—Granted diploma by Hawley School of Engineering in Boston and is soon to begin work as an electrician.

MARGARET WATKINS.—Attended Dana Hall, Wellesley ; now a student at Boston University and lives in Milford.

CLASS OF '09.

MARY E. BIRMINGHAM.—Teacher of commercial subjects in Cambridge and resides there.

CORA BISHOP.—Graduated from Burdett Business college, Boston; employed as stenographer for the John L. Mott Iron Works, Boston; married J. F. Crowley; one child; lives in Milford.

FRANK BOYLE.*—Lives in Waltham.

LILLA BOYLE.*—Music teacher; lives in Waltham.

RALPH S. BRAGG.—One of the census takers in Milford in 1910; now a student at Amherst Agricultural college.

EVA L. BURNS.—Lives at home in Milford.

GERTRUDE CONCANNON.—Graduated from Bryant and Stratton's Commercial school, Boston; is a stenographer; lives at 41 Norton street, Dorchester.

THOMAS F. DEMPSEY.*—Student at Holy Cross college, Worcester.

MARY E. DE PASQUALE.—Graduated from the Framingham Normal school; now teaching in the local schools.

CARROLL J. DUGGAN.*—Student at Harvard university.

WILLIAM F. DUNPHY.*—Student at Notre Dame university, South Bend, Indiana.

IRENE M. FULLER.—Attended Bryant and Stratton's Commercial school, Boston; employed as a stenographer in Boston; now in office of Milford Water Co.

LAURA GILMORE.—Student in the Training School for Nurses at the Milford hospital.

CHARLES W. GOULD.—Graduated from Albany Law school, Union university; has just received his master's degree from Boston University Law school; lives in Milford.

KATHERINE HAYES.—Graduated from Bay Path Institute Springfield; now teaching commercial branches at Bellows Free academy, Fairfax, Vt.

HELEN HIGGINS.—Taking design course at Massachusetts Normal Art school; lives in Milford.

IRENE C. HOGAN.—Graduated from Framingham Normal school; school teacher in Milford.

JESSIE KALTER.*—Lives in Framingham, Mass.

KATHERINE LYMAN.—Graduated from Framingham Normal school; teaching in Milford.

MAY McCART.*—Clerk in Regal Shoe Co. office, Boston; lives in Milford.

FLORENCE MCCARTHY.—Stenographer and bookkeeper, and lives in Milford.

MARION McDERMOTT.*—Stenographer in Boston, and lives in Milford.

ELIZABETH V. McNARY.—Is a clerk and lives in Milford,

GRACE I. PACKARD.*—Lives in Boston.

ESTHER G. RYAN.—Bookkeeper and lives in Milford.

DOROTHY H. SHEAN.*—Stenographer in office of Modern Priscilla Co., Boston.

FLORENCE M. WHITTEMORE.—Took a post-graduate course in Latin in Milford high school; now a student in Boston university; lives in Milford.

MILDRED WHITTEMORE.—Student at Boston university, and lives in Milford.

MARION F. WILLIAMS.—Graduated from Framingham Normal school; now teaching in grammar school in North Easton, Mass.; residence, 26 Gilbert street, South Framingham, Mass.

CLASS OF '10.

STEPHEN C. ARCHER.—Is shipping clerk and lives at 59 Irving street, South Framingham, Mass.

EDWIN BATH.—Is a salesman and lives in Milford.

LAURA E. BIGWOOD.—Is a stenographer and lives in Caryville, Mass.

FRANK COMBA.*

LUIGI DE PASQUALE.—Is attending Boston University Law school; lives in Milford.

RAYMOND J. DUNPHY.—Is a student at Bryant & Stratton's Commercial School ; lives in Milford.

HELEN HUTTON.—Attended Boston School for Social Workers ; studied domestic science at Simmons college ; lives at The Rectory, Hingham, Mass.

MABEL L. JACKMAN.—Is a bookkeeper and stenographer ; lives in Milford.

MARY E. KELLEY.—Is now a student at Westfield Normal school ; lives in Milford.

JAMES LUCHINI.—Is a student at Harvard university ; lives in Milford.

AGNES O'KEEFE.—Is a student and lives in Caryville.

THOMAS J. QUIRK.—Is a student at Holy Cross college and lives in Milford.

FLORENCE R. RAY.—Is a stenographer and lives in Milford.

WILLIAM C. ROSEN.—Graduated from Bryant & Stratton's Commercial college ; is a stenographer and lives in Milford.

SALOME F. SPRAGUE.—Is a stenographer and lives in Milford.

MARION I. TUCKER.—Took private lessons in stenography ; worked for a year in a dry goods store ; now in the office of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co ; lives in Milford.

JOSEPHINE H. WESTPHAL.—Has a clerical position in the Scottish Union and National Insurance Co., Hartford, Conn. ; residence, 944 Windsor avenue, Hartford.

OLIVE E. WHITTEMORE.—Is a bookkeeper for Werber & Rose ; lives in Milford.

CHARLES F. K. WITHERELL.—Is a pattern maker and lives in Milford.

CLASS OF '11.

HARRIET F. BURGEVIN.—Was at training school for nurses at Milford hospital, until obliged to leave on account of poor health ; lives in Milford.

ANGELINA M. CALABRESE.*—Student at Burdett Business college, Boston.

PHILIP J. CALLERY.—Student at Notre Dame university; home address, Milford.

MARY A. W. CAMERON.—Is attending Framingham Normal school; residence, Hollis street, South Framingham.

MILDRED W. CARPENTER.—Lives at home in Milford.

BLANCHE E. CELLEY.*—Stenographer in office of Williams & Vincent, Milford.

DAVID J. COSTELLO.—Employed in a machine shop, Hopedale; intends to enter college later; is living in Milford.

MARGARET CURRAN.—Is bookkeeper and stenographer in the town treasurer's office; lives in Milford.

JOHN N. DALTON.*—Attending Massachusetts Institute of Technology; lives in Milford.

PATRICE A. DILLON.—Attending Simmons college and taking domestic science course, lives in Milford.

LORETTA M. DOLAN.*—Student at Framingham Normal school.

DAISY L. DODGE.—Entered Milford Hospital Training School for Nurses; lives in Milford.

EARLE S. DRAPER.*—Attending Massachusetts Agricultural college at Amherst; lives in Milford.

FLORENCE K. DWYER.*—Lives in Milford.

A. BERNICE FERRY.—Taking a course in household economics in the Newton Technical High school; present residence, 18 Oakland street, Newton, Mass.

AGNES M. GILMORE.—Stenographer in C. E. Rees Co. office, Boston; lives in Milford.

FRED HARRINGTON.*—Working in piano warerooms, Boston; lives in Milford.

HELEN R. HAYES.*—Is a student at Bryant & Stratton's Commercial college, Boston.

MARION L. HUSSEY.—Is a stenographer; lives at 80 East street, Whitinsville.

MARRIAM KALTER.*—Lives at South Framingham.

JOHN E. MAHONEY.—Lives at home in Milford.

HELEN F. McDERMOTT.*—Employed by Carroll, Hixon, Jones Co., Milford.

RUTH B. MIETT.—Lives at home in Milford.

WILLIAM F. MOLONEY.*—Student at Holy Cross college, Worcester.

JACK MOORE.*—Lives in Milford.

SADIE A. R. O'CONNELL.—Attending Emerson College of Oratory, Boston ; lives in Milford.

ALICE E. SPENCER.*—Lives in Roslindale.

JEREMIAH J. SULLIVAN.—Attending Tufts Dental college ; lives in Milford.

BEATRICE C. TURNER.*—Lives in Milford.

FLORENCE M. WEEKS.—Student at Burdett Business college, Boston.

JESSIE H. WHITNEY.—Attending Training School for Nurses, Providence, R. I. ; lives at home here.

MYRTLE E. WHITTEMORE.—Taking commercial course in Milford high school ; lives in Milford.

HILDA C. WILLIAMS.*—Student at Simmons college, Boston ; lives in Milford.

CLASS OF '12.

WALTER R. BAILEY,
OLIVE E. BISHOP,
HELEN H. BRAGG,
CHESTER F. BROWN,
ROGER E. BUTLER,
WILLIAM L. CAREY,
CATHERINE R. CONWAY,
MARY J. COOKE,
EARL CROCKETT,
MARGUERITE L. CURTIN,
JOSEPH G. DePASQUALE,

KATHARINE M. DOHERTY,
EDWARD W. DUGGAN,
JOSEPH R. DUGGAN,
ALFRED J. GOUCHER,
SARA F. HASKARD,
HARRIS K. HAVNER,
MAY E. HUNTER,
LINUS H. JONES,
WILLIAM B. JONES,
JOHN F. KEANE,
CARL F. KENNEDY,

HELEN W. KILEY,
JOHN E. LYNCH,
LOUIS A. MARINO,
WILLIAM H. McCUE,
MARGARET L. McNAMARA,
ADA M. MELVIN,
FREDERICK A. NEALON,
RALPH L. NEWCOMB,
JAMES F. QUIRK,
NICHOLAS SANTOSUOSSO,

CLIFTON L. SMITH,
MARGARET E. SULLIVAN,
GEORGE A. SWEET,
FREDERICK J. TULLY,
PORTER C. WEBBER,
WILLIAM F. WELCH,
FORREST G. WILDER,
MARGARET WILLIAMS
ADELAIDE I. WITHERELL.

NOTE.

Some returns have been received too late to be available in compiling the records.

Mrs. Abby H. (Walker) Carpenter, '66, died Oct. 27, 1911, at Fairhaven, Mass., which had been her residence for many years.

Mrs. Addie A. (Chapin) Yeager, '71, is to reside at 652 Noble avenue, Bridgeport, Conn.

NECROLOGY.

- '62 Mark D. Shea, September, 1900.
- '63 Etha A. Ainsworth (Ayres), March, 1909.
- '63 Kate E. Blood (Warren), November, 1911.
- '63 Alice B. Chapin, May, 1900.
- '63 Clara A. Hayward (Fales), August, 1886.
- '63 Cora Hero (Mayhew), September, 1896.
- '63 William J. Mann, August, 1896.
- '63 S. Gertrude Parkhurst (Guild), May, 1889.
- '64 George H. Ball, 1904.
- '64 Adla M. Chapin (Claflin), December, 1911.
- '64 Amanda Chapin (Gates), December, 1875.
- '64 Isora M. Leseur (Reynolds), 1900.
- '65 Diana Carpenter, March, 1883.
- '65 Emma T. Day (Parker), August 22, 1882.
- '65 Anna L. Hayward (Bullard),———.
- '65 Alta M. Howard (Goodspeed), 1910.
- '65 S. Ella Nash (Howard), August, 1894.
- '65 David L. Parkhurst, 1898.
- '66 Annetta L. Draper (Carter),———.
- '66 Anna E. Gates (Jacobs), March, 1911.
- '66 Ellen M. Gleason (Miller), 1910.
- '66 Leander Holbrook, May, 1904.
- '66 Mary Holbrook, January, 1912.
- '66 Emma Hunt (Draper), December, 1876.
- '66 Carro S. Leland (Piper), October, 1894.
- '66 Emma C. O'Brien, November, 1868.
- '66 Abby H. Walker (Carpenter), October, 1911.
- '66 Sarah E. Whittemore (Robinson), April, 1883.
- '67 Jeannette Bassett, February, 1872.
- '67 Susan E. Inman, December, 1910.
- '67 Edgar W. Washburn, 1905.
- '67 Lura C. Woods (Sears), April, 1877.
- '68 George Goldsmith, February, 1869.

- '68 Samuel W. Hayward, 1906.
'68 Ella J. Newton, December, 1909.
'69 Lizzie M. Gleason (Whitney), January, 1912.
'69 Emma F. Parker (Nash), August, 1897.
'69 Mary W. Parkhurst (Hudson), December, 1885.
'70 Eva R. Draper, April, 1884.
'70 Eleanor W. Johnson, August, 1884.
'70 Ella U. B. Normandy (Brown), October, 1907.
'70 Velma V. Noyes (Spaulding), October, 1907.
'70 John P. Powers, August, 1875.
'71 Edith L. Blake (Billings), December, 1910.
'71 Augusta A. Cay (Taft), March, 1910.
'71 Kate L. Gillman (Howard), November, 1874.
'71 Hattie Goldsmith (Mathewson), June, 1878.
'71 Elsie A. Jenks (Jenks), September, 1886.
'71 James S. O'Callaghan, December, 1899.
'71 Carra V. Sadler, November, 1891.
'71 Lizzie S. Sumner (Perrigo), January, 1912.
'71 Millie A. Blunt (Leonard), October, 1902.
'72 Harris Carpenter, October, 1904.
'72 John J. Cochran, August, 1891.
'72 Allister S. Jones, May, 1900.
'72 Mary J. Kelley, October, 1887.
'72 Maggie L. Murphy, May, 1880.
'72 Henry E. Nelson,———.
'72 Kate A. Wallace, October, 1882.
'73 Edwin J. Cheever, ———.
'73 Elwood H. Cook, December, 1874.
'73 Delia M. Johnson, November, 1910.
'73. Thomas P. McDonough, February, 1896.
'73 Samuel N. Nelson, February, 1893.
'73 Ada A. Skinner (Adair), February, 1911.
'73 Ida F. Thompson (Taft), July, 1909.
'73 Lucy M. Wilber, July, 1904.
'74 Ella M. Albee, February, 1878.
'74 Minnie J. Folger, February, 1906.
'74 James E. Keating, July, 1911.
'74 Herbert H. Lyons, 1908.

- '74 Margaret F. Madden (Lee), July, 1910.
- '74 William F. O'Callaghan, January, 1912.
- '74 Anna E. Sheldon, January, 1899.
- '74 A. Willis Tarbell, August, 1907.
- '74 Robert E. Walsh, April, 1875.
- '75 Kate E. Bergin (Davoren), January, 1901.
- '75 Sarah C. Tuttle, April, 1877.
- '76 Emma B. Ball, November, 1882.
- '76 Josephine Cheney, February, 1891.
- '76 Hattie M. Knights (Thayer), December, 1905.
- '76 Hannah C. Lynch, January, 1895.
- '76 Bridget A. Lyons, April, 1887.
- '76 Edith J. Stoddard (Corbett), September, 1898.
- '76 Annie L. Sumner (Ary), January, 1888.
- '78 Lowell E. Fales, May, 1911.
- '79 Fred I. Bailey, September, 1897.
- '79 Arthur H. Ball, December, 1890.
- '79 Ellen A. Devine, February, 1902.
- '79 Mary A. Gallen, about 1897.
- '79 John P. Holmes, May, 1904.
- '79 Thomas F. Kelley, December, 1899.
- '79 Charles W. Loomis, March, 1900.
- '79 Lillian Smith (Davis),———.
- '79 Nellie A. Taylor, July, 1902.
- '80 Martin J. Kelley, April, 1897.
- '80 Arthur E. Kirby, September, 1883.
- '80 Hannah B. McGarry (Regan), March, 1904.
- '80 Maggie I. Quirk, January, 1889.
- '80 James A. Slattery, September, 1911.
- '80 Nellie M. Wallace, January, 1885.
- '80 A. Trask Woodbury, August, 1907.
- '81 Lillie M. O'Donnell, June, 1890.
- '82 Sarah P. Chapin, September, 1885.
- '82 Ella T. Chilson (Wilbur), December, 1896.
- '82 Thomas F. Conniff,———.
- '82 Timothy J. Dempsey, June, 1887.
- '82 Susan G. Gallagher (Lennon),———.
- '82 Annie E. Heath, March, 1896.

- '82 Catherine E. O'Callaghan, March, 1887.
'82 Frank C. Phillips, July, 1894.
'82 John V. Sweeney, January, 1889.
'83 Annie G. Burke (McDermott), July, 1911.
'83 Mary G. Burns, September, 1911.
'83 John F. Coyne, November, 1884.
'83 Jerry F. Fitzpatrick, February, 1909.
'84 Ida M. Bradley (Waterman),———.
'84 Alexander Cochran, November, 1901.
'84 Robert E. I. Ellsbree, April, 1885.
'84 Charlotte T. Field (Shepard), March, 1911.
'84 Nellie F. Gorman,———.
'84 Fannie D. Richardson, April, 1896.
'84 John F. Tobin, March, 1909.
'84 Lizzie F. Toomey, September, 1886.
'84 Mary E. Traversee (Patterson), 1906.
'84 William J. Welch, March, 1908.
'85 William F. Burke, October, 1910.
'85 Frank L. Fales,———.
'85 John F. Igoe, February, 1894.
'85 Clara A. Johnson, January, 1889.
'85 Elbridge P. Jones, July, 1908.
'85 Clarence H. Morgan, January, 1893.
'85 Charles R. Saunders, December, 1888.
'86 J. Samuel Blunt, November, 1892.
'86 Lilla F. Hayward (Smith), November, 1891.
'86 Abbie I. Madden (Shea),———.
'87 Lydia F. Gould, June, 1895.
'87 Sarah M. Gorman, (Logan), January, 1912.
'87 Francis J. Moriarty, 1910.
'87 Walter Parkhurst, March, 1908.
'88 Nellie Brown (Clark),———.
'88 Patrick J. Keelon, October, 1891.
'89 John Joseph Casey, September, 1894.
'89 James E. Fitzgerald, August, 1890.
'89 Thomas J. Murphy, October, 1907.
'90 Charles F. Egan, December, 1909.
'90 William M. Smith, May, 1895.

- '91 Fred J. Egan, May, 1910.
- '91 George E. Gilmore, April, 1902.
- '91 E. Otis Thayer, February, 1903.
- '91 Lillian N. White, May, 1894.
- '92 Grace A. Fairbanks, June, 1893.
- '92 Charles J. O'Brien, November, 1899.
- '92 Harry H. O'Connor, 1903.
- '93 Katherine G. Gilmore (McCabe),———.
- '93 Edith L. Moriarty (Kynoch), March, 1910.
- '93 Hattie M. Parkhurst, March, 1900.
- '93 Frank A. Thayer, August, 1895.
- '93 Clarence H. Woodbury, August, 1893.
- '94 Jennie M. Daniels (Rhodes), November, 1898.
- '94 Annie M. Quinn, July, 1903.
- '94 John C. Sweeney, November, 1900.
- '98 Blanche M. Gardner (Edmands), August, 1906.
- '98 George W. Gillon, September, 1906.
- '00 Marion Lent, March, 1902.
- '02 Alice N. Moulton (Burbank), December, 1907.
- '05 Eugenie S. Kirby, December, 1909.
- '08 Amanda G. Foster, March, 1910.
- '08 Lillian Schooner, April, 1912.

TEACHERS.

List of Teachers of the School Since Its Organization, November 12, 1850.

PRINCIPALS.

Rev. Elias Nason, 1850-52.	Alfred W. Pike, 1852-53.
Sylvester J. Sawyer, 1853-56.	Grove P. Jenks, 1856-57.
Mr. Reed, one term, 1857.	J. R. Draper, 1857-58.
Rev. Charles J. White, 1858-60.	D. B. Sanborn, 1860-61.
Ruel B. Clark, 1861-65.	Frank A. Hill, 1865-70.
Silas W. Hale, 1870-80.	Herbert W. Lull, 1880-90.
W. C. Whiting, 1890-91.	George B. Chandler, 1891-92.
Eben Williams, 1892-96.	A. E. Tuttle, 1896-99.
Irving H. Gamwell, 1899-1900.	I. Franklin Frisbee, 1900-02.
John C. Hull, 1902-06.	George F. Murdock, 1906-08.
E. R. Clarke, 1908-11.	George H. Derry, 1911-.

ASSISTANTS.

S. Adelaide Scott (Gleason).	Kate K. Barker.
M. J. Dyer.	Caroline M. Baker.
F. A. Gove (Underwood).	Mrs. Page.
Mary E. Torrey (Bryant).	Sarah E. Cole.
Clara Erskine (Clement-Waters).	Martha I. Cotton.
Lucy S. Lord.	Ellen M. Patrick.
Carrie M. Clapp (Shippee).	Sarah L. Graves.
Mary B. Smith.	Clara M. Howard (Shelton).
Lydia B. Godfrey.	Lucy M. Wilber.
Mary A. Parkhurst (Fales).	Anna M. Bancroft.
Alice T. Hall.	Frank B. Sherburne.
Alice C. Jones.	John W. Gordon.
Alzie R. Hayward (Baker).	William J. Rushmore.
Lucy S. Patrick.	Sarah H. Leavens.
Nellie Pickering.	Lydia B. Essex.
Elisabeth F. Abbe.	Ida C. Ashley.

A. E. Hitchcock.
Edith M. Richardson.
Gertrude A. Deans.
Mary Hale Woodbury.
Laura B. Crandon.
Jessie E. Gould.
Harriet E. Morton.
Harry A. Reed.
N. P. Sipprelle.
W. A. Clark.
Miss E. P. Hunting.
Mary B. Ford.
Inez Gay.
Adele Waldmeyer.

Adelaide G. Simmons.
Mary Burgess (Goodenough).
Claribel Moulton (Waterman).
Adeline C. Teele (Billings).
Edith L. Bishop.
Helen M. Latting.
E. L. Bean.
Caroline M. Field.
Henrietta C. Brazeau.
Grace E. Harwood.
Thomas J. Murphy.
Helen J. Gilmore.
Edith Nichols.
Marion Ryan.

SUMMARY.

Milford High School established	.	.	.	1850
Population of Milford in 1850	.	.	.	4819
First regular class graduated	.	.	.	1862
Number in first class	.	.	.	5
Population in 1875	.	.	.	9818
Number in graduating class of 1875	.	.	.	19
Population in 1901	.	.	.	11,376
Number in class of 1901	.	.	.	26
Population in 1912	.	.	.	13,055
Number in the class of 1912	.	.	.	41
Principals 22, assistants 60, total	.	.	.	82
Total number of graduates	.	.	.	1119
Number of deaths	.	.	.	169

NAMES OF SCHOLARS

Who Attended the Milford High School During Its First Year.

From a catalogue of the school for the year ending Nov. 11, 1851, the following names of scholars are taken :—

MALES.

Aldrich, Henry Kimball	Nelson, Henry Edwin
Bailey, Thomas Bucklin	Parkhurst, Merrill
Ball, Henry	Parkhurst, Henry Nelson
Barbour, George Kelley	Perry, Henry
Bullard, Henry Clarke	Parker, Horace
Bullard, Charles Eugene	Phillips, George Henry
Chapin, Nathan Thayer	Pierce, George Amory
Cheney, Edwin	Pond, George Gilbert
Cheney, Cortez	Rice, Byron
Corbett, Cyrus Barton	Scott, Henry Clinton
Corbett, Charles	Scott, Augustus Elwin
Cook, James Owen	Scammell, William Henry
Daniels, Charles Augustus	Stacy, George Edward
Daniels, Arthur Thurber	Stacy, Theodore Edwin
Daniell, Charles	Sumner, Sullivan Clarke
Davenport, Nathan Wood	Sumner, Clarke Freeman
Dean, William Brewer	Sweet, Stephen
Erskine, John	Tingley, Silas Edwin
Evans, Benjamin Franklin	Tilton, William Alcott
Fletcher, Emmons Franklin	Tyler, Addison
Gilbert, Charles Warren	Underwood, George Dwight
Goldsmith, Charles Carrol	Vant, Elbridge Austin
Harrington, Sereno Oscar	Ware, George Warren
Holmes, Otis Worthington	Ward, Waldo F.
Howard, Alonzo	Wheeler, Jervis Bates
Jones, Julius Munroe	Walker, Frederick

Kelly, Jeremiah Mellen	Willis, Edwin Lowell
Kendall, George Lyman	Whitney, Charles Edward
Leland, Perry	Wight, Charles Fairford
Mason, Francis Owen	Wight, Henry Fuller
Metcalf, Charles Henry	Wilkinson, Edwin
Nason, Paul Ford	Woods, Julius M.

FEMALES.

Adams, Mary Elisabeth	Guild, Elisabeth Ellen
Albee, Medora M.	Hancock, Elisabeth
Albee, Josephine C.	Heath, Elisabeth Marion
Allen, Elisabeth M.	Hilliard, Charlotte Lorena
Ball, Sarah Jane	Howard, Lauriet Lucretia
Barbour, Mary Louisa	Howard, Josephine Mary
Bond, Selina Jane	Hunt, Elisabeth Melita
Brigham, Susan Walter	Hunt, Ellen Elisabeth
Brigham, Mary Angeline	Hunt, Laura Adelaide
Brown, A. Ellen	Johnson, Sophia Parsons
Bragg, Elisabeth Chamberlain	Jones, Maria Louisa
Bullard, Lucy M.	Jones, Charlotte
Bullock, Jane Parney	Jillson, Adeliza
Carpenter, Ellen Maria	Kilbon, Elleanor Jane
Cheney, Cynthia Alexander	Lovett, Mary Eliza
Cheney, Frances Marion	Lovett, Harriet Frances
Chessman, Adeline Elizabeth	Makepiece, Mary Matilda
Chapin, Sarah Olivia	McGovern, Mary Ann
Chamberlain, Caroline Matilda	Nichols, Adelaide
Claflin, Josephine Bragg	Onion, Ellen Maria
Claflin, Ellen Maria	Parkhurst, Marion
Clark, Jane Scammell	Parkhurst, Annie Maria
Clark, Emily	Parkhurst, Laura
Clark, Sarah Albee	Parkhurst, Eliza
Clark, Anna Thatcher	Parkhurst, Charlotte
Cook, Joanna Ballou	Perry, Melissa Maria
Cook, Chloe Hunt	Perry, Caroline Elisabeth
Corbett, Charlotte Prentiss	Pickering, Sarah Angeline
Cummings, Martha A.	Pond, Hellen Maria
Daniels, Georgiana Amanda	Scammell, Rosetta Augusta

Daniels, Mary Jones	Scofield, Mary Elisabeth
Daniels, Harriet Elisabeth	Spear, Sally
Daniels, Sabra Ann	Taft, Emma A.
Dean, Frances Lydia	Thayer, Harriet Lydia
Dean, Louisa Cornelia	Torrey, Phebe Ann
Dodge, Sarah Janette	Vant, Adelaide Victoria
Draper, Caroline Augusta	Warfield, Ruby
Eames, Hellen Sophia	Walker, Lovisa Ede
Eames, Amelia Claflin	Wetherbee, Ellen Augusta Isabella
Fisk, Elisabeth Russell	Whitney, Rowena
Total enrolment 144 ; males 64, females 80.

